THE FRUIT GROWERS.

A Large Deputation Urge a Government Grant for a Dominion Convention. OTTAWA, April 3.—A government grant towards the holding of a Dominion fruit growers' convention was the object of a large deputation who waited this evening upon Hon. John Carling, Minister of Agriculture, and Hon. G. E. Foster, Minister of Finance.

Mr. McMillan read a letter he had received to-day from Mr. Alex. Mc.D. Allan of Toronto, stating that a joint stock company was now being got up in that city for promoting the sale in Great Britain of fruit, butter and cheese from Canada.

Hon. G. E. Foster stated his appreciation of the objects of the association represented on this deputation. He thought that greater advantage would be derivable from provincial and county conventions than from a Dominion gathering.

HOW PARNELL BEARS IT.

He Has Grown Thin Over the Grave Accusations Made Against Him. LONDON, April 4.—Parnell is a greatly changed man. Three years ago, he was one of the strongest looking men of his time.

Parnell's illness has been moral rather than physical. Everybody was surprised to find how seriously he took the forgeries that have now been exposed so completely.

When the trial began Parnell went at the investigation with extraordinary assiduity. In fact, he acted part of the time as his own solicitor and his own detective.

The political consequences are profound, and the unionist party is looking to see the scapegoat. Chamberlain is much blamed for forcing the commission. By the way, everybody is remarking that he looks ghastlier than ever.

Of the human race, according to a high authority, suffer from one or other form of blood taint. Never allow this latent evil to develop into serious disease while the blood can be kept pure and the system clean by proper precautions.
