Agnew has returned from Kingston.—A McFadden's trotting colt is an eye opener.—Visitors: A. Cranton and W. Lindsay, Lake Opinicon; Mrs. E. Ennis, Watertown N. Y.

MOSCOW.

June 2.—We are very much in need of rain.—The young people had a pleasant picnic in Mr. Johnson's grove at Varty Lake on Saturday last.—Moscow is very much in need of a first-class shoe maker. The last got so much work to do he could not do it so he left.—Alf. Martin is preparing to erect a new barn.—On account of conference there will be no preaching in the Methodist church on Sunday next.—The cheese factory has a large increase in business.—Fred. Dunnison and sisters, Harsington, attended the picnic on Saturday last.

ST. GEORGE'S LAKE.

June 2.—Farmers grumbling about dry weather.—Capt. Boyd Smith, Washington, D.C., paid his mines a visit also Eagle Lake and Silver Lake mines, but owing to urgent business in Virginia made his stay a short one. His superintendent, James Harris, is putting in some large machinery in the St. George's and Silver Lake mines and erecting some fine dwelling houses for the men.—R. J. McFadden has started a night school.—Mr. McKivor has a large contract of loading wood for a Kingston firm.—Paul Reilly had a cow killed on the K. & P. RR. last week.—Visitors: E. Commodore, Miss Paperwell, Perth.

GLENVALE.

June 1.—Farmers wishing for rain.—Considerable damage done by the recent frosts.—M. Young and family, from Kingston, have settled on the Chown farm.—During the absence of our pastor on May 24th and 31st the pulpit was ably filled by Rev. Mr. Woods, Cataraqui, and Messrs. Smith and Keeler, Battersea.—John Walpole has taken to himself a helpmate.—James Gordon has purchased a fine top buggy.—Several of our young people attended the picnic at Marvale on Friday last.—Mrs. Richards, formerly Miss Sarah Culley, is renewing friendships here.—Mrs. Lake, after spending a few days at her father's, Robert Gibson, has returned home.

Armstrong is attending the business college, Kingston.—J. Black, visiting friends at Lavant, has returned to Kingston.—Miss Paul is visiting her sister, Mrs. P. Lee.

HARROWSMITH.

June 2.—Rev. J. E. Lidstone preached a very impressive sermon last Sabbath on the death of Mrs. Webster.—The Marvale base ball club will play against the Harrowsmith boys here next Saturday.—Rev. Donald Fraser of British Columbia will preach in the Presbyterian church next Sabbath, and lecture on Monday evening.—Rev. Mr. Orser will preach in the Methodist church next Sabbath evening.—Rev. J. E. Lidstone has united several couples in holy bonds lately.—Sympathy is felt for Sir John A. Macdonald by all parties and creeds.—George Matthews had a cancer cut from his hip last Saturday. He is doing as well as can be expected.—Visitors: Mr. Cook at Dr. Gray's; Mrs. Hicks at G. Matthews.

ARDEN.

June 2.—The weather continues dry; no rain for some time past, pasturage getting short.—A boy at Thomas Hughes and a girl at B. F. Detlor's have been added to the population during last week.—Mrs. Calvin Loyst is visiting her son in Kennebec.—The council met in the town hall yesterday.—W. B. Tucker is attending conference; no regular service at the Methodist church on Sunday.—Norman Scott, who recently underwent an operation at the hospital, continues to improve, and William Parks is doing well.—Frankland Sellers talks of building a house in the village.—Andrew Osborne and wife have removed on to their farm, east of Clear Lake.—H. Connolly and G. Guess went out trolling on the lake Saturday and caught some fine bass and pike.

HARLEM.

June 1.—Grain on thin land and old meadows are showing effects of dry weather. The pasture is short and milk is short. Some dairymen are compelled to feed hay and meal to their cows. Many are plowing up their meadows and sowing western corn. There is no use talking, the silo is the coming thing for the farm.—There seems to be a new era in fence building. We have two set of hands in this section putting up the shed fence by the rod.—As seeding is over there is very little grain in this section for sale.—A few loads of potatoes have left for the market.—Harry Coon, from Almonte, is visiting his grandfather, W. C. Stevens.—W. Slack is able to look after his farm again after a long sickness.—R. M. Stevens has been afflicted this week, with rheumatism. Miss Esther Moulton is still suffering from the same disease in an acute form.

ELGINSBURG.

