Half a bar, half a bar, Half a bar onward! Into an awful ditch, Choir and Precentor hitch, Into a mess of pitch,

They led the Old Hundred. Trebles to right of them, Tenors to left of them, Basses in front of them, Bellowed and thundered. Oh! That Precentor's look, When the sopranos took Their own time and hook

Screached all the trebles here, Boggled the tenors there, Raising the parson's hair, While his mind wandered; Theirs not to reason why-This psalm was pitched too high; Theirs but to gasp and cry-Out the Old Hundred. Trebles to right of them, Tenors to left of them, Basses in front of them,

Bellowed and thundered. Stormed they with shout and yell, Not wise they sang, nor well, Drowning the sexton's bell, . While all the church wondered.

Dire the Precentor's glare, Flashed the pitchfork in air, Sounding fresh keys to bear Out the Old Hundred. Swiftly he turn'd his back, Reach'd he his hat from rack, Then from the screaming pack Himself he sundered. Tenors to right of him, Trebles to left of him, Discords behind him Bellowed and thundered. Oh, the wild howls they wrought; Right to the end they fought! Some tune they sang, but not, Not the Old Hundred. - [Andre's Journal.
