A NEW CANADIAN AUTHOR.

Rev. A. H. Scott's Work—"Ten Year's in My First Charge."

About three months ago attention was called in the WHIG to the new book, by the Rev. A. H. Scott, M.A., entitled, "Ten Years in My First Charge." Then the work was judged from an advance copy containing specimen pages. Now the complete work lies on our table. The outward finish is a superbly gotten up volume, reflecting credit upon Hart & Co., Toronto, publishers. It would be difficult to improve upon the high finish of the full Morroco edition. The library and cloth editions are superior in style. Inside the cover is matter out of the usual. In addition to a dedication page and a nicely worded preface, the author dedicates a page in acknowledgment of a $600 gift from John Armour, Esq., Perth. Then follow 309 pages of matter that we commend to the attention of every house hold in Kingston. The twelve chapters that are comprised in the volume indicate that their author is in touch with humanity in many of its phases. The chapter on the furnace, the forge and the file gives the dark side to an honored minister. But this is the back ground for brighter records. Whoever reads this new book and does not rise from the perusal of the last two hundred pages benefited is not likely to be benefited by reading any book. Fifteen sketches, from the ministry, in chapters IX and X, and nine gleanings from experience in chapter XII will be read with special interest.

Mr. Scott doubtless feels that he owes a debt of gratitude to Kingston, for in this city he spent the seven years of his university and theological courses, indeed his first obligations to Kingston are recorded in the first chapter of the book. Kingstonians may well express their appreciation of the newest upon the list of Canadian authors, by giving wide circulation to the meritorious work that A. M Campbell, the Kingston agent, will proceed at once to distribute in the city.

THE WORLD FOR CHRIST

ANNUAL MEETING OF LIVE MISSIONARY WOMEN.

There Was a Large Delegation of Ladies—Tendered a Hearty Welcome, and Fine Reports From Various Societies—The Year's Results.

The fifteenth annual meeting of the woman's foreign missionary society held its opening session in Chalmers' church, Kingston, Tuesday morning. The sunshine of a beautiful spring day lighted up the church, which had been tastefully decorated with flowers. About 200 ladies were present when the meeting began, and during the morning the number was largely increased.

The delegates present were:

Mrs. Steele, Mrs. Watson, Miss Leamen, Mrs. Archibald, Mrs. Gunn, Mrs. Maclaren, Mrs. Ewart, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Barrie, Mrs. Shortreed, Mrs. Reid, Miss Stewart, Mrs. Playfair, Mrs. Mortimer Clarke, Mrs. McMurrich, Mrs. Duthie, Miss Shortreed, Mrs. McGaw, Miss McGaw, Miss George, Miss Telfer, Mrs. D. Mackay, Mrs. J. C. Hamilton, Mrs. Maclennan, Mrs. Fraser, Mrs. Morrison, Mrs. Bryce, Mrs. Carlyle, Mrs. Jeffrey, Miss B. MacMurchy, Mrs. M. MacMurchy, Toronto.

Mrs. Thompson, Ayr; Mrs. G. Paterson, Mrs. Peacock, Almonte, Mrs. Foirie, Orangeville; Mrs Thorburn, Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs Hardie, Mrs. Gibson, Miss Durie, Miss Gibson, Ottawa; Mrs. Somerville, Owen Sound; Miss Drummond, Newcastle; Mrs. Steele, Dundas; Mrs. McNair, Durham; Mrs. Rathbun, Mrs. F. E. Rathbun, Miss Davis, Deseronto; Mrs. Jack, Mrs. Stewart, Belleville; Mrs. Dowsley, Mrs. Gill, Brockville.

