NEWS OF THE DISTRICT.

GATHERED BY OUR CORRESPONDENTS IN THE VILLAGES.

Interesting to Very Many Families Who Have Moved to the City and to Many More Who Have Friends in These Places.

CATARAQUI.

Jan. 22.—J. B. Cooke has purchased Jacob Harpell's farm at Sunnyside for $2,000.—Thomas Weston, after a stay in California of a few months, is home again.—At a Scott Act meeting, held here last week, everything was put in working order to carry the act for another term.—Rev. Mr. Topping, of Elginburg, and Rev. Mr. Simpson exchanged pulpits last Sunday.—The Women's Temperance Union are alert, and will do their best in the campaign.

FRONT ROAD.

Jan. 21.—Bible class on Tuesday by the Rev. Mr. Down, of Westbrook; it was well attended by the young people.—Mr. Baker, moved to the city, is doing a large business in his new store.—Mr. Rees has already fed his stock the straw of 1,100 bushels of grain and has bought sixty-five tons of feed costing over $900, and why should the city talk like at the price of milk?—Mrs. J. Ward, after two weeks' illness, and Mrs. G. S. White are convalescent.

WESTPORT.

Jan. 22.—Down' Curtis is dangerously ill with typhoid fever.—A number of horses were bought here last week for the American market.—Most of the men returned from the lumber shanties last week, but since the snow they will return to work.—An oyster supper was held last night under the auspices of the A.O.U.W.—A fancy fair and distribution of prizes is to be held here February 4th to 8th in aid of the new convent school.—John Brash, who died on the 18th, aged 86, was one of the first settlers in this section.

SUNBURG.

Jan. 21.—Old residents of Canada claim this to be the most pleasant winter they have ever experienced.—Capt. Gordon assisted Capt. McKee last week.—The temperance meeting was well attended on Thursday.—The body of Mrs. James Carr, of Shannanville, was put in Sand Hill vault on Saturday, and Mrs. McFarlane's on Sunday.—James McConnell, of Winnipeg, was a visitor last week.—The revee is making arrangements for an oyster supper.—Rev. H. Krupp preached on Sunday in behalf of the superannuation fund, and received a large subscription.—The store to be started at Ida Hill will take considerable trade from our merchants.

BREWSTER'S MILLS.

Jan. 23.—A meeting of temperance men and women was held in the Zion church, Pittsburg, on the 18th. A resolution pledging defence of the Scott act in the coming contest was carried unanimously. Able speeches giving facts and figures in favour of the act were made by gentlemen present. Committees were formed and officers appointed who will make all necessary provision for the fight. A large deputation from here will attend the convention at Sydenham on the 23rd. The meeting was very enthusiastic.

BARRIEFIELD.

Jan. 22.—The new council met yesterday; Mr. Todd was appointed township treasurer; there were six applicants for the office. John Patterson was appointed assessor.—The club rooms opened by the young men here on Christmas day are a decided success.—C. Belva has brought home a bride. Mrs. Belva, whose genial disposition is well known, was welcomed by many old and sincere friends.—J. Watts has opened a carpenter and repair shop, and a grocery store has been started by Mrs. Annie Watts.—Mrs. Charles Bowman is recovering from a severe attack of illness.—John Hutton is putting a roof to his new house.—Mr. Batten, sr., is still very feeble.

ADOLPHUSTOWN & FREDERICKSBURG.

Jan. 22.—A young man named Daeo, about 19 years of age, started from South Frederickburg on Saturday morning to skate across Hay bay, got within a few rods of the opposite shore, went through and was drowned. He was seen to go under, but it was impossible to rescue him. He shot under the ice, and his body was not found until after several hours of hard labor.—Rev. W. R. Young, of Wellington, preached anniversary sermons in the Methodist Centennial Church, Adolphustown, on Sabbath last; congregations large.—The front bay has kept open until the present, rendering communication with the Prince Edward and Picton shore extremely difficult. Mr. and Mrs. Young were brought across from Glenora on Saturday in an open boat.—Rev. Mr. Ash crossed Hay bay from Gasport to Adolphustown on Tuesday, the 15th, with his horse and buggy.