June 2.—As Joshua Knight and James Dougherty were returning from Kingston they were met by a bicycle with its jingling shining wheel. Their horse took fright and they soon found themselves bounced over the plank walk and dumped into the ditch, and pinned down by the wagon turned over on them. They soon righted themselves each bearing very unpleasant wounds and bruises.—As. S. Richards and his mother were driving an axle broke which gave them and a lady friend a very sudden pitch on the hard road.—Mr. Smith, an aged local preacher, of Batteress, filled the pulpit Sunday night. He was listened to with pleasure and profit.—Homer Reid has returned to his home near Meaford.—Mrs. Thomas Edwards is again confined to her bed seriously ill.—James Bearance has gone for a few weeks to superintend Prof. Harris' farm in New Brunswick.

HARTINGTON.

June 2.—The first shipment of cheese was made on Saturday last. The price received per lb. was 9c. Vanluven Bros. are having a well dug at the cheese factory.—Miss Burke has come in our midst as dressmaker.—Mrs. Sharpe spent a few days with her brother, C. Bell.—Miss Richardson, Gananoque, is visiting at M. Cloakey's.—Mrs. Gorham, Kingston, spent a short time last week at J. Carscallen's.—The people here have commenced to do road work and talk about the dry weather.—Gertie Dennison is spending a short time with friends at Batteress.—Eben Revell is gaining, although not very fast.—Mrs. J. Leonard and Mrs. C. Moore were out driving on Saturday. Their friends were very glad to see them out once more.—Two of our merchants have to pay taxes on their store goods, and one is left scot free. This shows well for our municipal officers and their assessor.

LYNDHURST.

June 3.—Real estate yielded a dividend of forty per cent. in our village last week.—James Riddock bought a lot on Mill street from J. Roantree.—John Chapman has bought out his partner in the liquor business.—Joe Warren has bought a house and lot from A. Wood. Alex. will build again in the village. A few enterprising men like Alex. would soon fill up our vacant lots.—Fred Wetherell, Syracuse, paid a flying visit to his home on Saturday and returned again on Monday, taking his youngest brother, Lincoln, with him.—A. E. Stevens has purchased the tinning business of A. T. Wilts.—Thos. Townsend, our genial grocer and tobacconist, removed to the limestone city on Tuesday last.—D. W. Edgar has put in a stock of fine fishing tackle.—There was a social at Seeley's Bay on Monday night. It was a success financially as well as a good entertainment.

ARDEN.

May 29.—On Wednesday Andrew Osborne was married to Ettie, the second daughter of Asahel Clark, at the residence of the latter. There was a large number of friends and relatives invited. Rev. W. B. Tucker performed the ceremony. The bridesmaids were Victoria and Minnie Osborne, sisters of the groom. Jacob Williams and Archibald Parke were the best men. The marriage took place in the open air so that the large number of guests could witness the ceremony. The presents were numerous and of a useful rather than of an ornamental character. The happy couple have the best wishes of a large circle of friends.—Norman Scott has returned from the Kingston hospital having had a tumor removed from his jaw.—Mrs. Smith, Apple Hill, is visiting friends in Arden.—Bush fires have been raging for some time and the hills have the burnt and dried appearance of autumn.—Dry weather and frosty nights keeping vegetation backward.—The rain has checked the fires, cleared the air of smoke and greatly benefited the crops.—The Queen's birthday was celebrated by firing a salute and hoisting the Union Jack at the post office.—W. R. Hays is having his house, on Bridge street, repaired.—Mrs. Switzer and family have moved into a house on Queen street.—Mrs. Loyst, Marlbank, is on a visit to her son, Charles W. Loyst.

CHAFFEY'S LOCK.

June 2.—Farmers are feeling blue over the continued dry weather; prospects for good crops are not looked for now.—The Kingston mining company have started work in the Stella's pit. They are mining two shafts, phosphate being plentiful and of good quality.—J. C. Judd started two men prospecting on the property he purchased from Harry Laishley, but owing to no tools being furnished them they only worked one day.—Charles Hamilton lost a fine cow last Sunday. She broke her neck.—John Jordan is home laid up with a scalded foot. He was employed on the tug Bronson. He left the tug at Montreal last Saturday and arrived home Monday night.—Our junior baseball team played a game last Saturday with the juniors of Fosterville. Our town was victorious. James Simmons, captain of the Chaffey's Locks juniors, is the right man in the right place. The game was umpired by John Regan and was an interesting one.

WESTPORT.

