A Church Difficulty.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9. - Judge Beach has refused to interfere with the action of the trustees of St. Patrick's cathedral in declining to permit the body of John McGuire to be buried in Calvary cemetery. McGuire died while attending one of Dr. McGlynn's anti-poverty meetings. Burial was refused him on the ground that he had not died in the faith.

The Gamblers Making Trouble,

MADRID, Jan. 9.—The explosion in the Royal palace has caused widespread alarm. The previous explosions of petards in the road were little noticed. The petards were carelessly and almost harmlessly constructed. The governor of Madrid received an anonymous letter on Saturday saying that the outrages would be continued. The explosions are supposed to be due to the recent active raidings of a gambling house.

A Burglary at Deseronto

DESERONTO, Jan. 9 -The postoffice here was entered by burglars last night, by prying the side door open-and then crawling through the small window at the money order department. They secured about 33 in cash. They broke down the door between the post office and the office of the Rathbun Co's, store and went through a number of drawers but did not secure anything. They did not get into the store on account of the watchdog kept in the store. They were evidently frightened away as they left a large auger, a brace and bit, and a large sledge behind them. LIVELY TIMES OUTSIDE.

THE RETURNS SENT IN FROM THE VARIOUS TOWNSHIPS.

A Lively Fight in the Township of Ernesttown-One Part of Adolphustown Seriously Affected-No Votes Were Cast-The Way the County Council Will Appear This Year.

Since the word "go' was given on nomination day to the candidates in Ernesttown township the race has been the most excit ing neck and neck pull in memory in the township. The contestants were very evenly matched, and the majorities indicate that the battle ground was contested inch by inch. Good timber has been elected to the bosom of their families, whilst equally as good will guide the destiny of the banner township. Such is the tale as told by the ballot. We congratulate all; the elect on their success, the others on their plucky, manly fight. A jolly crowd awaited the tardy retuins from the wards at the town hall, Odessa, with pleasantry. H S. Davy, chairman of the meeting, announced the final counts amidst much cheering. Speeches were made by the candidates. Mr. Derbyshire heartily thanked the ladies.

A Peculiar Occurrence.

The Adolphustown elections closed with the following results: Reeve, Jacob H. Roblin ; councillors, Wilkie Dorland and Nelson Davis, of the old council, and Frank Chalmers and Archibald Peterson, of North Adolphustown, new hands. The reeve is also a new man, the ex reeve, Joseph Allison, retiring after filling the position efficiently for two years. The strangest thing about the election to an outside observer was that nearly one half, of the township should magnanimously consent to be disfranchised. The township is divided into two parts by Hay Bay, and this year the ice being unfit for travel, and having but the one polling place at the town hall, not a single vote was polled from North Adelphustown. The electors that had access to the poils very generously, however, elected their nominee in the person of Archibald Peterson, and possibly the undesigned incident may serve to demonstrate that no constituency would seriously suffer by reducing its electoral privileges by one half, provided always that the silent electors would not

ANOTHER LIVELY NUMBER.

Of the Now Famous Western Journal-The New Civilization.

Arizona Kicker via Detroit Free Press. A tough from New Mexico, who called himself "The Terror of Bloody River," struck our town the other day with a wild vell and started in to foreclose on a mortgage. The boys were mostly asleep or out shooting jack rabbits, but it wasn't over seven minutes after the Terror uttered his first whoop that he lay a wilted daisy on the street. The coroner counted eighteen bullet holes in his body, and humbly observed that there was no call for an inquest.

The age of the terror has passed. There was a time when it was considered real funny for a tough to capture a town and pop over a dozen leading citizens, and his picture was certain to appear in some illustrated paper as a hero; but that time has gone by. Terrors have become dog cheap, and no one wants to buy,

The coroner has our thanks for his kindness towards us in this particular case. We are trying to grow some catnip and asparagussin our back yard, and he gave us the body of the terror as a fertilizer. We should like three or four more, and trust that our friends will be on the lookout to supply us.

We want it distinctly understood that we had nothing whatever to do with the unfortunate incident that occurred on Jackass Hill last Tuesday evening. Mrs. General Featherstone issued cards for a high coffee, and most of the elite of the town had gath ered at her two storey abode, when the sheriff swooped down and took away seven prisoners, mostly charged with horse steal-

We neither gave them away nor knew that such a raid was intended, but this proves anew the folly of such gatherings. Society wants to show off, of course, but what's the use in collecting a crowd for the benefit of the sheriff? While we have no personal feeling against Major Bigden, the present postmaster, the fiat has gone forth that he must go, and it would be useless for us to defend him. Indeed, when one looks over the rast year he must conclude that the major has only himself to blame. The charges against him

1. Running the office on the one man power principle. In a new town like this all the boys want a hand in running the postoffice. 2 Refusing to circulate among the saloons and poker rooms, and showing that he didn't feel above the boys.

