INSURANCE CO'Y.

Ong of the best Insurance Companies doing RATES OF INSURAN. E as low as any safe office. INSUBANCE GRANTED On City and Farm Residences, for Three years, at moderate premiure.

THOMAS BAIGGS Kingston, Jan. 21st

AGENT FOR The Equitable Life Assurance Society, on account of the rot, is not expected to Ot New York

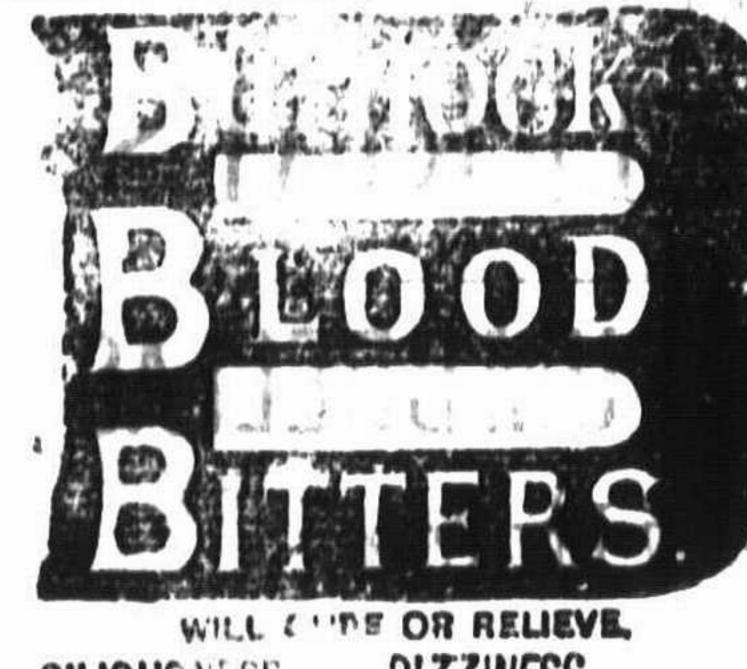

COMPANY, OF TORONTO.

Etnalosurance Company, or nartford, Cond those of any other Company, and it has an un-blemished record of 63 years. oril, 1682. JAMES SWIFT, Agent.

Total Invested Funds upwards of £2,894,000

W. H. GODWIN, Agent for Kingston. OFFICE-BRITISH WHIG.

DIZZINESS, ERYSIPELAS SALTRHEUN

THE STOMACH,

the treatment does not effect a cure. Guarantees is-sued only by W. J. WILSON, Druggist Kingston, Out June 18th treating and a Free Bottle of my infallible remedy. Give Ixtreme on I Post Office. It conts you nothing for a trial containing 30 Pilis, 22 cents, bor sale by all druggis so Heware of counterfeits and imitations. The genuise

A BIGOFFER To introduce them 1,000 Belf-Operating Washing Machines. you want one send us your name, P.O. and express office at once. The National Co., 21 Dey St, N.Y.

PROCLAMATION Toronto Flour Store 61 Brock Street.

BEST QUALITY CROWN JEWEL, BUDA AND FAMILY FLOUR, CHEAP FOR CASH. of all kinds. Farm Produce taken in Exchange

March 28th

Have removed their Stables from the City and to the Justice of the claim."—Major Menars. 11. "You promise nothing but what you fully carry out."—Rev. Wie. Nichotson. 12. "You been the living image of that doll, taking life easily on its journey downward to the pret-tiest of tombs, in a burial ground where the filled and exceeded all the promises of your myrtles and roses grew all the year round.

Is a professional man at Having followed it in the Old Country for years.

He has proper machinery, and is prepared to Bystem seemed to operate as a Mental Tonio."— Recute the work on shortest notice.

BRADLEY, Chartered Accountant, 16. "Your perhaps not badly made, but were certainly bedly worn. Morally, as well as physically, Apply to 310 Enri St., Kingston. there were is of us wish me to express to you It must be said of Lady Lydiard that her out their hearty thanks. I have not the least doubt to read side.

DYEING WORKS.