Miss Moore, Miss R. Moore, Brockville; Mrs. Bennett, Mrs. Byer, Gananoque; Mrs. McCrae, Guelph; Mrs. Campbell, Chelten ham; Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Cavers, Carleton Place; Mrs. Low, Mrs. McArthur, Miss Reid, Cardinal; Mrs. Ross, Parkhill; Mrs. McLennan, Cornwall; Mrs. Scott, Brockdale; Miss Gandier, Newburgh; Miss Davidson, Mrs. and Miss Fairbarn, Peterboro; Mrs. MacAlister, Miss Coulter, Iroquois; Mrs. Campbell, Montreal; Miss Laidlaw, Mansewood; Mrs. Hunter, Mrs. Supple, Mrs. Irving, Pembroke; Miss Riddell, Perth; Mrs. Craick, Mrs. W. R. Reid, Port Hope; Mrs. Blair, Prescott; Miss Beatty, Mrs. Fairlie, Lansdowne; Misses Fraser, Keswick, Gourlay, London; Misses Smellie, Argo, Wilson, Fergus; Mrs. McCallum, Mrs. Nixon, Miss McLaren, Miss King, Mrs. Myine, Mrs. Frost, Mrs. C. B. Frost, Smith's Falls; Mrs. Cameron, Strabane; Miss McWilliams, Hespeler.

Miss Fairbanks, Halifax; Mrs. Grant, Miss Ewing, Mrs. Williams, Miss Findlay, Mrs. McQuestin, Hamilton; Mrs. McMullin, Mrs. Little, Mrs. Hood, Woodstock; Miss McGillivray, Whitby; Mrs. Spiers, Mrs. Hanna, Uxbridge; Mrs Ball, Vanneck; Miss Turnbull, Mrs. Maxwell, Mrs. Patch, Mrs. Strachan, Miss Fowler, Mr. Ross, Mr. McGillivray, Kingston.

Miss Forsythe, Mrs. McCuaig, Kirkwall; Mrs. Stewart Lindsay; Mrs. Caton, Edmonton; Mrs. Campbell, Russell; Mrs. Campbell, Oliver's Ferry; Mrs. Bullock, Lyn; Mrs. Connor, Sarginson; Mrs. M. McPherson, Winchester.

The president, Mrs. Ewart, assisted by Mrs. Macgillivray, Kingston, and Mrs. McCrae, Guelph, conducted the opening exercises. Mrs. Dickson cordially welcomed the delegates to Kingston. Miss Drummond, New Castle, replied. The president's address was listened to with eager attention. Mrs. Ewart dwelt on the duties and encouragements of those engaged in missionary work. An interesting feature of the morning session was the reading by the secretary, Mrs. Robinson, of letters of greeting, the first of which was a despatch from the society's missionaries in Indore: "Hospital built. Girls' school begun. Greetings." Others were from Winnipeg, New York, Philadelphia and Chicago. Reports were then received from the various Presbyterial societies, twenty five in number, and reaching from Quebec to British Columbia. The following are the ladies who presented the reports: Ottawa, Mrs. Armstrong; Lanark and Renfrew, Mrs. Hunter; Brockville, Mrs. Gow; Glengarry, Mrs. Macleunan; Kingston, Miss Fowler; Peterboro, Mrs. Crack; Whitby, Miss Macgillivray; Mrs. Stewart, Lindsay; Miss George, Toronto; Mrs. Cameron, Barrie; Mrs. Somerville, Owen Sound; Mrs. McNair, Saugeen; Miss Smellie, Guelph; Mrs. Fiowie, Orangeville; Mrs. Grant, Hamilton; Mrs. MacMullin, Paris; Miss Fraser, London; Miss Turnbull, Sarnia; Mrs. Frost, Chatham; Mrs. Scott, Stratford; Mrs. Byers, Huron; Mrs. Maitland, Maitland; Miss Drummond, Bruce; Mrs. Watson, Winnipeg; Miss Shortreed, Brandon. Auxiliaries in Montreal and Columbia presbyteries, Mrs. Campbell.

The board of management reported that charges were needed in the by-laws to make meetings more frequent. Larger liberality in the use of the general funds to meet certain expenditures was suggested. Many missionaries had visited Canada and gave addresses. The deaths of Mrs Gordon, of Harrington and Mrs. Thomas McCracken was regretfully recorded. Arrangements are under way for the world's missionary meeting of Presbyterian women in 1892 in Toronto. The reports of the various missions were presented and were very interesting. The tabulated statement of the home work is:

Number of presbyterial societies, 25; number of new auxiliaries, 93; number of new mission bands, 37; total number of auxiliaries, 471; total number of mission bands, 200; total number of branches, 671; auxiliary membership, 10,746; mission band membership, 5,189; total membership, 15,935; life members added during the year, 81; total number of life members, 472; members of general society, 2,898

Giving per members, so far as can be estimated from numbers in: From auxiliaries over $2 50 per member; from mission bands about $1 25 per member.

