When they say they saw enough to see the end of any ordinary married. These stood the first wife, taller than in life, her long yellow hair hanging down her back in an old wig.

It returned next evening. All the members of the party were dressed and waiting for it. One of the brides fainting, another window went to smash, and the following day the long and gloomy honeymoon terminated abruptly.

He was not alone. His wife stood beside him in her grave clothes. She stroked her hair with her hand and pressed her lips to his. She spoke in terms of endearment and told him not to mourn for her, as she was "very, very happy."
