WIT AND HUMOR.

Notes of Conduct for Young Men. Don't repeat the scandals of the day; they are old. Invent new ones. Never leave home with unkind words on your lips. Stay till you have said them. Let ladies pass through a door first. It may be slippery, so you had better wait and see.—Cleveland Plain Dealer

A Literal Interpretation.

Mistress—Why, Bridget, what in the world are you doing with my new dress on? Bridget—Sure, mum, it's yerself what gave it to me! Mistress—I gave it to you! Bridget—Yes, yez said Oi cud have it as soon as yez had worn it out, an' begorra yez wore it out yestherday afternoon.—Harper's Bazar.

Two Boston Merchants.

When James Andrews received his son, who had graduated from Harvard college and the law school, into the firm, his advertisement read something like this: "With the commercial knowledge of the senior partner and the legal talent of the junior partner, merchants will realize the advantages of consigning goods to this firm." The second illustration is this: Old John Tyler, the auctioneer, of whom I shall have much to say in the future, was one day selling a vessel at auction, and Andrews was one of the chief bidders. Tyler was annoyed by the latter's constant interruptions. "Coppered and copper fastened" were the guarantees of a well built ship. Tyler had iterated and reiterated these facts, when Andrews broke in with the inquiry, "Mr. Tyler, is she thoroughly copper fastened?" This aroused the ire of old John, never at the best a peaceably disposed man, and he roared out, standing up in his chair: "See here, Andrews, if any man should ask me if you were a gentleman, I should say 'yes.' If any man should ask me if you were a merchant, I should say 'yes'; but"—and here he looked at Andrews—"if any man should ask me if you were a gentleman and a thoroughbred merchant, I should say 'Judge for yourselves, gentlemen.' And I am offered"— Andrews retired.—Boston Gazette.

It Probably Was.

"I've got a notice here somewhere," he said, as he entered the water office—"a notice here to the effect that I—" "Yes, sir," said the clerk. "I don't seem to find it," said the man, as he fumbled around. "I must have lost it. It was a notice to the effect—" "Yes, sir." "It's very singular, but I can't recall the words. What do you suppose it was?" "That your water would be shut off if you didn't pay the quarter due, probably." "Say, I shouldn't wonder if it was! It would be just like 'em to send me such a notice, wouldn't it?" "It would." "And I'd better pay?" "Yes, sir." "Then I will. You look honest, and I think you'd advise me right. Yes, I'll pay, and I'm very much obliged to you. You must have a wonderful memory to keep such things in your head! Take it out of that, and when I come here I shall always try and do business with you."—Detroit Free Press.

Punishing an Ingrate.

Montana Police Magistrate (to prisoner)—What is your name? Prisoner—John Smith. Magistrate (to officer)—What is the charge against him? Officer—Whipping an Indian, your honor. We caught him in the act. Magistrate (sternly)—John Smith, you will pound stone for thirty days. For anything you know to the contrary the Indian you whipped may have been a descendant of Pocahontas, you ungrateful hound!—Chicago Tribune.

The Kitchen's Loss.

"Look here, young man," said a facetious individual the other noon in one of the down town dairy lunch rooms, "I ordered a stew and here is an oyster in it," fishing around in the bowl with his spoon and finally bringing a lonely bivalve to the surface. "I can't help that," responded the waiter, addressed, never cracking a smile. "It's not my fault—it's the kitchen's loss."—Chicago Herald.

Not Responsible.

Mother—To think that my little Ethel should have spoken so impertinently to papa today at dinner! She never hears me talk in that way to him. Ethel (stoutly)—Well, but you choosed him, and I didn't.—Harper's Bazar.