Some 20,000 lbs. of new and second hand clothing, valued at $20,000, was forwarded to the North-West. The Letter Leaflet is doing a good work; 7,500 copies are issued. The literature committee handled a fine lot of missionary works and pamphlets. There were 100,645 publications sold and 25,752 issued gratuitously. The year's receipts were $1,104.16, and the expenditure only $46.47 less.

The society has $39,584 81 on hand, besides $5,891.15 reserved for a boarding school at Indore. The year's expenses were only $777 52.

The meeting was closed with a prayer by Mrs. Shortreed and the singing of the 386th hymn.

The Fisk Jubilee Singers.

KINGSTON, April 14.—(To the Editor: Will you kindly afford me space to say that the above are sent out by the American Missionary Association, commended by the Rev. Dr. Wm. M. Taylor, of New York, the President. This association sent out the original Fisk Singers in 1871, who raised $150,000 for the Fisk University. When they returned from their second visit to England and the continent in 1878 the company was disbanded, and since that time Fisk University has had no Jubilee Singers in the field until now, when the present company, who consist of seven representative of the university are sent out. There are said to excell the original company as singers.—SAMUEL N. JACKSON.

Discovery of Minera's.

Actonolite, a very valuable mineral, has been found in large veins in Kaladar. The owners expect to make fortunes out of the property. Ninety per cent. of the mineral can be used in the manufacture of paper. An asbestos property in the same township, known as the "Bull mines," were sold to Senator Campbell, of Ohio, the other day, for $15,000. The capital stock to work the mine has been placed at $100,000.

A Bad Gang.

The tramps arrested last night for vagrancy at the outer station are a bad lot. On Sunday they cut adrift a barge belonging to the Montreal transportation company lying below the bridge.

Hats

CITY AND VICINITY

The Gravel Was Good.

The Mississippi gravel, put on Ontario street last year, has proved a success in the matter of road making. It made that street as firm as a stone wall.

Looking Over Cars.

Mr. White, of Moncton, N.B., government inspector of cars manufactured for the Intercolonial railway, has arrived in the city for the purpose of looking over cars made for the road in the Kingston car works.

Has He Got It?

It is currently reported that Major Gravelley, of Cobourg, has been appointed brigade major for the Kingston military district. Major Graveley is an experienced officer, and will undoubtedly fill the office capably.

This is Not Right.

Because of lack of funds the poor relief society has stopped giving out fuel and other necessaries even to those aged and infirm people who have hitherto received some much needed aid during the summer months.

Election of Officers.

At the adjourned vestry meeting of St. John's church, Portsmouth, last evening, the following were elected delegates to the synod: S. N. Watts, for three years; A. McLean, for two years, and J. B. Walkem, for one year.

The Hotel Arrivals.

Arrivals at the British American hotel—J. A. Lang, Berlin; A. Campbell, A. E. Brockels, R. B. Hutcheson, Miss Fowler, M. Lyons, Toronto; J. Armstrong, Montreal; J. Forin and wife, Belleville; S. Sykes, Guelph.

First in Twenty-One Years.

The supreme grand Orange lodge of British North America will meet here in August. It is twenty-one years since a similar meeting was held here and at that time Hon. Mackenzie Bowell was elected supreme grand master.

They Were Complimented.

Our gallant bobbies at the opera house last night blushed large red blushes during the rendition of "Aunt Jack's" song, "Ask a Policeman." They heartily appreciated the compliment to their integrity and helpfulness in the service of the public.

To Help on the Work.

The superintendent of the prison gate home is trying to induce either Miss Gait, daughter of Judge Gait, Montreal, or Miss Wilson, daughter of Rev. Henry Wilson, New York, both officers in the army, to come here and hold meetings in behalf of the home.

