THE CELEBRATED

COOK'S FRIEND BAKING POWDER

IS A PURE FRUIT ACID POWDER.
It contains neither alum, lime, nor ammonia and may be used by the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety. Its great success arising from its being intrinsically THE BEST VALUE IN THE MARKET, as well as thoroughly adapted to the wants of the kitchen, has excited envious imitations of its name and appearance. Beware of such.

No addition to or variation from

NEWS OF THE DISTRICT.

GATHERED BY OUR CORRESPONDENTS IN THE VILLAGES.

Interesting to Very Many Families Who Have Moved to the City And to Many More Who Have Friends in These Places.

LYNDHURST.

Jan. 8.—J. F. Gordon, of the woollen mills, paid a flying visit to his customers here last week. He reports a big run last summer and prospects bright for next season.—A new Scott act detective has opened fire here and lodged seven complaints against alleged local compounders of tangle leg. Rumor says that one of these has already deposited $100 with the inspector.— New York city has called away Joseph Witheral, the jolly good fellow carrying the mail.—John Nickson goes to Southern California.—C. H. Smith has launched into the general store and tailoring business.

POINT ROAD.

Jan. 9.—The sleet storm on Sunday did great damage to fruit and ornamental trees and telegraph wires; no heavier storm in years.—A number of our young folks attended the ball at Sydenham on Dec. 28th.— Mr. Buggie, of Wolfe Island, was united to Miss Lacy.—M. Mullin, of Montreal, has been visiting here.—Last evening a dance was given in the town hall by Reeve Hutton to his friends and supporters. A large number of people from the city and township were present. At twelve o'clock a fine repast was served at his residence, and dancing was resumed until four o'clock.
All enjoyed themselves immensely.

WESTPORT.

Jan. 7.—Mrs. Thomas Marten died on the 3rd, aged 82. She came from Armagh, Ireland, in 1840, and has lived in this township since. She raised a large family and was highly respected.—George Taylor, M.P.P., paid us a visit on New Year's day.
—Although the ground is bare, hay is keeping up in price at $15 a ton.—Wood scarce because of no sleighing.—N. W. McKim is putting up a windmill at Delta on the B.
& W. R.R. track, the third mill he has erected on the line.—Dr. Foley has fitted up an office here.—Mrs. A. Taggart, sr., is very ill.
—Dr. Parker is expected home on the 20th.

CATARAQUI.

Jan. 8.—The Christmas tree entertainments connected with both churches were held with success and enjoyment to the children. Mr. Waterbury's little soldiers' exercise and cartoons were greatly appreciated.
—The oldest inhabitants never remember so mild a winter.—The storm and ice has done a very great amount of damage to fruit and ornamental trees.—Our township council has undergone a change in the election of Messrs. Sheehan and Knapp. They are good business men, but the electors contemplate returning temperance candidates next year.—An improved railroad gong has been erected and tested, but is not successful.
They will persevere till it is.

LATIMER.

Jan. 7.—The sleet on Saturday and Sunday did much damage to the fruit trees.— Gus Daley left for Kingston to attend the Business college, and Samuel Campbell for the collegiate institute.—Miss Blanche Spencer intends visiting friends at Glenburnie.—Thomas Travis and Miss Eva, youngest daughter of B. S. Wartman, were united Dec. 19th. The couple were assisted by Miss Clara Travis and Thomas Shea. The bride received many handsome presents and the young people spent an enjoyable evening.—The young people intend starting a series of readings for the Sunday school, the first to be held on Tuesday next. They will consist of dialogues, readings, recitations, music, and addresses.

EMERALD.

Jan. 8.—Mrs. Pomeroy has been engaged as teacher for 1889.—George Eaton, Tweed, is visiting relatives here.—Miss Mary Adrain disposed of a quantity of turkeys on Thursday.—A. Howard has removed to Collinsbay, where he has rented a hotel.—Mrs. J. Mc-Kenty has rented her farm for ten years at $250 per year.—A surprise party had a good time at J. Baker's on Tuesday night.—Chas.
McDonald is home on a visit.—S. Morrow has purchased the farm of Arawood Burleigh for $2,100.—Although rain and mud were profuse on Christmas night there was a good attendance at the brick church. The sermon by Rev. Mr. Roberts was highly appreciated. He was the recipient of a good offering.—A wedding is close at hand.

BATH.