June 2.—Thomas Martin's daughter, Ellen, died last week, aged thirty-four. Her funeral to St. Edward's vault was largely attended.—William McGinnis' family have the scarlet fever.—Mrs. William J. Thompson, an old and highly respected citizen, died last Saturday, aged sixty-two. She was one of the oldest settlers in this section and was respected by all who knew her. Rev. Mr. Henderson, Perth, preached the funeral sermon on last Sunday.—The children of St. Edward's church received their first communion. It was very edifying. About forty little girls dressed in white and about thirty-five little boys with badges, marched in procession from St. Edward's separate school to the church. The sermon for the occasion was very impressive.—Rev. Father Killeen and Father T. P. O'Connor paid us a visit last week.—John P. Bennett is gone to Syracuse.—Alex. Boyce started on Monday for Belfast, Ireland, to visit relations there. He will be gone for two months.—Mrs. F. Butler is gone on a visit to her father's in Arnprior.

STELLA.

June 2.—Our little village is perfumed with the sweet blossoms of fruit trees.—Stella point is handsome and green. Many visit this beautiful spot especially in the picnic season.—Road work is being done this week.—The fruit shipment of cheese was made on Monday.—Mrs. Robert Cousins very ill is improving. John Flemming, jr., is very ill with typhoid fever.—Miss Eliza Heggins is recovering from typhoid.—A child belonging to T. Burk is very ill and is said to have the fever.—Mrs. Capt. Allen, Belleville, was here for a visit last week.—Miss Jennie Flemming was home for a week's visit.—Miss M. Gorman, Kingston, is here.—Mr. and Mrs. Chown returned from Toronto last week.—Mr. and Mrs. McClough were here last week, the guest of Mrs. Kent.—Miss Montgomery is visiting at Sandhurst Miss Spears is visiting Collins Bay; Rev. Wm. Pike, a former minister, paid Stella a visit last week. His many friends were pleased to see him; Miss Docksie has returned home.

PETWORTH.

June 1.—Farmers are dejected over the protracted drought. Spring sown grain of all kinds is not looking well, and meadows, especially the older ones, are making no progress.—J. C. Wallace leaves shortly to take charge of a woollen mill in Bellrock.—Rev. Mr. Wright (Friend) preached Sunday morning in the hall, and Rev. Mr. Tomblin, of Yarker, in the same place in the afternoon. Both delivered excellent sermons to good congregations.—Amos Martin, an old and much respected resident, continues very low with little hopes of recovery. His illness resulted from an attack of grippe.—A number of river drivers paid the village a flying visit on Saturday and Sunday.—W. Smith is to be congratulated because of the arrival of a son.—Visitors: Mr. and Mrs. Carl at Mr. Cranston's; Miss H. Bush, of Cofebrook, at Mr. Brown's.—Miss B. Rush, teacher, spent Queen's birthday at home with her mother.—Dr. Spankie, P.S.I., paid the public school a visit here and was well pleased.—Messrs. Lillie are visiting friends near Colebrook.—A. Smith, of Hartington, paid friends a visit on Sunday.

OMPAH.

June 1.—The absence of rain causes anxiety among the farmers. Appearances threaten a total failure of the hay crop.—The Mississippi bridge still remains in its extremely dangerous condition. A few days ago Dr. Elkington, while crossing on a visit to a sick patient, narrowly escaped a serious accident. One of the horses of his team put his foot through the covering of the bridge, which is rotten from end to end. Surely the county council will be held responsible for the heavy damages that will be claimed should any casualties occur.—The bush fires still give great trouble. A heavy fall of rain is the only help out of this difficulty.—Mr. Webster, of the dominion fishery department, paid a short visit of condolence to his sister, widow of the late Major Gilbert. He took the opportunity to improve our lake stock by depositing in it a quantity of salmon trout spawn.—Capt. Brooks left for England a few days ago on a two months trip to visit relatives and old friends.—W. J. Donaldson, reeve of Palmerston and North and South Canonto, spent a few days fishing in Trout lake last week. He was the guest of Col. Walsh.—The next meeting of the municipal council of Palmerston and North and South Canonto will be held at their hall on June 27th.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.

Holloway's Ointment and Pills.
Notable Facts.—Intense heat augments the annoyances of skin disease, and encourages the development of febrile disorders; therefore they should, as they may be removed by these detergent and purifying preparations. In stomach complaints liver affections, pains and spasms of the bowels, Holloway's ointment well rubbed over the affected part immediately gives the greatest ease, prevents congestion and inflammation, checks the threatening diarrhœa and averts incipient cholera. The poorer inhabitants of large cities will find these remedies to be their friend when any pestilence rages, or when from unknown causes eruptions, boils, abscesses, or ulcerations betoken the presence of taints or impurities within the system, and call for instant and effective curative medicines.

Clark's Catarrh Cure.
May be had of any enterprising druggist for 50 cents. It affords instant relief and will cure the worst case. It is pleasant to both taste and smell, and may be carried in the pocket. Don't fool away time and money trying worthless remedies, but write to us direct. If your druggist cannot supply you with Clark's Catarrh Cure, we will. Clark Chemical Co., Toronto, New York.