The Finest ale in Canada. Jones' Tonsorial Parlor

THE KINGSTON MARKETS The Display of Easter Mont-Big Deckine in l'oth Butter and Eggs.

Kingston, April 21.-The butchers have Easter beef on Good Friday. About one worth from 4c to 5c per lb, live weight. The price of meat, therefore, remains unchanged Beef from 9c to 124 per lb.; mutton, 8c to 10c per lb.; pork, 7e to 10c per lb; veal, 4e

If the holders of potatoes find fatter seed-ing, that they have plenty of the tubers on hand, they will rush them into the market and undoubtedly cause a panic. At present The crop to be planted, principality WEST'S SEN FREE ASSUREANCE of this years' growth, quoted at from 40c to Butter has taken a decline, and for the next few months will continue to range very low. Last Saturday the fresh article was more plentiful, and the price dropped from 30c to 25c per lb., and can to-day be bought at lower figures. The papers are actively discussing the oleomargarine None of this compound can be traced here. turned the ink to a brownish hue. The let-The customs officers says it has never been The leading Fire Insurance Company on the continent. Its Annual Fremium Receipts in entered as an imported article. There have anada and the United States are larger than been samples shown here, but no quantity margarine. Our eye fell on the following, which gives a lucids description: "Accord ing to the numerous patents issued to pro tect the rights of imitation butter makers, the following ingredients enter into its com position: Cow fat, mutton suet, sour milk acid, carbolic acid, sugar, milk, bicarbonate of soda, sal soda, potash, salt, pepsin from cows, udders, saltpetre, borax, butyric ether, stomachs of pigs and sheep, flour, slippery elm bark, glucose, gelatine, vaseline, annatto and natural butter. "Imitation butter is designated under the following names: Oleomargarme, Suine, Butterine, etc. "Oleomargarine, properly speaking, is a mixture of oil extracted from the caul fat of oxen, vegetable oils, and lactic acid, whole is churned in sour milk or cream. "Suine would be better called swine but ter, and the name only would make a hog It generally consists of 60 per cent. of lard rendered at a low temperature and 40 per cent. of genuine butter. "Butterine is made out of some kind o fat and greese mixed with other substances and sometimes with butter." Would you like to eat such stuff as that? Eggs tottering to the fall. The price, not the eggs, has been effectually broken. tations for to 120 per dozen. The supply has passed and not a word of answer has by attending our cheup sale. Lemons and oranges 25c per dozen; bananas Malaga grapes, 25c per lb.; figs and dates,

To cure any case. With each order received by us for | the grain markets of Chicago the cereal has one time yet the figures have dropped back | to their old places. Wheat, according to old philosophers isn't what it used to be. The prices offered here are: Wheat, 70 to 75c.; rye, 55; Oats, 3oc; peas 6oc; barley

> To Whom it May Concern. Geo. W. Platt, of Picton; says he cas confidently recommend Burdock Blood Bit- sestitute condition of Mrs. Tollmidge and her ter to any who suffers from loss of appetite, children, "thrown helpless on the mercy of remedy having cured him, after severe ness from the same complaints.

DROFESSOR LOISETTE'S DISCOVERIES. NEVER FORGETTING—unlike mnemonics. Lost ject of the artist's widow from further conmemories restored—the werst made good, and sideration until the steward returned, and the best better. Any book learned in one read gave her mind to a question of domestic fing. Speaking without notes. A self-maching terest which lay nearer to her heart. I method for all subjects. Invaluable to the Legal Medical, Clerical, Musical, Dramatic, and al favorite dog had been ailing for some time other Professions and Businesses. The Lesson

HIPMOITAGETAGE CIMATIONALL PROSPECTUS POST FREE. in all parts of the world, and to Private Never Forgetting & Cure for Mind-Wandering 1. "His method is Physiological and Scientiff tario. Free trial package sent by mail, prepaid, n re cent of a three cent stamp, W. J. Wilson, Drugg et ther regarded as a Device for memorising, or in Kingston, Ont. its more important aspect as a System of Memand improved my Natural Memory."-How. -THE WEEKLY BUDGET 6. "There is this all-REV. L. ALLBUTT. 8. "By his Bystem I have aland I owe my success in a great measure to the impartial history must acknowledge, on the

By WILKIE COLLINS.