3. Putting on a heap of style whenever an inspector in here, and refusing to introduce He must go. He might be an ornament to New York or Philadelphia, but he is too rich for the blood of a new Western Those young men who make a practice of firing into the Kicker office on their way up and down town at night may be extracting a great deal of fun over it, but we are not. As long as they fired high no particular damage was done except to the stovepipe, but of late several bullets have whistled too close to our couch for comfort. We have been patient and forbearing, not wanting to deprive the boys of any legitimate amusement, but this firing must be stopped or we shall take vigorous measures against the shooters. We have several times announced that we had our "on" spells and our "off" spells in regard to fighting, and that citizens who tackled us must take their chances. Last Friday the old broken backed hyena who edits the opposition sheet saw us get a letter in a mourning envelope at the post-office, and he concluded it would be an "off" day with us and pitched in to get satisfaction. The mourning envelope enclosed a letter from the bank at Tuscan giving notice that a draft sent for collection had been, much to our astonishment, collected.

The old reptile above referred to there fore hit us dead wrong, and he had no sooner put up his dukes than we went for him and had him hollering for mercy inside of five minutes. He says in his issue of yesterday that he thought we were trying te draw a gun on him, but that is too thin. What he really thought was that we had hit him with a ton of granite.

We understand that some of our Lading citizens blame us for the arrest of Col. Jim Drake, who was pinched and teken to Omaha the other day. We did write a letter to the sheriff that Jim was here and could be had any day in the week, but we had to. He not only persistently refused to subscribe for The Kicker, but he avoided our grocery and dealt with non advertisers. In addition to this Jim was getting puffed up and conceited, and he had an idea that

We want to be friendly with all, but we must be used right. The duty of every man in the town who knows he is wanted by a sheriff anywhere is to some in and subscribe. Price $2 per year, invariably in ad-

A TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.

A Building Collapses and Several Score of People are Rilled.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Jan. 7.—The most frightful catastrophe that Pittsburg has witnessed for years occurred at 12:30 o'clock to day. At that hour a new four story building on Diamond street, near Wood street, fell with an awful crash. The force of the falling building was so great that the rear walls of two other buildings were crushed as if made of paper and their front walls fell upon the pavement on Wood street burying several people in the debris, and mangling some horribly. Of these two were a girl and a boy and a man. A barber shop in rear was also demolished and its six occupants buried in the ruins. The top story of another building was also knocked in and three printers injured. Twenty persons have been taken from the ruins. It is believed a score more are still in the debris.

IRISHMEN IN TROUBLE.

Summonses Issued Against Various Persons-Harrington in Gaol. DUBLIN, Jan. 9.—Summonses have been issued against Denis Kilbride, M.P. for South Kerry, James Lawrence, M.P. for North Kildare, and Mr. Tluly, editor of the Roscommon Herald, published at Boyle. They are accused of inciting tenants to adopt the plan of campaign and to adopt boycotting. The Freeman's Journal says Edward Harrington, M.P., who was sentenced to six months' imprisonment for offences under the Crimes act, is confined in a bare cell in the Tullamore gaol. Contrary to practice Mr. Harrington was seized by a number of wardens who despite his protests and physical resistance shaved off his moustache. PARNELL WILL BE RUINED.

His Mother Says He Will Be Broken When He Gets Through.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 8.—Mrs. Delia S. Parnell says that she has just deeded to her son, Charles Stewart Parnell, her homestead and other property at Bordentown, N. J. She says that she believes that when the Parnell commission is through with its work her son will be a ruined man financially. Her son had large interests in Ireland in the shape of farms and manufactures, but the income from them is mainly given up to the poor and his workmen, and what money he has is contributed by his American triends to help him through his course in parliament for the benefit of the Irish.

The Hungarian Gypsy Band,

This is what Margery Dean wrote of the dance to be given here by the Hungarian band on Thursday: "The 'Csardas' represents a courtship, in which the couple separate, and for a long time approach and retreat in the greatest variety of figures. each representing by gesture the state of feeling, until they come together and finish the dance in the most intoxicating, delirious manner, the gentleman, who always holds his lady at arm's length, frequently lifting her at some height from the floor. He holds her at the waist under each arm, and she places her hands upon his shoulders. The peasants dance this with the greatest abandon. I know nothing more fascinating than this dance and its accompanying music,"

Bran New Fish Story.

Dr. Coutlee, of Sharbot Lake, came to the city yesterday with a brau new fish story. He said that Levi Tryon caught a pike last week weighing 18 or 19 pounds, and in it was found among other things an English church prayer book. It was intact and un-