Died in the Hospital.

Last evening Mrs. Knight, wife of Louis Knight, and daughter of James Sproule, of Westbrook, died in the general hospital from typhoid fever. When she went to that institution she was delirious. The fever was of the most malignant type. Her husband is in California.

Died in California.

The Citizen, Los Angeles, Cal., contains notice of the death of Lee S. Ackerman, a former resident of Prince Edward county. The deceased served his time as an apprentice in Napanee on the Standard. In 1888, his health failing him, he removed from Toronto to California. He died on Thursday, April 2nd, of consumption, leaving a wife and three children.

Improving a Dock.

Probably there is no one object more memorable in the minds of the people on the St. Lawrence River than is "Peel's dock." The conflagration and sinking of the Sir Robert Peel, after which the dock was named, together with all the incidents connected therewith, are fresh in the minds of the oldest inhabitants. The dock is being repaired and put in first class order. It is to be 80 feet long, built up with square and strong timbers, newly planked, and throughly pinned.

A Fine Gathering.

The Epworth league of the Sydenham street church held a very successful meeting last evening. The church parlors were well filled and an attentive audience listened with delight to an address by A. Shaw on "Alexander the Great." The discussion which followed opened up both sides of a very varied character, and gave many a clear insight into the elements which wrought such great success in the life of one of the world's greatest men. The league is flourishing.

Wedding in Pittsburg.

On Tuesday, 7th inst., Miss C. M. A. McLaughlin, the youngest daughter of A. McLaughlin, was united in marriage to William Webber, of Watertown, N.Y., the ceremony being performed by the Rev. Father Quinn, Brewer's Mills. The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Aggie Blake, while the groom was ably assisted by J. F. Mc Laughlin. The bride was the recipient of numerous costly presents, testifying to the esteem in which she is held by friends. After dinner the happy couple left for their home amid the best wishes of relatives and acquaintances for future happiness.

Getting Ready to Build.

The old site will be used for the new hotel at Thousand Island Park, as far as it will go, allowing the new structure to run back farther, virtually covering more ground than the old one. The plan is in the form of a Greek cross, so located as to let the longest wing run in the same general direction as the river, paralleling it as nearly as possible, while the other portion will project from the centre of the main building each way, leaving the main entrance from the street into the building proper. It will be three stories high, with no pretentions to a tower.

A Generous Response.

Rev. Principal Grant has received a letter from A. McLeod, secretary of the relief fund at Springhill, N.S., acknowledging $400 from Kingston towards the relief of widows and orphans there. He adds: "The response to our appeal has been wonderful, far beyond what we expected. We asked for $70,000, and are assured of $75,000 at least. This will amply provide for the relatives of the victims for many years." The principal, in forwarding the letter to the press, says: "The liberality that the disaster evoked is a fine tribute to the character of the Canadian people. No one will grudge the sufferers the extra sum that has been sent."

They Were Shut Out.

A couple of reporters put on their best clothes this morning as they had assignments of a pleasing character. They were down for work at Chalmers' church where several hundred ladies were to assemble and discuss missionary topics. The presence of so many bright faces, the pretty speeches with a "there now" air about them, and the general happy way ladies conduct business made the scribes think they would be in bliss for several days at least, but they were doomed to disappointment. When they reached the church this morning the sign was up, "No reporters allowed." The youths turned sadly away. The reports of the meetings were furnished. What are the ladies afraid of? If the reporters did not as a rule improve and smooth-up speeches, but print them as they were made, conventions might object to their presence.

Last Night's Performance.

The "Aunt Jack" company was greeted at the opera house last evening by a fair-sized audience. "Aunt Jack" is a farce comedy and has already won many admirers wherever it has been acted. The life of the piece centres in the character of "Jean Bryson" who is virtually "Aunt Jack" and is brilliantly conceived by Miss Ffolliott Paget, who is adapted in grace, style and emulation for the difficult part she assumes. Her song in a court of justice, "If you want to know the time ask a policeman," brought down the house. While the piece is somewhat humorous it did not give satisfaction as it lacks the fire, which a comedy should have to make it universally popular and is besides far too boisterous in the second and third acts. The court scene is simply unimaginable, and the concluding tableau is weak. Miss Creighton, one of the sprightly actresses, is a neice of a late Kingston bank manager, Mr. Creighton.