PART THE PIRST.

THE DISAPPEARANCE.

"The Right Hon. Lord Lydiard"-and were A firmer asked us the other day all signed in the same way-"Your affectionate cousin, James Tollmidge." Judged by Tollmidge must have possessed one great merit as a letter-writer—the merit of brevity. He will weary nobody's patience, if he is allowed to have a hearing. Let him, therefore, be permitted, in his own highflown way, to First letter: "My statement, as your lord-

the country, and I had a wife and children to certainly have waited until I had saved a little money before I ventured on the serious | Canada. expense of taking a house and studio at the west end of London. Your lordship, I posttively declare, encouraged me to try the experiment without waiting. And here I am, unknown and unemployed, a helpless artist, lost in London, with a sick wife and hungry children and bankruptcy staring me in the face. On whose shoulders does this dreadful responsibility rest! On your lordship's!" Second letter: "After a week's delay you favor me, my lord, with a curt reply. I can be equally curt on my side. I indignantly deny that I or my wife have ever presumed to use your lordship's name as a means c recommendation to sitters without your permission. Some enemy has slandered us. claim, as my right, to know the name of that reached me from your lordship. It matters only use the best kind paying for it from Lydiard (how, I can not imagine); and the at 90c per cwt.; chops $1.20 to $1.25 per Be it so. I can fight my way upward, my f her ladyship's regret. I refer you, my Lord Lydiard, to that day!" assertions relating to herself for the second both hands to tear them up, hesitated, and papers that had not been arranged since Lord Lydiard's death.

"The idiot!" said her ladyship, thinking of in my husband's lifetime; I never even knew that he was really related to Lord Lydiard,

She looked, as she put that question to herself, at an open newspaper thrown on the table, which announced the death of "that accomplished artist, Mr. Tollmidge, related, it is said, to the late well-known connoisseur, Lord Lydiard." In the next sentence the writer of the obituary notice deplored the and general debility, that the world." Lady Lydiard stood by the table, with her eyes on those lines, and saw but too plainly the direction in which they pointed the direction of her check book.

Turning toward the fireplace, she rang the I can do nothing in this matter," she thought to herself, "until I know whether report about Mrs. Tollmidge and her family is to be depended Moody come the servant appeared at the door. (otherwise her ladyship's steward) had not come back. Lady Lydiard dismissed the subterest which lay nearer to her heart. Her past, and no report of him had reached her that morning. She opened a door near the fireplace, which led, through a little corridor hung with rare prints, to her own boudoir. "Isabel!" she called out, "how is Tommie?"

A fresh young voice answered from behind the curtain which closed the farther end of the corridor, "No better, my lady." A low growl followed the fresh young voice, and added (in dog's language), "Much worse, my lady-much worse!" Lady Lydiard closed the door again, with a compassionate sigh for Tommie, and walked slowly to and fro in her spacious drawing room, waiting for the steward's return. Accurately described, Lord Lydiard's widow was short and fat, and perilously near her and that of Prof. Loisette, that, while the former are arbitrary and artificial, the latter is en- out paying a compliment, that she looked younger than her age by ten years at least. "-THE PROPLE'S PRIMED, Dundee Her complexion was of that delicate pink Gats, Bran, Shorts, and Feed reading—a feat possible only to your Pupils, and tinge which is sometimes seen in old women easy and expeditious to all who are proficient with well-preserved constitutions. Her eyes in your System—is an inestimable boon to all (equally well-preserved) were of that hard light-blue color which wears well, and does ready learned one book in one reading, and 1 not wash out when tried by the test of tears. intend to learn many more in the same way." Add to this her short nose, her plump cheeks SIR EDWARD H. MEREDYTH, Bart. 9. "Every that set wrinkles at deflance, her white hair Kingston Kingston BROS. day I am a proof to myself that your Method is dressed in stiff little curls, and, if a doll could never Forgetting."—L'ABBE MALATRAY. 10. grow old, Lady Lydiard at sixty would have These being her ladyship's personal merits.