YARKER.

Jan. 23.—The population of Yarker was increased by two on the 20th inst; the wife of Jas. Carscallen of a pair of twins. Happy Jim.—George Miller, watchmaker, has removed across the river and located over S. Arty's meat shop.—C. Connolly has left for Renfrew and Eganville.—Mr. Skinner, of Camden East, has moved to Yarker.—E. McDonough, J. H. West and E. Connolly had each a furnace put in their cellars, and owing to them not working satisfactory have ordered them to be taken out.—Are the conservatives of Frontenac aware that the local house opens Thursday, 24th? They want to watch for the opening speech of their member.—The school here is too large for one teacher. An assistant will be necessary, and the addition of a class room.—Good sleighing in this section and everyone pleased.—B. Homan and wife, of Belleville, are now residents of Yarker.

PLEVNA.

Jan. 21.—A public meeting was held here on Friday, 18th, to consider what could be done to meet the repeal of the Scott Act. An association was formed. President, J. T. Howell, reeve; secretary, George W. Dawson, merchant; treasurer, Miss C. Muldoon, teacher. Resolutions were passed pledging all present to support the act, and seven committees, of about six members in each committee, were formed, whose duty it is to work in the interest of the act in different sections. The committees are to see that every voter polls his vote at the coming test. It was stated that the act was being violated in this neighbourhood, and a strong committee was selected to collect evidence against offenders and generally to assist in enforcing the act. Thirteen years ago the people of Clarendon and Miller carried the Dunkin Act by a vote equal to 11 to 1. On the vote on the Scott Act one only polled his vote against the act. Friends of the act here think they can promise a majority of at least 100 in favor of it.

ENTERPRISE.

Jan. 22.—Mrs. C. Clark and Mrs. James Smith, of Tamworth, visited M. Clark on Saturday last.—E. Card, from Michigan, visiting here, says that is the country for good farms.—Mrs. A. Loucks, from Deseronto, is visiting here.—Wm. H. Vannest has returned from Michigan; reports dull times there.—Jas. Kenny shipped on Saturday a fine lot of fat cattle to Montreal.—We have no regular skating rink this winter, but there is splendid ice on the creek.—Some of our young people are becoming expert dancers.—Considerable business is being done at the station.—Our public school is well attended, having an average of seventy scholars.—Miss Tina Wellington and Miss Lucy Wheeler have been engaged as teachers for another term.—At the recent entrance examinations a small percentage of our pupils passed, Miss L. Peter being the only one.—Good dry hardwood is selling here for $2.75, and soft wood at $1.50.—An enjoyable oyster supper took place on Monday evening last at Dr. Yones'.

VERONA.

Jan. 21.—Clark and Norington, Free Methodist revivalists, are attracting large crowds to their nightly meetings.—On Sunday the remains of Mr. Phoebe Asseltine, relict of the late William Asseltine, Bedford, were buried here. The funeral service was held in the Methodist church.—The open winter is making business dull.—Working in the woods, owing to the absence of snow, has been good, and there has been an unusually large cut of timber.—At the oyster supper and tea-meeting at Bellerock, on Friday night, the proceeds, to be applied on the minister's salary, amounted to only $16.—Miss Maud Grant has taken the place of Miss Billmore as organist in the Methodist church.—Ezra and Marshall Sly are visiting their parents after an absence of eight years.—Miss Delia Babcock, Sharbot Lake, is the guest of Miss Tryon.—One of our hotel keepers has confessed to an infraction of the Scott Act, and will pay a fine of $50.—The anti Scott people are bestirring themselves in view of the election in April. The act will get a majority in this place, notwithstanding all that has been said to the contrary.—There has been a noticeable improvement in the morals of this place since the act has been enforced.

WOLF ISLAND.