Breathes there a man with soul so dead,
Who never to himself hath said,
I will my local paper take,
Both for myself and family's sake;
If such there be let him repent
And have the WHIG directly sent.
And if he'd pass a happy winter
He in advance should pay the printer.

From experience as advertising agent for over twenty years I can emphatically say that a good, live weekly with a circulation of from 5,000 to 25,000, is a better advertising medium than any daily. It reaches a purchasing class, it lives one week, its appearance is more attractive than a daily, and its influence with its reader surpasses the short lived, hastily read morning or evening papers.—Eliot Northam.

POLICE COURT—TUESDAY.

A Fine Company in the Dock—How Disposed Of.

The dock in the police court this morning was jammed full with a miscellaneous collection of vagrants, thieves, tramps and drunkards, but the lot was disposed of by the magistrate in short order. Arthur Presti was allowed to go, yesterday, although he had been drunk the night before. Arthur celebrated his release by another drunk, which landed him in the cells again. He begged pitifully to be allowed to go back to his work in the country, and the magistrate allowed him ten minutes to get out of town.

James Rush, a Gananoque sport, charged with drunkenness, offered to make the limits in five minutes and was allowed to do so. William Larmour, another Gananoque gentleman, with but one arm, was advised to "shake" the flowing bowl and leave for his native town. As far as known he did so.

At 10:30 last night the aid of the police was asked to quiet a crowd of vagrants who were terrorizing the residents at the junction. P. C. Aiken and a squad of four responded and went out on the mixed. They captured John King, Thomas McDonald, James Lovett, Michael Sullivan and John Twohey, alias Charles Smith. These were charged with vagrancy and sent up for two months each, as well as another Charles Smith, L. Egan and Thomas Foley, who were found within the limits.

Joseph Ryan and Manly Fraser were remanded till to-morrow on the charge of larceny.

"The Red Hussar."

The Duff opera company will present "The Red Hussar" for the first time in Kingston at the opera house, Thursday night. The piece is a comic opera in three acts, the words by H. P. Stephens and the music by Edward Solomon. It has met with success in London and New York, enjoying runs respectively of 250 and 125 nights. The first act is laid in Lyndhurst at the Crown hotel, the second in the British camp, and the last in the garden of Avon Manor. Miss Marie Tempest, the prima donna of the company, is described as a woman of great physical beauty, and what is more the most artistic singer that has appeared in a comic opera for many a day. She first appears as a ballad singer, then a Red Hussar, and finally as a lady of the court, the action permitting the introduction of picturesque costumes. The opera will be splendidly staged. The company includes Charles O. Bassett, Wm. McLaughlin, Clement Bambridge, Miss Irving, Lenore Snyder, Fanny Edwards, Cornelia Bassett and other well-known people with a chorus of sixty.

Get There First and all the Time.

Before the traveling man has left his hotel, the newspaper advertisement has had an interview with the purchaser. The buyer may have been out of town that day, but somebody's newspaper advertisement was in his pocket.

The country dealer may be located much "out of the way," but the newspaper gets there, and gets attention. The canvasser may ring in vain, but the housekeeper is always "at home" to her favorite newspaper.

Return Love.

They had a quarrel and she sent
His letter back next day.
His ring and all his presents went.
To him without delay.
"Pray send my kisses back to me,"
He wrote, "Could you forget them?"
She answered speedily that he
Must come himself and get them.

Ahead of Koch's Lymph.
Read what Mrs. Frank Maston, Bloomfield, Ont., says. When I came to Kingston last fall I was not only a physical wreck, but had a frightful cough, my brother recommended me to try Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, which I did. I commenced to gain both in flesh and strength at once, the cough leaving me gradually. To day I am as well as ever. Thanks to Miller's Emulsion. For sale at Wade's Drug Store.