aprovement which your System has list of her defects, a total want of tact and effected, both in my retentiveness and soumen." taste in her attire. The lapse of time since my success at a late examination (of the Instiwales, held in December, 1884, when I obtained short, church in column in column and short, church in church and short, church in church and short and short, clumsy figure in colors that were far place in order of marit among 64 condresses, badly chosen as to their hues, were re not the least doubt | ward side was her worst side. The anomalies that they received a benefit that will belp them all their lives."—Very Reverend Joss Monais, by her dress were matched by the anomalies of B.J. 17. "Your Method makes life more pleasant her character. There were moments when to me, and study is no longer hard labour, but a | she felt and spoke as became a lady of rank, in the season of with ease and rapidity, matters which were nt. | and spoke as might have become the cook in terly beyond my power to remember before I the kitchen. Beneath these superficial incommentation of the Bysters. — Charles Mancies, the kitchen. Beneath these superficial incomments. H.B., F.R.C.S. 19. "I shall not cease expressing sistencies the great heart, the essentially true my admiration of the rare ability and selves. In the trivial intercourse of society she wants of Brain Workers of every lind."—De, E. BRITH.

But when a serious emergency tried the metal

FORTHE CHILDREN.

For the Misses and Children we are better prepared than usual. We are trying to His position in Lady Lydiard's househole make Children's Shoes a specialty. We take extra care to buy Boots that will fit the foot, something too often overlooked in wear for small children. Bring the little ones in, and one word for it, you will soon flad there is no other place to do your trading. complete stock of Spring Heel Boots always on hand.

HAINES & LOCKETT. April 17.

SPRING GOODS DAILY

Just received 2 Cases of Checked Ginghams Dress Goods, a fine assortn ent, st 10, 12, 15c. per Also a fine assortment of Embroidered Net Laces at prices lower than ever before. Also a fine assortment of Scotch, English and Canadian Tweeds at Prices to compete with Received the Spring Carpets, which I ask the ladies to call and examine. These Carpets will be sold at prices that will a tonish you.

Staple and Faney Dress Goods, Carpet Warehouse.

Friends and customers surgrised at the wonderful change made in the Old Store but not more so than at the Large Stock of New Spring Goods just arrived and opened out for sale, in every way complete.

There is no use for me to advertise prices, but just to state that our Goods are shown with pleasure and samples given. To hear our prices is to give an order. Many who have never dealt with the old firm of Thos. Moore & Son imagine their

I was doing very well as a portrait painter in | have made, and to buyers advantage to examine our goods before purchasing elsewhere Trade has already commenced to boom and we would advise our old and new oushad been left to decide for myself, I should tomers to call early and choose from one of the finest assortments of Tweed in Central somebody else. Where did you go next?"

> MCOERE. 50 BROCK STREET. Successor to Thos. Moore & Son.

CLEARING BALI

All our surplus stock must go. Special Reductions in Ladies' French Kid and Oalf Kid Butftoned Boots. Cents' Hand-sewed Laced and Elastic.

Every Line in Stock is marked down. You will save from 25c. to a $1.50 a Pair 141 Princess Street.

To Call and Inspect That have just arrived.

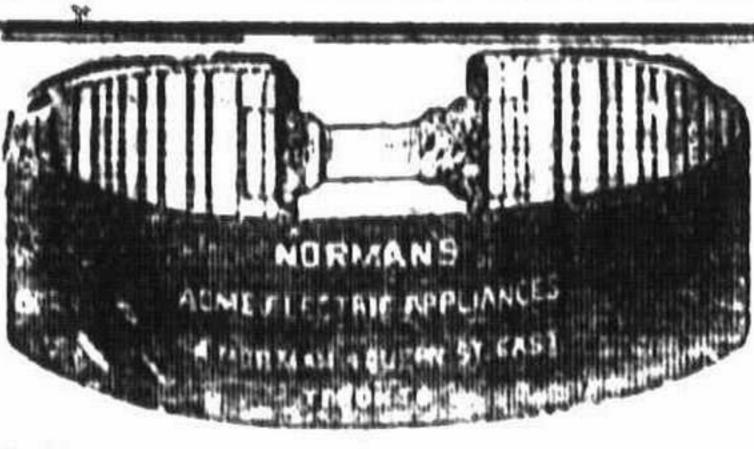

threw them back into the cabinet drawer in which she had discovered them, among other For Spring Suits and Overcoats, of the Latest Designs and sort of person that I don't like. Let's get Best Manufacture.

