ST. JACOBS OIL

TRADE MARK

THE GREAT REMEDY FOR PAIN

LUMBAGO—LAME BACK.

Why so many devices from a graceful carriage may be accounted for in as many ways as there are unhappy feelings.

Dr. Jacques Oil Westcotes.

Strength.—The spinal column is the mainstay of the body, which stiffens up the strength man or woman, and nature has provided muscular supports to hold it erect.

Effects Prompt Cures.

Weakness.—Men and women recklessly twist themselves out of shape, and the result is the few standing straight and the many bending down.

Cures Are Perfect, Permanent.

Symptoms.—Lumbago manifests itself by pains in the back, which are most troublesome or subtle. They come at times without warning; we rise from a sitting posture to find the body so crippled or strained as to cause acute suffering.

Every Application Relieves.

Treatment.—Rub the parts affected freely with St. Jacobs Oil; rub hard and vigorously, producing warmth, and if the pain is slow in yielder, wrap the parts in flannel steeped in hot water and wring out.

Cure Comes, Always Cures.

NORWOOD.

Feb. 9.—The action instituted by J. B. Pearce, in the high court of justice, having for its object the unseating of Reeve Finlay, has been withdrawn. The grounds on which the action was based was that Mr. Finlay was one of the sureties for the treasurer. The reeve became a surety for the treasurer six years ago and the bond was drawn for one year only so that during the past five years he guardian of the corporation fund has been getting along very comfortably without any bondsmen at all. The costs in this action will be paid by the plaintiff.—The residence of John Hammond, Coldwater street, Orillia, was on Wednesday, Jan. 28th, the scene of a festive gathering, the occasion being the marriage of his daughter Flora, to Fred Fry, of this place, formerly of Orillia. The ice is good.—There will be races here on the 25th and 26th.—A number of dogs have been poisoned.—A large number of children are sick with mumps and measles.

DELTA.

Feb. 9.—The races came off on the 6th with over a thousand spectators. The ice was in splendid condition. The horses got off in the first heat in splendid order, but did not go far before "Marshal of France" took the lead and kept it to the end. This caused dissatisfaction among the backers of Boy-onet. The second heat was a repetition of the first. By this time things were getting quite serious with Mr. Murphy and T. K. Scovil, many accusing them of selling the race. To satisfy the crowd they put on another driver in the person of A. Stevens, of Athens, an old professor in the business. This change was still more disastrous to the colt as "Marshal" left her a full quarter of a mile behind, making the last heat in a little over 2:46. The driver of "Marshal," Mr. Wallace says he only speeded him on the last quarter. There is talk of another match between C. D. Lambert's "Marshal of France," and "Little Mack," owned by Reid Alguire, of Athens, for $500 a side.—The conservative convention is to be held here to-morrow.—A heavy rain fell here last night.—Mrs. Jennie Curtis has been visiting friends in Watertown.—J. NOTES FROM NEWBORO.

An Interesting Budget of News From a Lively Village.

Feb. 9.—Our political bees are beginning to hum and an exciting campaign is expected. The conservatives of this place held a caucus in Victoria hall on Saturday evening to select delegates for the convention. One of the members attempted to tinker up a list of his own, but was promptly quashed. Should a third candidate appear in the field it will be a close call for Mr. Taylor.—The Kingston and Smith's Falls railway is booming now, in words at least.—The repeal of the Scott act was finely exemplified in a disgraceful scene in front of the Ottawa house. A person was busy mauling a drunken man when the man's wife came to the rescue, and with the help of another old woman and the aid of threats of "lockup" got him into his cutter and away at 4:40, head up.—The social held at Mrs. Baker's was a complete success. A number of the children and others took a part in a pleasing programme of songs. Rev. Mr. Ross, Westport, and Rev. Mr. Tennant assisted. The ladies netted about $17.—Quarterly services were held in the Methodist church on Sunday, and communion was dispensed in the Presbyterian church.—T. R. Preston removes to Roslin about the 1st of March.—Mrs. R. S. McDonald, very low, is recovering rapidly. The mumps still continue. A few cases of
