BABY ONE SOLID SORE. FRANK RISCH IS HELD

BEFORE JUDGE AND JURY.

ST. CATHARINES, Sept. 9 .- A full house faced Magistrate Comfort as he ascended the bench at the Posice Court yesterday morning to give a hearing to Frank Risch and his orother Emile, of Toronto, charged with attempting to abduct Miss Lulu Bolls, of this city. Mr. Cox, of Cox & Yale, solici-tors of the Rolls estate and guardians of the young lady, appeared for the prosecution and W. K. Patterson for the young men. The young man Frank as he entered the lock still wore the suit he had on when he entered the church. He chatted pleasantly with his council before the proceedings began, Man. BETTIE BIRKNER, Lockhart, Texas. and assumed an air of careless indifference to the many eyes that were peering at him from outside the railing. Mr. Cox, at the magistrate's request, read the information charging Frank Risch with feloneously and maliciously taking away Miss Rolls with the intention of marrying

The prisoner elected that the case should go before a judge and jury and the preliminary investigation began.
H. Yale, of Cox & Yale, was the first witness. He said he was an executor and trustee under the will of the late Dr. Rolls. The young lady, Louisa T. Rolls, was a niece of Dr. Rolls. She was entitled to about $12,000 under the wills of her aunt and uncle and was also interest in real estate devised by Dr. Rolls. The trustees had attended to the management of this money, providing for her living and educa-He believed the young lady was still underage and living with her father. Last Friday he received a communication from Mrs. Henry Rolls, containing the announcement of the marriage and a telegram from Toronto telling the chief of police that Risch intended to elope with Miss Rolls. Rolls had previously told him that Miss Rolls informed her that she was to be married to Risch the following morning. advised her to see that the girl's father know of the fact. The witness continued to detail the steps he had taken to stop the marriage, recounting his interview with Re-Mr. Kerr. Incidentally he caused a sensa tion by the statement that the larger portion of Miss Rolls' estate was payable to her on her marriage. Rev. R. Kerr described how the young man had come to him and Emile asked him to perform the ceremony. They wished it quietly done in the rectory, but he suggested the church and they agreed. He told Mr. Yale he could not go behind the license and refuse to marry them unless there were some just impediment. He then described at length the arrival of the just impediment in the shape of two policemen, who hustled the two young men off without ceremony, hardly giving them time to get their hatsand threatening them with the handcuffs if they about fifty armed men on horses rode up to didn't look sharp.

lunch at 2 o'clock At 6 o'clock results were arrived at. Frank Risch, the would be bridegroom, was liberated from the county jail on bail of $2000, himself in $1000 and Joseph and Storris Robinson, auctioneers, $500 each. The case will come up at the Fall Assizes, which opeus here next Monday. Emile Risch, who was arrested with his brother in the church as an accessory, was discharged, the ase against him falling flat. When Frank Risch appeared in the dock he looked rather worried, but dressed very scrupulously and he wore in his coat lapel a neat little pansy button-hole bouquet. His brother Emile seemed to regard the whole affair as a most excellent joke.

A DIABOLICAL PLAN.

A Fellow Covering the Wealth of His Brother-in-law, Bosros, Sept. 9.—The arrest of James E. Cutter, by the Boston police, spoiled a dia-belical scheme to a murder and rob and brought to light collection of infernal machines sufficient to blow up half the city. Cutter's sister married Luther H. Rowe, a wealthy manufacturer. Mr. Rowe's home is in Melrose, but his manufactory is at Haverbill. Cutter was angry because his wealthy brother-in-law refused to advance as much onch as his extravagant tastes demanded and tried to take his life. In 1888, he made the first att mpt and was arrested and sentenced to two years imprisonment. As soon as he was released he again laid his plans to secure his brother in-law's wealth. He roomed on Chambers street and after his arrest the nature of his plot was revealed. original plan was to blow up his victim. He laid in a big stock of giant powder, nitro-glycerine, dynamite and a regular arsecal of firearms. In addition to these weapon he had many bombs ready for use. His original scheme was to conceal a bomb in an umbrella and leave it in Mr. Rowe's hands. Upon reflection he decided that there was too much danger to himself in that plan, so he abandoned it for the plan of blowing up the house. But that might involve the destruction of his sister, and that scheme, too, was given up. Last Wednesday he coufided his plan to an old friend, Wm. Butler, He and Butler had worked together in the same shop. He asked Butler's assistance removing Rowe, and promised him half the money expected as a result of the crime. Butler at first thought the matter was a joke, but when he discovered that Cutter was really bent on man's confidence. Then he revealed the plot to the police. Cutter's plan was to have been put in operation last night. He was at the rendezvous waiting for his accomplice when the police arrested him. He and But-ler were to have proceeded to Mr. Rowe's house in Melrose, Butler was to ring the bell and it was anticipated that Mr. Rowe would answer in person. As seen as he opened the door Cutter was to shoot him, and if he missed his aim Butler was to open fire. Then having disposed of Mr. Rowe the two men were to cover Mrs. Rowe with their revolvers and force her to give up all the noney and valuables in the house. In case

The Churchmen and the Saloonists Are is Strong Opposition. MASCONTAH, Ill., Sept. 9 -The town Okawaville, in Washington county, fifteen miles south of here, is in a high state of excitement over a bitter fight between the church and saloon keepers. Two weeks ago the church leaders determined to stop Sunday beer picnics, and accordingly the following Sunday the law was enforced and every saloon in town was closed. The two factions are about equally divided and each one has a strong following. Sunday night the residence of A. E. Three shots were fired in quick succession into the crowd and they fled in hot haste. It is more than likely that the White Caps will steer clear of Deacon Morgan in the future. Yesterday two strangers alighted from the train and stayed at Okawaville all day. They finally met John Tebeau, a church deacon and a prominent citizen. They had evidently been looking for him, and as soon as they saw him both sprang to the ground and pounced upon him. The latter was badly beaten and may not recover. The affair has greatly embittered the feeling be-