We will guarantee perfect satisfaction to all who will provide for everything—if it could only be has for some time been seriously ill, is now recovering—Mr. W. Morrison who had his favor us with their Spring Orders, as we use the very best till I found his letters. What is to be done trimmings and employ the Best Cutter in Canada.

THE PILLS

Purifies the Blood, correct all Disorders of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys and Bowels, They invigorate and restore to health Debilitated Constitutions, and are invaluable in all Complaints incidental to Females of all ages.

OINTMENT In an infallible remedy for Bad Legs, Bad Breasts, Old Wounds, Sores and Ulcers. For Sore Throats, Bronchtis, Coughs, Colds, Gout, Rieumatism, Glandwar Swellings and all Bain Disea. | dignity, as usual. "Lies, Moody, for which The Pills and Oinsment are manufactured only at 78 New Oxford St., (late 533 Oxford St., I would have done it myself if his lordship London and are sold by all Vendors of Medicine throughout the civilized world with directions for use in almost every language. Purchasers should look to the label on the pots and boxes. If the address is not 533, Ox-Street, London) they are spurious. For Sale by HENRY WADE, Kingston.

RELIEF IS CERTAIN

AND GUARANTEED TO ALL

NERVOUS DISEASES,

Such as Rheumatism, Piles, Asthma, Colds, Ner

aches, Liver and Luny Complaints, Lame Back

NORMANS

ELECTRO-OURATIVE BEI.TS, ETC., E10

4 Queen St. East, Toronto.

IS THE BEST

270 BROCK STREET.

PEMOVAL.

ACENT.

s Consultation and Circulars Free.

and all Pains and Soreness, are immediately

SECURED TO-DAY AT

THE - CHINA - TEA - HOUSE, desk is on the other table. Bring it here,

This requires no blending, and is put up half pound original packages. I have also on hand a choice assortment other kinds of Black and Japan Teas.

A choice assortment of Breakfast Cercals also Breakfast and Rolled Bacon. A call solicited by Nov. 27.

STEEL PENS advertising in American Comes to many a feeling of lassitude and weakness, the appetite grows fitful and ex-STATIONERS THROUGHOUTTHE WORLD Newspaper Advertising Bureau, 10 Spruce St., New York.

10ots, for 100-Page Pamphlet

In Bulk, Cans and Shell.

Also Messina and Florida Oranges and Lemons. Russets, Greenings, Spice and Spitzenburgs Malaga Grapes, Banannas. Nuts of all nds. Try tt and you will use no A choice selection of New York Confectionery forth, says: "I purchased one bottle of baffled all treatment notification of the same of the

KINGSTON ACADEMY, FOR YOUNG MEN & BOYS, est lot of Cages ever offered most available and complete manner, use of pains, inflammation, sore throat, rheumatwo blocks west of Post Office.

PRINCESS STREET. ROBERT SHAW has removed his office from Princess Street to Welli gton Street, near RHMOVAL. Has removed his Residence and Office to the Corner of WELLINGTON AND WILLIAM STS.

Jan. 15th, 1866.

of pains, inflammation, sore throat, rheumatism, and all painful complaints and injuries.

