OTTAWA, Aug. 26.—J. C. Langelier, commissioner appointed by the Quebec Government to settle the claims against the Baie In a Chalcurs was examined yesterday by Walter Barwick before the Railway Committee of the Senate. He said be knew of nothing improper relating to the payment of Mr. Armstrong's claim of $175,000. It was paid by him in the ordinary way. It was false that he had asked Mr. Webb 5f the Union Sank to discount the letter of credit. He did not even know Webb by sight at the time alleged

Mr. Francois Langelier, M.P., as counse or the Quebec Government, asked the here that you played an active part and that you had some interest in the settlement of Armstrong's claim. Is that true!

Witness replied: "It is absolutely false and whoever said that is a liar and a calumniator. I swear positively that neither directly or indirectly, near or far, had I anything to do with Armstrong's arrange-

The witness produced an affidavit taken before him as a justice of the peace at Quebec by George A. Taylor of Brockville, one of the contractors of the road, which Mr. Langelier said would be the basis of proof that $118,000 of Federal subsidy had been embezzled by the old Baie des Chaleurs

A long wrangle followed as to the ad missability of this affidavit, but it was final-

Taylor's allegation was that C. P. Armstrong and the Baie des Chaleurs Company cansferred to R. L. Macdonald of Maconald, O'Brien & Co., $370,000 subsidies on 20 miles of the road and that this firm after building the 20 miles received in full payment $252,000 and then re-transferred to the Railway Company the balance of the 8370,000 subsidies, Senator Robtaille declared emphatically that no such embezzlement ever took place and asked for the fullest inestigation.

Arter another wrangle the examination of the witness proceeded, as to the $52,000 paid by the Federal Government to the Ontario Bank with which to pay the claims of laborers on the road and which the Ontario Bank witness swore never paid and must have retained the money. Mr. Barwick-orgated a scene by declaring that Mr. Francois Langelier, who was now seeking to expose the Ontario Bank, was the trusted counsel for that bank and was the only one who advised the bank not to go on with this case.

Mr. Langelier: "I have not been the soli-Mr. Cockburn: "You have, sir."

Mr. Cockburn was then sworn and made a statement at great length. He said he had been told by the officers of the Ontario Bank in Toronto to consult Mr. Francois Langelier, who was to all in tents and purposes their counsel recommended to the President Sir William Howland by Mr. Mercier. He consulted Mr. Lange-lier, who advised him that it was against the interests of the bank to rake up this subsidy of $280,000. Sold the Secret for $50. OTTAWA, Aug. 26. - The investigation into the irregularities connected with the civil service examinations was continued yes-terday. John G. On Saturday he was absent from the Bureau without leave, and last night when the authorities called at his house his mother said he had gone to Toronto. The commissioners are now after him with a summons. Notes From the House,

In the House yesterday, Hon. Mr. Davies noved a vote of censure on Hon. Mr. Foster Minister of Finance for his method of dealing with subsidies to the West Indian steamship lines. Inouron, O., 26. - The mystery surrounding the tragedy of Friday, in which the three children of Mr. and Mrs. George Hamilton were found smothered to death in a cheat in which they had been fastened, has been cleared up. Wilber Warnick, a play mate of the Hamilton children, admitted to his mother that Kirke Eurliche and a boy named Pemberton, together with himself, while playing "jail" locked the unfortunate children in the chest, and being called to supper shortly after neglected to let them out. The Sugar Men of the States Said NEW YORK, Aug. 26,-The price of fined sugar was, yesterday, reduced &c. per lb. by the voluntary action of the sugar trust. A report was current that Adolph Spreckels was in New York in connection with the recent negotiations which the Spreckels' company was reported to have made the trust whereby this company was to join hands with the trust. Mr. Spreckela, however, was not visible. The conflict ing reports that the Spreckels' company was joining forces with the trust were again heard. A member of the firm of Willett & Gray, sugar brokers, said yesterday that the Spreckels' company had issued bonds to the extent of $2,500,000 recently and that a con-siderable proportion of these had been taken by the Havemeyer company. As a part of this transaction a working arrangement had been made between the two concerns so that white there was no actual consolidation of interests they would no longer be considered rivals in business. Other sugar dealers believed that if the Spreckels' company was not in the trust, as periodically reported, an arrangement had been made which would have about the same effect.

