THE TAKING TO TOKAR.

DETAILS OF THE SLAUGHTER OF OSMAN DIGNA'S DERVISHES.

A Battle With Burmese—A Chieftain's Palace Looted and Burned and Many of its Defenders Killed—Over 500 Rebels Executed.

SUAKIM, Feb. 25.—Further particulars of the recent fight at Tokar have just been received. Colonel Slith, on learning that Osman Digna was preparing an attack on the flank while the Egyptians were marching from El Teb, hastened his advance to Tokar. The cavalry drove in the enemy's mounted scouts, but the enemy advanced rapidly in a semicircle through the thick brushwood. Their presence was made known only by occasional glimpses above the bush of moving men and banners. The hills, a mile distant, were covered with reserves.

Both sides tried to seize outlying houses for protection. The Egyptian infantry rushed to and occupied some ruins and then raced with the dervishes to seize the houses outside of the general line of defence. One company, succeeding in occupying a house, poured a withering fire upon the dervishes, over one hundred of whom fell within a yard of the building. This checked their advance. The semicircle of the enemy was now shifted and was extended until it enveloped the entire line, gradually outflanking the Egyptians.

Horsemen led by Osman Digna and Naib dashed around the right flank and threatened the rear, where the transports had been placed with weak protection. A reserve battalion of Egyptians, however, advancing rapidly, checked the horsemen. The situation was critical for a moment, but the front battalions advancing ran five hundred yards and cleared the ground, carried all the houses and swept off the enemy, who did not stop until they took a position on rising ground.

At the height of the fight the transport camels and mules stampeded and the enemy's horsemen got among them. The Egyptian cavalry immediately charged and drove the dervishes out by hard fighting, which ended in a rout. The enemy having re-formed on rising ground, the Egyptians advanced again, but the enemy's reserves fled without waiting for them. On reaching the second position held by Osman Digna, a hilly place, the Egyptians saw an Arab town stretching in a crescent below them, with rows of tents backed by thousands of straw huts extending for miles. Marching to the village, a host of Arabs poured out begging for pardon. A number of bodies of sheiks were found whom Osman Digna had executed, suspecting them of treachery.

MARSEILLES, Feb. 25.—The captain of a steamship which has arrived here from Madagascar reports that as a result of a revolt upon the part of the natives, the Governor of Nossi-Be, an island and French colony off the northwest coast of Madagascar, has caused the execution of over a hundred rebels and killed their wives and children.

CALCUTTA, Feb. 25.—The British forces under Major Smythe have captured the stockades of the Tsawbwa of Wuntho in Upper Burmah, killing 27 of the defenders. The Tsawbwa palace was set on fire, looted and finally destroyed. The British loss was 13 killed or wounded. The Tsawbwa escaped.

A FAMOUS MANAGER.

Harry Wright Again at the Head of the Philadelphia Club.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 25.—Harry Wright, the famous baseball manager, who last week tendered his resignation as manager of the Philadelphia league club, has been induced by President Reach and Secretary Rogers to withdraw his resignation. All differences between Mr. Wright and the officials of the club have been adjusted to the mutual satisfaction of all concerned, and the veteran manager yesterday signed a contract to continue as sole manager of the club for the next three years.

Fatal Hunger.

CHICAGO, Feb. 24.—"Gimme a cup of coffee and some steak; be lively, too." This was the order which a middle-aged man, dressed very plainly and having a hungry look in his eye, gave to a drowsy waiter in the Climax restaurant, No. 302 State-street, yesterday morning at 1 o'clock. A few moments later his meal was set steaming hot before him. Like a ravenous wolf he began to bolt the meat. At the second bite he slid from his chair to the floor, his eyes bulging from their sockets. He was unconscious before any assistance could be given him and a minute later was dead. Investigation disclosed the fact that the man had died from strangulation, a large piece of the steak being found in his throat. He was about 40 years of age, had a brown beard and wore dark, plain clothes.

Leffler's Novel Death.

