avan From Dakota to New Jersey, St. Lovis, Mo., Dec. 10 .- Yard man James Dewey found a young tramp sale termined to go home, but not having earned or saved the amount of her fare she decided to "beat" her way in hex cars and on freight trains. Taking a pair of ragged, discarded trousers and a coat, much too large for her, and a heavy cast-off pair of shoes, she started. She travelled two days, walking on the railroad tracks and stealing rides at night in cars, but her constitution was not strong enough to stand the ordeal. The third day out she succumbed to chill and fever and became delirious. A railroad man's wife, living in the outskirts of same small town she did not remember the name earned she gave the lady who had helped her and to the physician for his medicines. Settling a Difficulty. Crircago, Dec. 10,-The Hodsen and Delaware railway is the second road to lift the Alton boycott. Its notice was received to-day. Nothing was heard from the Baltimore and Ohio and it is supposed that they will wait notil next Monday when all the roads will follow the lead of the Erie. The Atchison Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe were the only western lines to turn the Alton tickets to the wall and the Erie, to-day, requested to resume ticketing arrangements over the Alton. It is not known whether the Vanderbilt and Pennsylvania will yield unconditional or whether they will refuse to ticket passengers over lines which pay commission who has had charge of the east elevator o the oustom house, has been literally scared to death. One day last week the elevator became arratic and shot up toward the roof. Morgan thought his last day had come and fell in a faint. The elevator stopped itself and Morgan revived sufficiently to escape but has gradually failed constantly since and is now completely paralysed. The physicions say he can live only a few hours and that it is clearly a case of scared to death. Salisbury and Protection
