

MEDICINALITIES.

It Made Mother Strong

My mother has been using PAIN'S CELERY COMPOUND for nervous prostration, accompanied by melancholia, etc., and it has done her a world of good. It is the only medicine that strengthens the nerves.

I am in my 64th year. Have been afflicted by several ways—could not sleep, had no appetite, no courage, low spirits. I commenced using Paine's Celery Compound and felt relief from the third day after using it. I now have a good appetite and can sleep well. My spirits and courage are almost like those of a young man.

Paine's Celery Compound

Strengthens and builds up the old, and cures their infirmities. Rheumatism, indigestion and nervousness yield quickly to the curative power of Paine's Celery Compound.

A Perfect Tonic and Invigorator, it GIVES NEW LIFE.

I am now 69 years old and have tried several remedies, but none had any effect until I used Paine's Celery Compound. I feel entirely different for the short time I have used it. I can walk nearly straight, sleep sound and well, and feel as though there was new life and energy coming into my whole system.

Paine's Celery Compound is of unequalled value to women. It strengthens the nerves, regulates the kidneys, and has wonderful power in curing the painful diseases with which women so often silently suffer.

The yoke waists are now about as much worn by full-grown women as they have been by children for the last two years.

Prince Henry XXIV., of Reuss, is a musician of considerable merit. He has made a reputation as a composer of symphonies.

A Polish writer of stories recently received an envelope containing $10,000 and a card with the inscription: "From an admiring reader."

The newest fabric for little girls' clothing is pleated mohair. It is light in texture and its color combinations are generally artistic.

Girdles of silver or bronze about an inch in width looped around the waist and with one end hanging down to the ankles are occasionally worn.

For Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint you have a printed guarantee on every bottle of Shiloh's Vitalizer. It never fails to cure. W. J. Wilson, druggist.

An evening costume recently seen at a Paris reception was of shot velvet, apparently of vieux rose and green, the combination making a dull heliotrope.

Are you made miserable by Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness, loss of Appetite, Yellow Skin? Shiloh's Vitalizer is a positive cure. W. J. Wilson, druggist.

A combination much worn this season is that of black and yellow. Black straw hats take yellow ribbons and flowers, and yellow awnings have black ribbons and black feathers.

There is an extensive assortment of cotton dress fabrics for summer wear, including zephyrs, ginghams, embroidered French organza muslin, Chambray batistes, lawns, and crepons.

Are free from all crude and irritating matter. Concentrated medicine only. Carter's Little Liver Pills. Very small; very easy to take; no pain; no griping; no purging. Try them.

Dr. Kuckenthal, of Jena, has been commissioned by the geographical society of Bremen to conduct an exploring expedition to the arctic regions in order to make geological researches.

The most popular wrap just at present is one that partakes of the nature of both the jacket and the cape. It is a tight-fitting bodice without sleeves, over which a loose cape reaches to the waist.

If you had taken two of Carter's Little Liver Pills before retiring you would not have had that coated tongue or bad taste in the mouth this morning. Keep a vial with you for occasional use.

This material for hot weather wear are very fresh and charming, but very expensive. For the most part they are open work tissues from India and cost quite as much as satin or velvet.

Smart Weed and Belladonna, combined with the other ingredients used in the best porous porous plasters, make Carter's S. W. & B. Backache Plasters the best in the market. Price 25 cents.

King Humbert of Italy, who is to start for Berlin on the 20th of May, will be accompanied by Premier Crispi, the Prince of Naples, and fifteen other prominent Italians. The king's health has been steadily improving of late.

George Francis Train did not eat a mouthful of food through all last week. His fast was kept for the purpose of enabling him to "solve the problem of life" unhampered by the petty annoyances attendant upon such things as meals.

Mrs. Slindiet, the landlady—Excuse me, Mr. Dashaway, I notice you have dropped a small bit of fish on your waistcoat. Dashaway—Thank you, madam. You will pardon me if I replace it on my plate, for (he added sadly) I need it.

The corages of those gowns which are made of the costliest semi-diaphanous and transparent tissues have crossed surplises on the bosoms in empire style, belted or pointed waists, and airy scarfs that cross and tie in easy artistic folds.

A dry, hacking cough keeps the bronchial tubes in a state of constant irritation, which, if not speedily removed, may lead to bronchitis. No prompter remedy can be had than Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which is both an anodyne and expectorant.