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—Otto Leffler, an elderly fresco painter, out of work and despondent, committed suicide in his furnished room at No. 311 East Thirteenth-street yesterday forenoon by asphyxiating himself with illuminating gas. Leffler was a German, a widower, 65 years old. He did not respond to repeated knocks on his door yesterday noon and finally the door was forced. Then it was found that he was dead. He lay on his back on the bed with his eyes staring at the ceiling, holding a piece of new rubber pipe in his right hand. One end of this pipe was thrust into his mouth and the other was placed over the gas jet, the cock of which was wide open.

Anson for Cincinnati.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 25.—John I. Rogers returned from Chicago Tuesday full of the doings of the National Board of Control, and still much disgusted at the American Association people for withdrawing from the National agreement. He says he feels confident that there will be a grand scramble of the Association clubs to get in out of the wet before the March meetings, but in case it proves otherwise the National League will carry on the war with great vigor. He declares that there will be a League club in Cincinnati managed by A. C. Anson in case the Association people succeed in holding the present Cincinnati team. But he doubts very much Al Johnson's ability to carry out his Cincinnati threats. Mr. Rogers says League men have $23,500 in the Cincinnati team, and since the club cost but $40,000 he considers that a controlling interest.

Letters from Kingston, Jamaica, to people in Halifax are almost unanimous in agreeing that the exhibition is not so great a success as it might be. How to Prevent Consumption.

"Life is sweet" is an old saying, and just as true as it is old. No one in his or her right senses courts death; all wish to prolong life to the utmost limit, and yet, in spite of this universal desire to live the allotted three score years and ten—and even longer—thousands upon thousands of people through carelessness and neglect, are hastening the time when they must stand face to face with the grim reaper, and make the plunge alone into "the dark valley of the shadow of death." No disease on this continent claims so many victims as consumption, and reliable statistics prove that fully two-thirds of the deaths occurring from consumption had their origin in catarrh. Nothing but negligence caused this last disease to develop into consumption, and the person who neglects to promptly and persistently treat catarrh until all traces are eradicated, is simply hastening the coming of death. Even should catarrh not develop into consumption, it nevertheless shortens life, as every breath the patient inhales passes over poisonous secretions and thus affects the whole system. For the cure of catarrh no remedy ever discovered equals Nasal Balm, which is recognized from the Atlantic to the Pacific as the only certain cure for this disease. It removes the secretions from the nostrils, stops the poisonous droppings into the throat and lungs, and makes the user feel that a new lease of life has been given him. This great catarrh remedy is on sale with all dealers, or will be sent on receipt of price—50 cts. for small and $1.00 for large size bottles—by addressing Fulford & Co., Brockville, Ont.

Validity of the McKinley Bill.

CHICAGO, Feb. 25.—Judge Blodgett decided the case of Marshal Field & Co., against John M. Clark, collector of customs, involving the validity of the McKinley bill. He said the best disposition the court can make of the matter is to affirm the decision on appraisers at New York and allow the case to go directly to the supreme court. I will say, however, that the court was much impressed by the claim advanced by the appelants, and it might be difficult for the argument to be met by the other side. However, the McKinley bill has become the operating mechanism by which the government collects its duties, and an adverse decision in this case might seriously disarrange the service. There should be a finding of facts that this court found the case of sufficient importance to warrant an appeal to the supreme court." An appeal will be prayed for at once.

Sullivan Knocked Out.

From C.P.R. Telegraph Company.

ATHENS, Ga., Feb. 26.—John L. Sullivan was knocked out by a train hand on a Georgia railroad train hand yesterday. Sullivan and his company were on their way to Macon, Ga. Sullivan in bad humor, got howling drunk, and was just sobering up when a train hand named Townsend came through. Sullivan asked where the dinner station was and was answered politely. Then he said to Townsend, "Don't be fresh, how do I know whether you are lying or not." Sullivan used other foul language. Townsend blackened Sullivan's eyes and choked him before he was pulled off. Townsend weighs only about 135 pounds, but is very game. Sullivan after the whipping tried to bluff his opponent out of the car, but it did not work, Townsend stayed in the coach and soon after Sullivan calmed down.