More cases of sick headache, biliousness, constipation, can be cured in less time, with less medicine, and for less money, by using Carter's Little Liver Pills, than by any other means. On Monday last while Allen Hoover was assisting to turn the locomotive at the turn table, Picton, he slipped, and falling broke the keucap on one of his legs. They make one feel as though life was worth living. Take one of Carter's Little Liver Pills after eating; it will relieve dyspepsia, aid digestion, give tone and vigor to the system. Mrs. Bernard Beere often plays at the Monte Carlo gaming tables, and her luck is proverbial. If you are nervous or dyspeptic try Carter's Little Nerve Pills. Dyspepsia makes you nervous, and nervousness makes you dyspeptic; either one renders you miserable, and these little pills cure both. The wife of Senator Stanford rides behind a magnificent pair of black horses valued at $20,000. Avoid appearances.—A worthy gentleman, having an unusually red nose, was long suspected of being a tippler on the sly, by those not well acquainted with his strictly temperate habits. His unfortunate disfigurement was readily cured by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Rev. W. Holland, of Pittsburg, Penn., has accumulated 100,000 bugs in the interest of science. Remember that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has no equal as a specific for colds, coughs, and all affections of the throat and lungs. For nearly half a century it has been in greater demand than any other remedy for pulmonary complaints. All druggists have it for sale. Mr. Labouchere genially describes Gen. Lord Wolseley as a "perfect gas bag of self-conceit."

When baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had children, she gave them Castoria.

The Blending of Life. And death is one of the mysterious functions of the human organism. They are constantly battling two rival elements; the one throwing off waste and effete matter—death, the other to supply living atoms to build up and sustain life. It is when the system grows sluggish, when the effete and dead particles, are not eliminated and remain to clog life's channels, that Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butternut render greatest service. They cleanse the system, restore the liver to a healthy action, correct morbid secretions, renew the springs of life by making digestion more perfect, and proved by the use of most perfect family medicine in existence. Accept no substitute for Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butternut. At druggists and dealers in medicine.

Partly Gave Up. In the year 1885 I coughed for six months, and having unsuccessfully tried many remedies, I partly gave up, thinking I had consumption. At last I tried Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam, less than one bottle of which cured me, leaving me as well as ever I was." Henry W. Carns, Wabash, Ont.

Health Falling Fast. I was swollen from head to foot from dropsy of six months' standing, and my health was falling fast, but after taking one bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, I am quite well, and think there is no medicine equal to B.B.B., and to it I remain a true friend." Joseph Heric, Linwood, Ont.

A Nice Thing. To have in the house a tube of Dyer's Jelly of Cucumber and Roses for the chapped hands, it cures them completely. Druggists keep it. W. A. Dyer & Co., Montreal.

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles. Symptoms—Moisture; intense itching and stinging; most at night; worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and become very sore. Dr. Swagie & Son, Philadelphia.—Lyman, Sons & Co., Montreal, wholesale agents.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Holloway's Pills and Ointment. Some occupations tends to the development of certain diseases, and those who toil as miners are peculiarly liable to rheumatism, lumbago, and other allied complaints. In the gold fields and copper mines Holloway's remedies have been largely patronized by the workers to their very great advantage, and they can be confidently recommended as invaluable remedies for inward congestions, spasms and cramps in the bowels, and all those conditions of the lungs and liver to which those who work underground or in impure atmosphere are so peculiarly liable. For cuts, bruises, sprains and stiffened joints the action of Holloway's Ointment is eminently healing and soothing, and a supply should always be at hand in case of need.

Advice to Mothers. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, for children teething, is the prescription of one of the best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and has been used for forty years with never-failing success by millions of mothers for their children. During the process of teething its value is incalculable. It relieves the child from pain, cures dysentery and diarrhoea, griping in the bowels, and wind-colic. By giving health to the child it rests the mother. Price 25c a bottle.

Mrs. William Windom, during her long residence in Washington, was quite popular in the society circle, and will be welcomed back to the social life of the capital.

Common Croup. Is often fatal when not remedied in time. Leslie B. Nicholson, 19 Wellesley Avenue, says: "As a quick cure for croup, colds, coughs, sore throat, chilblains, etc., I can recommend Hagyard's Yellow Oil." It is a sure cure. Directions accompany each bottle.

Joseph G. Parkinson, of Chicago, although deaf and dumb, ranks high among the patent lawyers of the country. He is associated with his twin brother.

Nothing Like It. "I was troubled with liver complaint for a good many years, but was cured by one bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters. I have never found any medicine to help me like B.B.B., in fact one bottle made a complete cure." W. J. West, Parkhill, Ont.