particularly winning smile. The whole look of the man, in spite of his habitual reserve, as her almoner and secretary as well as her letters on business, paid her bills, engaged authorized to borrow books from her library, and was served with his meals in his own room. His parentage gave him claims to to rank as a gentleman. His father had and had died in exile abroad, a broken-heart-kept O may we meet Him face to face. in 'the world, but adverse fortune him from one employment to another, until O may sweet buds of promise bloom, he abandoned the struggle, bade a last fare- (In every heart where sin finds room) well to the pride of other days, and accepted the position considerately and delicately offered to him in Lady Lydiard's house. had now no near relations living, and he had never made many friends. In the intervals of occupation he led a lonely life in his little among the women in the servants' hall, considering his personal advantages and the opportunities which must surely have been Let heavenly rays our actions gild, thrown in his way, that he had never tempted fortune in the character of a married man. Robert Moody entered into no explanations on that subject. In his own sad and quiet way he continued to lead his own sad and quiet life. The women all failing, from the And let the Eastern sun shine o'er handsome housekeeper downward, to make the smallest impression on him, consoled themselves by prophetic visions of the future dictively that "his time would come." "Well," said Lady Lydiard, "and what have you done?" "Your ladyship seemed to be anxious about the dog," Moody answered, in the low tone which was habitual to him. "I went relations with the sex, and predicted vinof the sentence with her hand. "Never mind the surgeon. We must find wished me to say that he will have the pleas steam mill.—Booth & Co's woolen factory soft Wood $2,50 per Cord. ure of waiting on you-"

"Pass over the lawyer, Moody. I want to know about the painter's widow. Is it true | Preparations are being made for the incomthat Mrs. Tollmidge and her family are left | ing of the Scott Act, 1st May. May it prove in helploss poverty?" "Not quite true, my lady. I have seen the clergyman of the parish, who takes an interest in the case-"

Lady Lydiard interrupted her steward for asked, sharply. "Certainly not, my lady. I followed my her daughter," Moody answered. "The dif- last week and realized enough to pay the names to begin with, and to start a subscripback to the widow and her sons. How much do they want?" "A subscription of £500, my lady, would ing asserted herself in those noble terms, she spoiled the effect of her own outburst generosity by dropping to the sordid view of the subject in her next sentence. "Five pounds is a good bit of money, though; isn't it, Moody!" "It is indeed, my lady." Rich and genposal to pay the whole subscription took the steward by surprise. Lady Lydiard's quick passing in his mind. "You don't quite understand my position n this matter," she said. "When I read the newspaper notice of Mr. Tollmidge's death, searched among his lordship's papers to see if they really were related. I discovered some letters from Mr. Tollmidge, which showed me that he and Lord Lydiard were One of those letters contains some very painful statements, reflecting most untruly and unjustly on my conduct-lies, ir short," her ladyship burst out, losing her Mr. Tollmidge deserved to be horsewhipped. had told me at the time. No matter; it's useless to dwell on the thing now," she continum, ascending again to the forms of expression which became a lady of rank. 'This unhappy man has done me a gross injustice; my motives may be seriously misudged if I appear personally in communi-anonymously in their present trouble, spare them the exposure of a public subscrip tion, and I do what I believe his lordship would have done himself if he had lived. Moody, and let me return good for evil while I'm in the humor for it." Moody obeyed in silence. Lady Lydiard

"Take that to the banker's and bring back a £500 note," she said. "I'il inclose it to the clergyman as coming from 'an unknown friend.' And be quick about it I am only a fallible mortal, Moody. Don't leave me time enough to take the stingy view of £500,"

Moody went out with the check. No delay money; the banking house was hard by, in decided on occupying her mind in the generous-direction by composing her anonymous letter to the clergyman. She had just taken a sheet of note paper from her desk when a servant appeared at the door, announcing a

"Mr. Felix Sweetsir." (To be continued)

by addressing balance is ill preserved, neglect only in. acting, and in consequence the nutritive creases the trouble, weakness grows apace, and with the advent of the hot season, system unprovereshed and debilitated affords but slight protection against the inroad more serious diseases. The tonic and nutritive properties of Wine, Beef and Iron, with Quinine, makes it of great value in all forms of debility, loss of appetite, lassitude, weakness. Wine Beef and Iron with Quinine is sold only at Polson's drug store, 50c and $100

> A Successful Resuit. Mr. Frank Hendry, writing from Seasystem regulator the result of taking B.B.B. is always successful.

the proper action of the stomach are re-The handsomest and cheap- quired. To insure that end, in the cheapest difficulties. Sold by W. J. Wilson, drug-McGregor's Speedy Cure for dyspepsia and Subjects taught—English, Mathematics, Latin and Hook-Keeping.