A Pick-by Groom.

From the C.P.R. Telegraph Company.

MASON CITY, Iowa, Feb. 26.—A week ago, contrary to the wishes of some of the bride's relatives, Ed. George, Clear Lake, was united in marriage to Clara Young, daughter of R. O. Young. When the couple returned they received notification to leave town. On Monday night George and his wife were awakened by eleven masked men clothed in white. They produced revolvers, dragged the bridegroom to the street, his wife clinging to him for nearly a block, forced him on a train and ordered him never to return. George, however, got off at the first station, came back, and yesterday caused the arrest of Will Bird and Norris Curdy, among the guilty men.

The California Storm.

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., Feb. 25.—The present storm has caused a great flood. All the bridges over the Santa Anna River have been swept away excepting the Santa Fe bridge on the Redland branch and the Southern Pacific bridge. The latter is partially destroyed. The Santa Fe bridge and the railroad bridge on the road to Riverside are all gone. All the bridges over Little Creek are washed away. The storm appears to be over.

At least six persons have lost their lives in the floods. Many houses have been swept away and a number of families are missing.

A Balloon in His Throat.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 25.—Charles Snyder, 1 years of age, of 128 Arlington avenue, died at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He choked to death on a balloon. The family were seated in the parlor when a cry of pain from another part of the house alarmed them. Charlie was found struggling on the floor. The boy's face was purple from lack of breath and his eyes were bulged out in painful effort. Charlie's respiration lessened fast, and before the doctor arrived he expired. The balloon was later extracted from the boy's throat.

Two Deaths at Bath.

Alexander Humphrey and wife, an old couple, one 93 years and the other 78, were removed from Bath by the hand of death. Only a few weeks ago they were quite active in life. Their only daughter, Mrs. Parks, came from Detroit, Mich., a few weeks ago only to pass through the trying ordeal of witnessing her old parents breathe their last. They were placed in D. C. Forward's new vault and in the spring their daughter will have them interred in one grave. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Allen. The old couple were held in high esteem by their neighbors. They were members of the Methodist church for over a quarter of a century.

EVICTED MINERS ASSAILED

FIERCE BATTLE WITH POLICE IN DURHAM.

The Miners Use Sticks and Stones and Many on Both Sides are Wounded and are Found Weltering in Gore on the Roadside.

DURHAM, Feb. 25.—The eviction of families of striking coal miners from the houses they occupied on the Marquis of Londonderry's and other property near here was continued to-day. The occupants of eight houses returned to the scene, pelted the police with stones and hooted and yelled at the officers. The latter charged upon the strikers and a furious fight followed. The police used batons freely and the strikers retaliated with sticks and stones. Many persons were injured on both sides after the battle, in which the police were victorious, numbers of wounded men were found lying by the wayside fainting and covered with blood.

Electrotypers Strike.

BOSTON, Feb. 25.—All the electrotypers of this city struck to-day for a uniform minimum rate of pay. Nearly 300 men came out. The strike will seriously interfere with the work of 2000 others in the printing trade. The strikers have a strong union and are backed up by compositors, pressmen, paper-rulers, bookbinders and stereotypers.

Particulars of the Destruction of the Parliament Buildings.

TOKIO, Feb. 24.—On the night of Jan. 19 the houses of the Japanese Diet were completely destroyed by fire, which is supposed to have originated from a defect in the wires supplying the electric light. Following so close upon the exciting events connected with the banishment of the Soshi the week before there are many who believe that the fire was only the outcome of that political transaction.

Within sixteen years there has been no fire in Tokio which has been compared with this one, and the burning of the great Siiba Temple 22 years ago is the only other one within a century which has attracted such widespread attention throughout the Empire.

