LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Visiting to New England States. NAPES, Nov. 7.—(To the Editor): During the past week I visited a great deal of the manufacturing cities of New England.

ABOUT ENSLAVEMENT

The increasing areas planted to corn the present season in this section of the province show a practical application of the law of the soil.

THE YIELD OF WHEAT

Mr. J. B. Laver, of Rathfriland, a well known authority of Great Britain, has been showing how the yields of grain fields may be increased, and as he is a man who never overstates matters, his letter may prove of great importance to Canadian farmers.
