NEW YORK, March 31, - The Buffale, Chousand Dland and Portland railroad, the proposed extension of the Rome, Watertown & Ogdersburg from Suspension bridge to Buffalo, may be built after all. After the the New York Central it was supposed that the projected road along Niagara river would be abaudoned as well as the Central's much talked of Thousand Island road. News comes from Buffalo now that the Lehigh Valley railroad is determined to have the Buffalo, Thousand Islands and Portland built. According to the Buff-lo Courier the Lahigh Valley, under a contract entered into with the Rome, Watertown & Ogdensburg, secured a joint interest in the building and use of the Buffalo, Thousand Island and Portland railroad, and it, therefore, has quite as much to say about the construction or abandonment of that project as the New York Central. Nearly all of the right of way for the new line has been ought, and condemnation proceedings for ertain other lands are in progress. The Game of Flip.

KINGSTON, March 31 .- (To the Editor)

Did you ever play flip? What never! Why you are a back number, an antideluvian a mossback, you're like the man that fell out of the baloon-not in it. A man who has ever played flip, knows nothing about enoyment. Just common ordinary flip as played at home with your own family is fun. but progressive flip is a combination of joy fun and fight. The beauty of flip is old people can play it. Lawn tennis bars old folks on account of its dudish nature. The most successful lawn tennis players are those oung men who smoke cigarettes and two for sigars, wear those chest protector overcoats. a pair of cuffs on their ankles, part their hair the middle, allow their big sisters to split the kindling wood, light the fires, black their boots and say, "Ah, there Chawley. Brains are a secondary consideration in lawn tennis but in flip it's quite different. To be a successful flip player you require brains, lots of them. You must be cool and deliberate. If your partner happens to be handsome don't get rettled, concentrate your mind on the game, think only of the one object in view, the prize to be awarded to the champion flipper at the termination of the great contest. An Open Letter.

To the parliament of Outario and the loyal Gentlemen, -The council of the College of Physicians and Surgeons are assailing the government for an amendment to the medical act. Among other matters they expect a clause to more effectually choke off unregistered practitioners and faith cure workers and facilitate their speedy punishment, although how they are going to hinder peo ple having faith is beyond any comprehension. As the medical act stands the doctors of a collegiate district are empowered to meet and vote their own tariff of fees for the different parts of said district. Surely such a protective measure cannot exist in any other part of the world for any profession or body men. I will simply give one or two in stances. At the request of the physicians of this territorial district the council have fixed their travelling fees at $1 a mile. I think of the many times I have driven to done." town with loads of wood, a distance of twelve miles. After deducting the price of the wood and expenses and selling the load for made a not sum of $1.50 or 124c. a Yet the doctor can drive out in his little coxy gig, spend an hour or so and charge $1 a mile. Some of them claim to have a right to charge $2 or $3. When I consider the large expense in my farming operations and the petty $1,000 or $1,200 spent on him to give him his profession, surely you will agree with me that 'tis the most tyrannical and arbitrary measure in existence and a disgrace to the province and the government that keeps I was in a doctor's office the other day such an unjust law on its statute book. He was a fine, genial fellow, good hearted and honest, I'm sure. While sitting there an old gentleman called, a farmer; from whom the doctor had extracted a tumor. The visitor asked how much his debt was. The doctor sought the schedule of fees, found the schedule price $200, but being good hearted he charged only half price, $100. When I consider the drudging and trudging this old gentleman had to make $200 on his farm and how the doctor could by law earn it from him, it gave me an ther natance of the exorbitant greed of the men who had the making of that tariff of fees. It's true physicians, generally speaking, do not exact the tariff fees and often not half. In that they are better men and far less avariotous than those that formed the

Now, I believe the bounder duty of the minister of agriculture is to boldly grasp this measure and see that it is relegat-ed to a committee in great part composed of reformers, and who would do justice to their oppressors as well as thereselves. They may say I am not a good reformer for attacking an act of the Ontario legislature.