A GAMBLER'S OFFER.

He Will Introduce the System at Chicago if Allowed CHICAGO, Aug. 26 .- M. Henri Omaged, Monte Carlo, representing the great gam-bling interests there, has been in Chicago three days, and it is said his mission is to make a proposition to the world's fair people for an establishment of a fac simile of the famous Monaco gambling house here during the exposition. According to the story M. Omaged is authorized to purchase $1,000,000 of world's fair bonds for cash, and offer onethird of the gross receipts of the gambling tables to the world's fair directors for the privilege sought. In addition he guarantees the erection of a building to cost not less than $1,000,000, wherein the gambling is to be carried on. There are two drawbacks to the scheme, one being that the laws against gambling are very severe, and the other that the directors would not dare to accept such a proposition owing to the howl it would raise. It is reported that M. Omaged submitted his scheme to one of the Chicago fair commissioners, now abroad, and was ad- selmo Rivis and Enrique Guzman and other form was found. As it was being raised by the firemen the head dropped off and disappeared in the black depths below. The truso was clothed in rags and seemed to have been once the form of a young girl of 17. "Any one looking for a sister or a lady" shouted Capt. Allaire. One man bent over the horrible sight, gave a muffled cry and hurried away, burying his Between 9 and 9:30 p.m. four bodies were recovered from the centre part of the ruins making a total at 10 p. m. of 48 bodies re-

The awfulscenes witnessed at the Morgue cannot be told. The wails of tribulation; the distraction of mind; the heartrending grief of agonized relatives inquiring for their missing husbands or fathers; the sight of the charred and stench-rendering dead, beaten by the cruel but swift hand of death almost beyond recognition, is too horrible a picture to attempt to describe in detail. Even some of the reporters, accustomed as they are to forms of human suffering in its most ghastly shape, were unmanne One of the most difficult hindrances to successful identification consists in the fact that nearly all the missing operatives, both men and women, were attired at the time of the collapse in their working clothes. They usually removed the exterior gar-ments of their street dress as soon as they arrived at their shops, and therefore an accurate description of their clothing is made the more difficult. In nearly every case the features of the bodies brought to the Morgue are bruised, blackened, undistinguishable masses of flesh from which all resemblance to a human face

TORONTO'S SCANDAL

Sufficient Evidence is not yet Forthe ing to Secure an Injunction TORONTO, Aug. 26.—The application of Phillips Thompson for an interim injunetion to restrain the city from leasing the street railway to the Kiely-Everett syndicate was heard yesterday before Judge Street. Lawyer Shillon argued the case for Mr. Thompson, and Assistant City Soli-citor Caswell appeared for the city. After hearing Mr. Shillon's argument at some length Judge Street decided that sufficient evidence had not been submitted to warrant him in granting the injunction, but he would consent to an enlargement of the

WILHELM GETTING READY. He is Said to Believe that France Is In a

Mond for War. BERLIN, Aug. 26. The arrival of the Kaiser has been followed with unusual activity in the War Office and by orders to strengthen the garrisons in Alsace-Lorraine and all along the eastern frontier. The to be of the opinion that France is in a frame of mind that might lead at any moment to war; that the neople of France have een so stirred up by the evidence of Russian sympathy and friendship that they are likey at any moment to insult Germany in a way that would of necessity be followed by

The French sentinels on the Alsace fron iet, have of late become very arrogant in heir treatment of Germans who cross the line, and refuse sometimes even to look at passports, driving the Germans back at the point of the bayonet. A similar disposition has displayed itself recently among French mstoms officers, and all the conduct of the French points to a willingness to provoke a risis by the maltreatment of German subects. As for the Kaiser, it is said he would poner fight while Lord Salisbury is in power in England, as he feels he has nothing to hope for from a Liberal Cabinet.