BATTERSEA BREEZES.

The Events of the Week Interestingly Laid Before the Public.

BATTERSEA, June 2.—Mr. Ainsworth has sold his' trotting colt, sired from Grover Cleveland, for $200. The L. O. L., No. 1,001 intend celebrating the twelfth of July with a cohorst on the 13th of that month. Joseph Lemmons, who purchased William Sears' farm for $700, has again resold it for $900. John Gilbert has secured the Coughlin farm, where he intends building. The Balmoral hotel has been fitted up in the latest style, making it one of the finest village hotels in Ontario. The fruit trees have been covered with blossoms, but owing to the late heavy frost, the plums are supposed to be all blasted. The early potatoes have also been injured.

L. Cook, of Washburn, has been engaged by Mrs. H. Vanluven to run the grist mill, as James Smith, who had it leased for a number of years, has given it up. Some of our young people intend having a picnic on Big Island, Saturday next. Bush fires have been raging north of this place for the past two weeks, doing considerable damage. J. E. Dolan lost his barn. Our berry bushes have been destroyed, and as a number of the inhabitants nearly depend on the berry crop much disappointment will be felt. During the past year, owing to the labors of Rev. A. O. Waste, the Methodists have been blessing in this place. Over fifty have united with the church, and all the funds have been well sustained. Some $40 above his salary has been raised, besides refitting the church and getting a new organ.

Fishing parties are quite plentiful, but the catch is not as good as former years owing to parties being allowed to catch them with nets. William Young has been kept busy in the cheese box factory lately. Owing to the dry weather meadows are looking poor. Spring grain is also suffering.

Mrs. Fraser, who bought Jos. Lemmon's general store is doing a good business. We are pleased to see R. Hartley, laid up for several months with an injured foot, able to be around again. Mr. Williams, Bath, has been visiting his son here. Miss Dennison, Harrington, is visiting here. Wm. Arthur has ordered a new stage at the Gananoque carriage shop. Hiram Jackson sailing for some time died on Friday last. Elder Edwards preached the funeral sermons on Sunday. Court Granby I.O.F., intend going to the Methodist church, on the 14th, in a body.

The Battersea cheese factory is doing a good business under the management of William Willoughby. Upwards of 10,000 lbs. have been received in one day. The marriage of E. Card to Miss Stokes, Opinicon, is reported; others to follow. Rev. A. O. Waste left on Monday for conference, at Brockville. Mrs. Watts left on Friday, for Kemptville, where she will remain for some time. The Rev. Mr. Laird's son has re-organized the Sunday school, at Cedar Lake school house. It will be continued during the summer months. One of our citizens is laid up with a bite received from a ferocious dog.

The Volunteer, launched on Monday of last week, will be ready in a few days. W. J. Anglis, appointed by the district meeting, to attend the Methodist conference, at Brockville, will leave on Friday. Our boat builders are kept quite busy lately, repairing and turning out new boats. Mrs. Dunlop, Cataraqui, wife of our former and popular teacher, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Jas. Smith, who has been sick.

Ask Your Friends About It.
Your distressing cough can be cured We know it because Kemp's Balsam within the past few years has cured so many coughs and colds in this community. Its remarkable sale has been won entirely by its genuine merit. Ask some friend who has used it what he thinks of Kemp's Balsam. There is no medicine so pure, none so effective. Large bottles 50c and $1 at all druggists.

Capturing the Officers

GUTHRIE, O. June 4.—Sheriff J. Hixon, of Logan county, arrived here late last night from Chicago, having in charge Charles W. Bleuler, ex-cashier of the Commercial bank, of this city, which institution went under several months ago, short nearly $100,000. Bleuler had been wanted some time, as has President Ragsdale and other officers, charged with perjury, embezzlement, and other crimes. Ragsdale is in Denver, is is thought. Vice-pres't. McLain is supposed to be in Newton, Kansas, and the assistant cashier, clerks and others, who are all under indictment, are in different parts of the country, but just where no one knows. The Commercial was supposed to be the strongest financial institution in Oklahoma. At the time of its suspension hundreds of creditors were left penniless. As a result a short time ago Chief Justice Green appointed E. J. Nix receiver, and yesterday Mr. Nix filed his statement with the court. It shows that the bank, from its inception, started with a view to take in all it could on deposit, and then fail.

We want you to remember that we are offering a line of gentlemen's laced boots at $1.50, worth $2. If they are not worth $2 bring them back and we will refund your money. Countess, Quinn & Corrigan.
