MCGREEVEY IN THE BOX.

THOMAS CONTRADICTS THE EVIDENCE OF HIS BROTHER ROBERT.

Mr. Fitzpatrick Examines the Member for Quebec Centre. He Says He is not a Rascal—What He Knows About Tenders and Contracts.

OTTAWA, Aug. 6.—At the Privileges and Elections committee meeting yesterday, Thomas McGreevey was the first witness.

Asked as to the tenders of the dredging of the Levee at Quebec, McGreevey was asked why the contract was not awarded to the lowest tenderer.

THE LOWEST AVAILABLE TENDER of the second set of tenders was F. J. Miller, and he knew they had no means to carry out that contract at the Board.

WITNESSES FAVOR TO LARKIN & CO. Witness denied positively giving Murphy information as to the intended sale of the tenders and a hint as to what Larkin & Co. should do.

COMING TO THE TENDERS for the cross wall in 1882 was not intended to end the session. As a member of the harbor commission he took an interest in how the tenders were figured out.
