A SHORT ROUTE.

A correspondent writes to the Globe, Saturday Matinee at 2:30 p.m. to point out that a shorter route between marked out, can be had by starting HUCHED. and Ottawa Railway crosses the Kings. ton and Pembroke, and following a April 18. straight line to Carleton Place. Keep. to the north it would cross the Mississippi at Appleton, the C.P.R. below Ball's Corners, and so on to connect with the Canada Atlantic at Ottawa. The saving in distance of a few miles Cobourgs vs. Kingstons would be of small account if there were not a prospect of traffic. The correspondent, however, assures us that the country through which the proposed new line would pass is rich in minerals, and it would, when built, command all Perth.