Jan. 23.—We welcome the snow and the prospect of an ice bridge to Kingston. Who can say but some day the minds of engineers may be wrestling with no less a problem than that of constructing a bridge like that triumph of genius, the Victoria bridge, Montreal, to connect us with a transformed and metropolitan center, once "old fossil" Kingston, deceased, on one side and our neighbours (or perhaps brethren) on the other, while our lovely isle is transmogrified into a suburban paradise for two great cities. Judging by the remarks of our gentleman on nomination day, agent our ferry, he deemed this or some similar destiny to be ours. Eh, George!—Men have been at work for a week repairing damage done to the telegraph lines by the recent storm.—A tenement house owned by J. Coyle, jr., and occupied by Patrick Troy, was damaged by fire. The house was one of the oldest in the village.—A hand engine and several extinguishers should be purchased by our council, and a volunteer fire company formed in the village for service in cases of fire. Escaping well in the past is no guarantee of immunity in the future.—Mrs. Matthew Flynn won a handsome mat at a recent drawing here for a charitable object.—The ball in McLaren's hall, under the auspices of the new council, was despite inclement weather largely attended by the youth and beauty of the island. Mr. D. McKee was master of ceremonies; patron saints, James Horne and R. Moore.—John Davis, popular captain of the invincible island base ball team, was recently united with Miss Maggie Sanderson.—The open weather has been very favourable for operations in the quarry recently opened here and large quantities of fine stone are ready for shipment. The presence of so many men in the village is a great boon to store-keepers, others besides making more market for the produce of farmers. Nearly every other house in the village has been transformed into a boarding establishment.—Miss Toner takes the seat vacated in No. 4 school by John McManus. His absence will be regretted in social, literary, baseball circles.—E. Eccles is also missed, he having gone to Los Angeles, Cal., to engage with his grandfather in raising raisins.

ODESSA.

Jan. 23.—Mrs. Martin Denyes, Odessa, on a visit with friends at Tamworth, sustained a paralytic stroke. There is a slight hope of her recovery.—Last week Hester Clark received a similar affliction and is very low.—George A. Aylesworth will remove to Kingston, February 1st, to enter business there.—The council organized on Monday. Individually and collectively they make a gentlemanly appearance, and what they have to say is understood in any part of the hall. This is a great improvement over the mum-mum style. The following appointments were made: Assessor, H. S. Davy; auditors, Dr. Mabec and Peter E. R. Miller; board of health, Geo. W. Montgomery, Henry Benjamin and Dr. Mabec.—A jolly party of Kingstonians had a hop in the town hall on Wednesday eve. Supper was served by the hostess, Mrs. O. D. Lewis, at her residence.—Division court was held Thursday last by Judge Price. There was a large docket. Herrington and Madden, Napanee, and Donald McIntyre, Kingston, represented the bar. The bear case created the most interest, and as we are lazy to-night we suggest that each one of the 500 spectators present tell the particulars to their wives, their cousins and their aunts, and relieve us of the task, save a lot of printer's space, and my! just think of the circulation the bear story will have. Try it. The Armitage-Westlake case was referred for arbitration, Armitage choosing Marous Fraser, Westlake choosing Murray Clark, and Judge Price appointing Isaac Fraser Aylesworth as his choice—three active practical farmers to settle a farmer's dispute. The other cases were of minor importance.—The Anglican missionary meeting will be held Tuesday evening, Jan. 22, in Beaver hall, at 7 o'clock. A good deputation expected.—A quarterly meeting will be held in the Methodist church on Sunday morning. Outside appointments will probably be cancelled, so as to allow a large circuit attendance.—Revival services are being held at Link's school house by Rev. Mr. Young.—George Lucas, jr., is happy—a bouncing baby boy.—Visitors: James Mullen, of Nebraska; Miss Irish, Yarker; Chas. Aylesworth, Madoc; and Miss Tobin, Kingston.

IMITATION

Is sometimes called the sincere form of flat; try. This may account for the number of imitations of the original and only positive corn cure, Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. All such fail to possess equal merit, so when purchasing get the genuine "Putnam's." Safe, sure and painless. All druggists.

SECRETS OF THE TOILET.

A principal one is Jelly of Cucumber and Roses for beautifying the complexion and curing chapped hands and lips. Druggists keep it. W. A. Dyer & Co., Montreal.