Mrs. Dickson No. 2 lived only a year or so and after her death Dickson made overtures to his former wife, who repented and deserted her second husband and came with Dickson to Alabama and located in Anniston in 1883. They had only been living here a few months when they separated and were divorced. Both married again, Dickson taking a young giri not then out of her teens. In the summer of 1886 Mrs. Dickson was married to a Mr. Baker. Last year Baker died. Again Dickson and the much married woman made up. To get Dickson's wife out of the way was the question. For several weeks they puzzled over it and planned to no effect. Finally the opportunity came, trumped up charges were brought against her and so offending girl that Diokson was again granted a divorce. The decree was made last spring and a few days ago Dickson and Mrs. Baker were married for the third time. How long they will live together no one can tell.

OTTAWA, Sept. 9 .- At a meeting of the ng. Mr. Joseph C. Morgan, a traveller for Suntin, Reid & Co. of Toronto, told how a rear ago he had gone to Senecal for an order and a short time after Senecal went to him. He gave him an order for mill board and straw board and was promptly tackled for money by Senecal. The price of the goods was very low and the witness had never been in the habit of giving money gratuities. He gave Senecal two hundred dollars. After the order was given Senecal said he was very hard up, and had to pay for some land which he had bought. Senecal wanted three hundred, but witness beat him down a hundred. Witness firm had also got small order from Senecal. The cheque for $200 given Senecal had been given by the bookkeeper. No member of the firm knew of the money being given. Morgan assumed the responsibility. Witness wanted to send the money to Senecal, but Senecal insisted on spot cash. D. A. Scott, bookkeeper for the Dominion Type Foundry, Montreal, told how money had been paid by the manager, witpany, to Senecal. Mr. Stark, the president. gave Senecal a cheque for $200, witness given Senecal two $200 chaques. Senecal got in all about $1,800, a mirror worth about sixty dollars, and some cases of Pommery, about aix in all, worth $29 a case. There were other presents but what they were witness could not say. Witness knew that before Senecal's appointment to the Bureau of printing he was on L'Etendard The total sales of type to the Government aggregated $18,200. Senecal was always wanting money, sending telegrams to the firm saying he was hungry. Most of the type supplied the Government came in full. He knew Mr. Chapleau had corresponded with Crosby, traveller for the firm, regard ing business of the Printing Bureau.

Chapleau wrote saying that no orders had been given the firm. The president wrote back saying Senecal had given an order which had been accepted in good faith. The goods were being manufactured. This was four or five months after they received the order. Mr. Chapleau was asked to take note of the delivery of the goods, but nothing more was heard from him. Witness had not a copy of Chaplean's letter as Crosby had it with him in British Columbia. Crosby had a document relating to the Printing Bureau. Witness had talked to

Crosby about "greasing" Senecal. Crosby said if Senecal kept on the firm would soon have nothing left for profit. Senecal was always asking for money. Frequently telegraphed to the firm. Senecal also sent a good many letters and telegrams. Witness said Senecal came in with a letter signed by Chapleau saying that Senecal had been appointed superintendent of Printing Bureau: On that day Senecal was given list of prices. No order was given then, but afterwards Senecal showed witness a printed copy of statute appointing him superinten-dent. He knew that within a mouth after this Crosby came to Ottawa to get order. Crosby, the manager, now had these notes. Senecal had got this money from the manager, say ing that he was moving to Ottawa, and wanted money. The firm had found that if they did not give money to Senecal they would get no order. Senecal would say: "Well, if you don't come to time, Patter-son will." The Peace River District is a Good One. Even if it is in the North. E. J. Lawrence, Peace River, N. W. I., an old Frontenacer, writes as follows to the American Adriculturist : "I am the most miles by a dog train in winter to reach the government post office on the outskirts of northwestern civilization. Do not wonder if mails are alow and I do not get one-half of my papers; some one gets them. Money is not known here. We have in spite of our latitude, fifty nine north and the same longi tude as Salt Lake city, one of the finest and most agreeable climates north of latitude forty. All common grains do well, wheat excellent. Vegetables are unsurpassed by anything I saw in the east. I weighed six field turnips fact fall that turned the scale at one hundred and ten pounds. The heavies: was twenty-two and one-half pounds. It is not unusual that we can pick from the pile of potatoes fifty that would weigh one hundred pounds. It is a splendid country for horse ranching. Six Mastiffs Attack and Mutilate a Nine WHEELING, W. Va., Sept. 9 .- Edward Gillis, nine years old, had a horrible experience in this city. Young Gillis was playing near a dog kennel, in which were confined eix English maetiffs. Gillis began teasing the dogs and they became enraged. One of the dogs broke down the door, and the six ferocious brutes made a flerce attack on the boy. Policeman Carney, assisted by Wm. Robinson, armed with revolvers and crowbars, attacked the inferiated animals. but it was impossible to make them loosen their holds, and Carney shot five of the dogs dead while they were still chewing and bit-ing their victim. The eixth brute escaped Carney himself was severely bitten. Gillis's wounds are terrible. His eyes, ears and nose were literally bitten out, and his body has no fewer than eixty wounds.