Because the idea of a representative legislative body was new to a great majority of the masses as well as to the press of the country the meeting of the Japanese Diet has given rise at times to feverish excitement, and to many of those who watched the burning of the Parliament buildings it appeared that the Parliament itself was at an end. Its proceedings, however, were only temporarily interrupted, as the House of Peers has found quarters in the immense ballroom of the Imperial Hotel and the House of Representatives in the Engineering College, a half mile away.

The loss of the buildings was complete and will cost the Government 250,000 yen. (A yen is about one dollar.) The crowd of spectators at the fire was immense, even for a Japanese crowd, and for squares there was nothing but one mass of human faces. Almost every available rickshaw in town was pressed into service carrying people to the fire.

BERHING SEA WATERS.

Lord Salisbury is Ready to Arbitrate, so it is Said.

WASHINGTON, D.C., Feb. 25.—It is stated that Lord Salisbury's reply to Secretary Blaine's last letter on the Behring Sea question is on its way to Washington. Lord Salisbury not considering it necessary to await the decision of the Supreme Court in April in the Sayward case. It is also stated that there is reason to believe that Lord Salisbury agrees in his letter to submit the Behring Sea questions to arbitration as suggested by Secretary Blaine. Blaine expects the outcome of the matter to be a convention between the United States, Great Britain and Russia for the preservation of the seals not only in Behring Sea, but in the North Pacific.

Wait, owner of the block, loss $1000, no insurance; Alexander Kellough, loss $2000, insurance $1100; Western and City of London; E. C. Armand, loss $3500, insurance $2300; Misses Dromond and Pattison, dressmakers, $150, no insurance; R. G. Moles, damage by removal, water and fire $900, fully insured; J. E. Thomson, lawyer's office, $300, no insurance; Oddfellows' Hall insured $800; Foresters' Hall, insured $300; J. & Moir, damage $300 in removing; Alf. C. Pye, $500.

Incendiarism at Sarnia.

SARNIA, Feb. 25.—A determined attempt was made to fire the outbuildings of the mill of ward school. A large quantity of coal oil had been used to saturate the boards of the shed and the building was burning furiously before the firemen succeeded in quenching the flames. A reward of $100 is offered by the Town Council for the detection of the incendiary.

FIGHTING IN CHILI.

A Series of Battles in Which the Insurgents are Successful.

IQUIQUE, Feb. 25.—On the 15th inst. a battle was fought on the pampa at Dolores. The Government was defeated with the loss of about 500 men. On the 16th Iquique surrendered to the fleet. A riot the same night, caused by an incendiary mob, was quelled by the fleet and the foreign residents. One hundred and seventy-five of the mob were killed and wounded. On the 17th the opposition party suffered a check on the pampa near Huara. On the 19th Iquique was surprised by the remnant of the Government troops defeated on the pampa. There was hard fighting from morning till evening in the town, the opposition holding the intendencia, and firing from the fleet to protect the intendencia and to cover the landing of the marines. The business part of the town was fired by incendiaries the same evening. Capt. Lamblon of the Warspite landed under fire to arrange an armistice and to take on board any of the remaining women and children from the town. An armistice was declared till noon of the 20th and was arranged by the mediation of Admiral Hotham. On the afternoon of the 20th the government troops were surrendered to the fleet by Col. Soto, who had fought gallantly. The town is now in possession of the fleet. No foreign residents were killed.

The women and children are mostly living in the ships in the harbor, all the men remaining at their offices. The hospital is full. It is probable there will be a decisive battle south of Pisagua soon. Much loss of life and damage to property has been avoided by the action taken by the English admiral on the 21st. All is quiet to-day.

The Springhill Disaster.

SPRINGHILL MINES, N.S., Feb. 25.—Four bodies, those of Henry Livingstone, John Francis, Neil McLeod and W. E. Hyde, were recovered late last night, and two others, those of Donald McKay and Richard Murphy, were taken out this morning. They were all buried beneath a great heap of stone. There are still five bodies to come out, and searching parties are now looking for them. Another of the wounded, Henry Nash, died at midnight. Yesterday afternoon, shortly after the body of her husband was taken home, Mrs. John Connexton gave birth to a child. The mother is now in a critical condition. Daniel McDonald, who was taken out unconscious from the effects of afterdamp, is in a bad way and may die.

