THE DAILY WHIG

"Opinion on Order Day."

MR. DAVIN'S OPIAT

A most remarkable article in the issue of the 12th inst. of the Whig on the reorganization of the cabinet. It is, in our opinion, the most valuable contribution to the discussion of the subject.

THE GREEK IDEALISTS

(Continued from first page.) The Greek idealists are those who are in the habit of looking at the world from a purely idealistic point of view.

THE NEW MILLINERY

Fashionable changes in the millinery department are being made. The new styles are more practical and less elaborate than those of the past.

SOME OF THE NEW FUR HATS

Some of the new fur hats are very attractive. They are made of the finest furs and are trimmed with the latest styles of feathers and ribbons.

OPENS FOR THE DEMONSTRATION

Opens represent the fashionable wrap provided for the first half of the fall and for driving. For wear with colored dresses black caps of velvet or short napped plush are quite the thing.

TUDOR CAPS—FASHIONABLE

Our Tudor caps are very becoming specimens of the popular demure cap. The Tudor cap, with high gathered shawl, is styled in every color and material.

A CHANCERY CASE

Heard before Chancellor Boyd at Osgoode Hall on Saturday. George vs. Freeman, Morris vs. Freeman. Judgment on a motion by the defendant to set aside the order of the court.

Early Winter Dresses

French dresses imported for early winter are new versions of the elaborate and very plain skirts now in favor. Simplicity and modesty are the prevailing characteristics.

What's in a Name?

"I made up my mind the other day," said Pauline L'Amour to a reporter, "that I would try to be popular. I thought I would begin by remembering people's names."