Jan. 8.—A. E. Manning, teacher in the collegiate institute, Hamilton, has returned to his duties.—Miss Mary Wemp has returned from Watertown, N.Y., for a visit.— Fred. Link, of Belleville, has returned home.
—Mrs. E. Gautier Ferren, of Watertown, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dennee.—The young people and their visitors were charmingly entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Robinson on New Year's night at a "whist party."—Miss Gussie Wemp has returned to Belleville.—E. Newton Jory, principal of the high school, has commenced his duties.—J. M. Wemp, a rising young man of Bath, went in by a sweeping majority as councillor.

ARDEN.

Jan. 8.—On Thursday last two boys, sons of John Arney and Felix Shorts, about fifteen years old, were out shooting near their home north of Cross Lake. Short's gun hung fire while aiming at a partridge; while taking the gun from his shoulder it exploded, lodging the contents in the underside of Arney's arm above the elbow, making a severe flesh wound. He is doing favourably, and no serious results are expected.—Rev. J. S. and Mrs. McMullen are visiting friends in Western Ontario.—Henry Phillips and wife are visiting Norman Scott.
—R. A. Smith, station agent at Arden, and family, have left for a few weeks vacation.
—On Sunday the wife of Samuel Baker fell down cellar and was badly bruised; progressing favourably.—On Monday Mrs.
John Cross also fell down stairs and broke her collar bone.

HARTINGTON.

Jan. 7.—The want of snow is keeping the farmers from getting out their winter wood.
—Mrs. Vanluven and her daughter Ella were thrown from a wagon a few days ago and badly hurt, but are recovering nicely.— J. Taylor cut his foot badly with an axe while chopping in the woods last Friday morning, and being alone and not able to reach his home had to call for assistance, which luckily was not distant.—The surprise party at Robert Babcock's, last Thursday night, was most pleasant.—Daniel Freeman and Henry Woods arrived home from Vancouver last week, and report times good out there.—Prospects of a wedding soon here. Our late pastor, Rev. G. S. Bell, preached here on Sunday. Owing to bad weather, attendance small.—Visitors: William Taylor and wife, Gananoque, and Mr. Sagar and wife, Napanee, a newly married couple from Meaford; Mrs. Cavanagh and Miss A. O'Reilly, Mallorytown; Miss C. O'Riley, from Chicago, are visiting Hartington.—William Patterson, jr., has removed his paint shop to Arsenal st., next door to J. M. Robertson's wholesale and retail establishment.

BALLANTRINE'S STATION.

Jan. 7.—S. Free, trustee for S. S. 19 for a number of years, has resigned to the regret of the people, and J. Edgar will fill his place. School was re-opened on Friday.— Visitors: S. Wager, Parham; Messrs.
Patterson and Melville, Howe Island; Miss R. Veal, Kingston; W. Whitney, Lethbridge, N. W. T.; Miss Katie Keates, Kingston; Miss Helle, Gananoque.—The old bachelors are free for four years, since leap-year has expired.—On the 2nd many friends assembled at the residence of J.
Farquharson, for the marriage of his daughter, Minnie, to Samuel Day, of Sand Bay, Leeds, by the Rev. John Gallaher. Miss L. Orser, Kingston, assisted the bride, and D. Herbison attended the groom. A sumptuous repast was served, games indulged in, and a very enjoyable evening spent. Many handsome presents were received by the bride.

HEAD OF THE LAKE.

Jan. 7.—School opened on the 3rd with a fair attendance.—F. Switzer, of Dakota, spent a few days here.—Messrs. Guess & Wartman threshed 500 bushels of oats the other day with a three horse tread in about 8 hours.—Our young people have freely patroned good ice on the lake, although several got a cold bath. On Saturday a lady was nearly drowned through going on for-bidden ground. She fell into deep water, and would have been drowned but for A.
Cranston, who, at the risk of his own life, went to the rescue and safely landed the helpless one after she had been in the water for over 15 minutes.—Smith & Cranston are doing a good but-hering trade.—Stephen Knight has gone to Quebec to take a course in the cavalry school.—Miss G. Ramsay, Cataragui, and John Stag and bride, of Kingston, visited relatives here.—Miss E.
Knapp is spending holidays in Napanee.— J. Coglon has bought the farm of Mr. W.
Purdy, of Sydenham, and will move there in the spring.

KINGSTON MILLS.