There are any number of fancy wraps for this season's wear. There are corage bodices with deep lace wings, also galant capes, empire mantles, Louis XV. coats, pelerines and pelisses of lace, and long lace Connemara cloaks, and ever so many more.

Fashion makers say that the next freak in veils will be the large, long, blond lace ones in use about forty years ago. They were tied around the high crown of the Dunstable bonnet and thrown back, falling mantle-fashion over the shoulder to a point below the waist line.

Robert Louis Stevenson is in first-class health, and at last accounts was having a famous time in company with King Kalakaua of the Hawaiian Islands. He writes his friends that he is seriously considering the advisability of accepting an important foreign office from Kalakaua.

"My son," said the anxious parent, "I learn with some surprise that you are marked 'deficient' in your French history. I thought you told me you finished your paper in ten minutes." "So I did; but the question was, 'Tell all you know about the history of France.'" "Ah! I see."

Meissonier, the painter, is second only to Boulanger in the influence he exerts upon the French public. He almost succeeded in getting the opening of the Exhibition postponed for a month because he didn't like the arrangements in the fine arts gallery. He is always treated with the greatest respect, and bullies the high dignitaries in the land with perfect impunity. It is said that he aspires to the presidency of the French republic.

IN THE WILDEST DISORDER.

The Chairman of a Toronto School Board Calls For the Police.

TORONTO, May 8.—The separate school board met last night when a question was brought up affecting the accuracy of a statement made at a previous meeting by the reverend chairman Vicar General Rooney. D. P. Cahill and other members of the board blocked business at every point and defied the ruling of the chairman. Father Rooney requested that the police be sent for, but no one went for them. Finally on a division Father Rooney was upheld. Mr. Cahill's friends blocked business again, and scene followed scene until finally the board broke up in the wildest disorder.

The Blending of Life.

And death is one of the mysterious functions of the human organism. There are constantly battling two rival elements; the one throwing off waste and effete matter to build up and sustain—life. It is when the system grows sluggish, when the effete and dead particles are not eliminated and remain to clog life's channels, that Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butternut render greatest service. They cleanse the system, restore the liver to a healthy action, correct morbid secretions, renew the springs of life by making digestion more perfect, and proved by use the most perfect family medicine in existence. Accept no substitute for Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butternut. At druggists and dealers in medicine.

An Idea.

A beautiful wife most men desire. As fair as the flowers of May. For beauty is something we all admire. Though its but skin deep, folks say. One man delights in a form of grace. Another loves sparkling eyes. One finds his face in an innocent face. Another for red lips sighs. On a slender girl one's heart is set. Of a stout another is fond. One gives his heart to a bright brunette. Another one loves a blonde. But though in these varied styles I see What other men's hearts may win, Another I love. The girl for me Is the girl with the dimple chin. Boston Courier.

Holloway's Ointment.

Go where you may, in every country and in all climes persons will be found who have a ready word of praise for this ointment. For chaps, chafes, sores, bruises and sprains, it is an invaluable remedy; for bad legs, bad breasts, and piles, it may be confidently relied upon for effecting a sound and permanent cure. In cases of puffed ankles, erysipelas, and rheumatism, Holloway's Ointment gives the greatest comfort by reducing the inflammation, cooling the blood, soothing the nerves, adjusting the circulation, and expelling the impurities. This ointment should have a place in every nursery. It will cure all those manifold skin affections, which, originating in childhood, gain strength with the child's growth.

From Ocean to Ocean.

Fishermen and miners in Nova Scotia, mechanics and farmers in Ontario and Quebec, hunters and trappers in the Territories, and gold miners in British Columbia, use and praise Hagyard's Yellow Oil, the great internal and external remedy for all pain. It cures rheumatism, neuralgia, sore throat and croup, and is the reliance of thousands.

"I Was Suffering."

Says S. S. Showfelt, of Kingsley, Mar., "from weakness and loss of appetite, with a severe headache, and could scarcely walk. My first bottle of Burdock Blood Bitter enabled me to walk about the house, and when I had taken the second bottle I found myself entirely cured."

Severely Burned.

"I burnt my hand severely, and did not know what to do till a friend ran in with some Hagyard's Yellow Oil and applied it, and it drew out the pain and healed it in a few days. I would not be without it." Mary Lepard, 50 Cecil street, Toronto.