Six Doctors.

Miss C. A. J. Vernon, 8 Homer St., Tottenham Park, London, Eng., was treated for more than a year, unsuccessfully, by six doctors, for intense neuralgic pains in the head. She had been giving up as a hopeless invalid. In this extremity she was induced to try St. Jacobs Oil. The pain entirely disappeared before she had used the contents of a bottle. Half the contents of a bottle has cured many.

BEER BETTER THEN GIN.

Gen. Booth says it is More Strengthening and Less Heating.

BERLIN, Feb. 25.—Gen. Booth of the Salvation Army held a rousing meeting here this afternoon. Afterwards in conversation he remarked that from what he had seen of the lowest order of the German population they were less utterly degraded than the English of the like class. The poorest people in Germany make some show of keeping up appearances, at least. The General thinks that beer is a better beverage for the people than gin, being more strengthening and less heating. He gave great praise to German workmen's and women's colonies, which he intends to investigate by a special Salvation Army Commission.

THE BRITISH NAVY.

Lord Hamilton Asks for More Money to Build Vessels.

LONDON, Feb. 25.—The First Lord of the Admiralty, Lord George Francis Hamilton, in the annual statement of the naval estimates, issued to-day, calls for an increase of £358,000. He also gives a satisfactory account of the progress made with the new vessels, and of the large saving effected by the admiralty's insistence on the rapid building of warships instead of putting up with the old delays, which it was claimed were necessary to take advantage of the new ideas and fads of the time. Lord Hamilton, on the other hand, complains of the vagueness of the progress of the armaments for the new men-of-war and the inadequate provisions for mobilizing the reserves.

DOWN AN EMBANKMENT.

Wreck on the Pan Handle Railroad—Four Persons Killed and Several Others Fatally Injured.

RICHMOND, Ind., Feb. 25.—On the Richmond division of the Pan Handle Railway at Hagerstown this afternoon, a train was coming down a steep grade when the frame work of the engine in charge of W. W. Bartlett, engineer, and Noah Dunn, fireman, broke and derailed every car. The cars caught fire, but the fire was quickly extinguished. The day coach and parlor car rolled over twice down a 16-foot embankment. The engine held the rails. The accident resulted in the death of four persons, two more being probably fatally injured and twenty more others more or less severely hurt. The killed are Conductor Case, O. F. Deal, maintenance engineer, Claim Agent Needham and A. M. Reeves, banker of this city. Fatally hurt: Mrs. G. McCrew and Mrs. J. C. Busim.

SWALLOWED A PIECE OF GLASS.

Death of a Woman Under Peculiar Circumstances.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Feb. 25.—Mrs. Sarah Weinert, wife of Conrad Weinert, the ex-Councilman of the Second Ward, died yesterday afternoon under peculiar circumstances. Two or three weeks ago Mrs. Weinert accidentally swallowed a piece of glass. In opening a jar of canned grapes a piece of the top, about an inch long and 1 16th of an inch wide, broke off at the top and was lost in the fruit and later formed part of a pie which Mrs. Weinert baked. Later she ate a piece of the pie and swallowed the glass, which lodged in her throat. A pus sac formed and produced blood-poisoning, from which Mrs. Weinert died.

Had His Coffin Measurement.

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—James Owens, a traveling salesman, 60 years old, was found dead in his room in the Coleman House to-day, and his death was supposed to have been caused by apoplexy. Two days ago he showed to the hotel clerks a card on which was written his name and address and his measurement for a coffin. Owens lived in Milwaukee.

Burglars Foiled.

HENSALL, Feb. 25.—Burglars effected an entrance in McArthur & Co.'s private bank last night, endeavoring to drill the combination of the vault, but apparently the drill was broken before the drilling was completed. They then resorted to the smashing of the hinges and combination of the vault, but were unsuccessful in opening the same, although severely damaging the vault.

The Two Toronto Murders.