Jan. 8.—F. L. Trison has returned to Syracuse, after spending Christmas here.— The Misses Cunningham have gone to Sydenham to resume studies at the high school.—John Sargent, of Detroit, is visiting here.—Miss Shortall has been re-engaged as teacher for S.S. No. 2, for 1888.—I.
Hamilton has been elected trustee for this section.—M. Dean has gone to Kingston to attend school.—The storm did considerable damage in this vicinity; telegraph and telephone wires were wrecked.—Mr. Hughes has purchased another carload of corn; the mill is flourishing.—Water is about the normal height on this level of the Rideau canal.
—Nearly all the hay on the marsh between this place and Kingston has been cut, folder being in such demand.—Young ladies and gentlemen greatly enjoy skating.—Farmers who attended the Farmers' convention in Kingston were well pleased.—Mr. Redmond's stable was broken into last week; no damage done.—A new coal stove and several new pews have been placed in Cushendall church.

WILBUR.

Jan. 7.—Lumbermen feel blue for want of snow; yet the timber cut this season is immense and as soon as snow comes there will be no idle teams here and many more will find employment.—On the 25th ult. one of S. Donaldson's teamsters, claiming to be 96 years of age, skidded 100 logs; this is remarkable as that number is not often reached by young men; many of the logs were large and ranging from thirteen to forty-two feet long.—The party lost on Antoine Lake on the night of the 26th ult. turned up next day; one man got in the ice.—The lads who chased the bear should have captured it, then we would believe them.—Knox & Connelly, contractors, have dissolved. All accounts to be paid to Knox.—Dixon's employment office closed on account of the manager's illness.—Another fine imposed for selling whiskey.—Mr. Warner has accepted a situation near Oso.—Stores doing a good business.—Without snow soon much valuable timber will be left in the bush to be destroyed.—School opened this morning with Miss Beatty, of Pittsburg, as teacher.

DELTA.

Jan. 8.—Christmas tree much enjoyed, especially the short speeches; proceeds, $23. A social was held Dec. 20th; receipts, $24.25.—F. H. Eaton and Miss N. Stevens have been re-engaged to teach this year.
The former sent four pupils to the entrance examination, and all passed very creditably, being Maggie Sinclair, Lena Flood, Katie Murphy and John Sawyer.—At the annual school meeting Dr. Sinclair was re-elected trustee. The oddfellows met at their room here on New Year's evening, and two members were initiated.—At the farmers' institute on the 5th, Prof. James and John Dryden gave some valuable information.— The boys had a shooting match on New Year's day, James Moulton secured first prize; R. Warner, second, and James Halliday, third.—The death of two much esteemed residents has cast a gloom over the village, and marred the holidays. Philo Hacock died, Thursday, 27th, and Mr.
Allen, who lived opposite, died on the following Thursday, Jan. 3rd.—Captain Wells, Morristown, N.Y., is visiting his brother here.—Howard Stevens was home for the holidays.—W. Lawson has returned from Carleton Place.—B. York spent Christmas in Brockville.—Frogs, snakes, and chipmunks have been seen here, an odd thing for midwinter.—W. Vanloon was married last week to Miss Annie Robinson, of Mott's Mill.

ODESSA.

Jan. 9.—New Year's evening a good looking couple drove up to John W. Babcock's hotel. The gentleman whispered something to the landlady, and things fell round for half an hour or so. Rev. J. W. Young came and united J. Burleigh, of Colborne, and Miss Thompson, daughter of William Joseph Thompson, Wilton. The company had a pleasant evening and wish the young couple all the joys of the season.—School re-opened on the 3rd with a good attendance.—Officers Crow and Garnet have been assisting at the Salvation army services for a few nights.—W. T. Hodge, prince ventriloquist, gave one of his amusing entertainments to a good house on Saturday evening. Hodge is a comical kuss, accounted for by his being an old Ernesttown boy.
—Robert Bennett is the owner of a dandy Holstein calf.—Covenant service was held at the Methodist church on Sunday evening.—The license inspector and constables searched the Dominion hotel on Monday, and reported the premises were free from the contaminating spirit.—Division court on the 17th; lots of cases for adjustment. The Wilton-bear case will be interesting meat.—Charlie J. Lowry, publisher, New York, and wife spent a day with Mrs.
Allan Chadwick.—William Houston, an old Odessa boy, spent a pleasant day with friends.—Telegraphic communication with the outside world is completely cut off. The lines were knocked senseless by the heavy sleet.—Charlie Jones has secured a position in the Rathbun Co's office, Kingston.