TORONTO, Feb. 26.—The coroner's jury in the case of Christopher McGrain charged with the murder of Jane Harding returned a verdict of wilful murder against the accused at 2.30 this morning.

How John Wright met his death at Little York on Saturday is still as great a mystery as ever. The coroner's jury did not return a verdict until 3.30 yesterday morning and it is to the effect that Wright died from a fracture of the skull, but how the fracture was caused cannot be determined from the evidence. James Chapman, who was arrested on Monday, is still in custody.

A man named Watkins, employed by Ice Dealer John Graham to cut ice from Small's pond, met with a painful accident yesterday afternoon. He fell in front of the ice-roller and was badly crushed, his right leg being snapped in two places. Dr. Burgess was called in and relieved the sufferer, after which he was conveyed to his residence in Queen-street east.

A meeting of the creditors of Boyd Bros. & Co., the insolvent wholesale drygoods merchants, was held yesterday afternoon in the office of Assignee Ferguson. Mr. Tilden, president of the Canadian Cotton Company, occupied the chair, and there were about 100 creditors present. The meeting was harmonious throughout.

Mr. Alexander Boyd explained the position of the firm. He had worked hard for 22 years endeavoring to build up the business. They had been moderately successful, but owing to the great losses sustained through bad debts their capital had disappeared. The statement showed a deficiency of $20,000.

Mr. Lash, Q.C., representing the insolvents, stated that in view of the large number of creditors, it would be practically impossible to make an offer of composition which would secure the debtors their discharge.

These were then appointed inspectors, under whose direction the assignee will wind up the estate: Messrs. Angus, MacIntosh, Tilden, Cassels, Lockhart.

The Dead.

George Sylvain, Crown lands agent, and for some years M.P. for Rimouski county, Quebec, died at Rimouski yesterday.

Rev. J. O. Simard, parish priest of Rimouski, died yesterday at the presbytery.

Senator E. K. Wilson of Maryland died suddenly at Washington yesterday.

James Scott Buttron, for a third of a century principal of the Halifax institution for the deaf and dumb, died last night. He was the most successful and one of the most noted teachers of deaf mutes on the continent.

Bricklayers at War.

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—At the recent International convention of bricklayers' unions in Toronto, Canada, Union No. 7, New York consisting of 2500 members, was called upon to pay a strike assessment which it thought unfair and it refused to do so. The result has been an attempt on the part of the other international unions to discipline No. 7. On Saturday night a secret meeting of these antagonistic unions was held, at which resolutions were passed to the effect that unless the members of Bricklayers' Union No. 7 complied with the demands of the International Union by March 1 they would be considered non-union men and the other unions would refuse to work with them.

An Old Man Burned to Death.

WYOMING, Feb. 25.—About 9 o'clock last evening residents on the 6th line of Plympton saw fire issuing from a log house occupied by Charles McGinnis, aged 60. LONDON, Feb. 25.—Sir G. S. Baden-Powell (Conservative), member of Parliament for Kirkdale, Liverpool, who recently made an extensive tour of Canada, in a letter to The Times says he has perfect confidence in the loyalty of both parties in Canada. The Canadians, he says, are fully alive to the value of independence and will soon dispose of the few annexationists who are to be found in their country. The probable outcome of the present agitation will be a system of modified reciprocity between the United States and Canada. Canada, he says, would not consent to lose her foreign markets.

The suit, which is brought in the names of Charles and Sir Evelyn Wood, is being tried before Justice Jesse.

Military Outrage in Nuremburg.

LONDON, Feb. 24.—Great excitement prevails in Nuremburg, Germany, over a military outrage. A sergeant of the German army named Brunfeldt compelled a private soldier, whom he accused of neglecting to keep himself clean, to stand in a semi-nude condition under a pump. The man was not in robust health, and the exposure to the chilly torrent of water caused his death almost immediately. The people who witnessed the outrage loudly denounced it, and a riot for some time appeared imminent. The affair is being investigated by Brunfeldt's superiors.