Night School opens TUESDAY, Oct. 20th.

E. RYAN, Principal

in Kingston just opened out impure blood. There is no purer, saler or more reliable remedy in existence for indigestion, dyspensia, costiveness, etc. Ask your neighbor or any person who has used it. Sold by A. P. Chown, druggist. Trial

> One of the most valuable features of Hagyard's Yellow Oil is that unlike ordinary taken internally as well as applied in cases

GOOD FRIDAY.

With cruel thorns his head is crown'd Then Sinai quakes with awful sound,
The Man God is crucified.

Yet man goes on his path of sin Forgetting Calvary's tree; Forgetting that our sins He bore. That we might live for evermore From every sorrow free.

With cruel spears His side they pierce, Yet sweet smiles His face adorn : "Eloi, Eloi," the Saviour's cry. "Eloi lamma Sabacthani," His beart with fierce pain is turn

When our race on earth is run, To praise Israel's Holy One. How can we wound Him day by day, When we know He bore our pain . Then let contritions fount o'erflow,

And sin-stain'd souls made white as snow,

A heavenly crown to gain. And like Spring blossoms let our hearts Rise to Him who died to-day, That Christ's promise may be fulfill'd To dwell with His saints above.

"I am the Way, the Truth, and Life," Let thy pray'rs like incense rise. A land where the redeemed adore Christ the living sacrifice. ELOISE A. SKIMINGS. Goderich, April 21.

THE VICINITY AEWS.

What the "British Whig's" Correspondents Have to Say on a Variety of Subjects.

Lady Lydiard waved away the conclusion the township Board of Health covers the Great Reduction in Prices. idea completely. - J. McLean & Co. will open about Easter Sunday their merchant tailoring establishment,—E. W. Benjamin, Yar-"To your ladyship's lawyer. Mr. Troy ker, is removing the engine from the burned Hard Wood $3.75 per Cord. has resumed operation. -There is an abund. | Mill Wood $2,00 per Cord. ance of fish being taken from our streams.a blessing to many.—Scrvice per appointment in the R. C. Church was dispensed Shingles, &c. with owing to the illness of Fr. McWilliams.

"You have not mentioned my name?" she some are planting potatoes and small seed. The farmers say the ground will be hard to work this spring, the last fall of snow and instructions, and described you as a benevo- rain having packed the ground pretty hard. lent person in search of cases of real dis- The meadows and strawberries look well. tress. It is quite true that Mr. Tollmidge has They are not heaved out of the ground at all. died, leaving nothing to his family. But the | The young trees have escaped the ravages of the mice. I don't see one tree injured .-The bees have done remarkably well this "Is that enough to live on, Moody?" her season, with the weather very favorable. The bee keepers are hopeful of a good "Enough, in this case, for the widow and | season.—The Ladies' Aid held another social and to start the two sons in life. They are —The young folks spent a very enjoyable No. 4 Coal, Soft Coal or Blanksmith's Coal, go The week; also an evening spent at Mr. Rowes'. clergyman proposes to get a few influential | The death of a respected neighbor has caused great sorrow and surprise in our vil-

grains are looking well. There are indications of good yields of fall wheat and rye. business of our cheese factory were ap pointed on Thursday evening of last week. | quality on hand. -Mr. Bawden's letters are attracting considerable notice in this neighborhood.—Mr. recovering.-Mr. W. Morrison, who had his arm fractured during the past winter, is now the subscription out of my own purse." Hav- able to resume work. Compulsory leisure he found a heavy burden. - Mr. Wilmot Guess is now a resident of this place.

April 21.—Seldom has the spring season opened more propitiously. The effect of the late storm has passed away, and the helds are being clothed in verdure, -Farm- | Yard Nor 1 - Ontario Street. ers here have commenced sowing. - The ice has nearly disappeared from Loughboro Lake. - We hope some enterprising indiviperception instantly detected what was dual, having the wellfare of American and Canadian tourists at least, will shortly put in an appearance.—This portion of Loughboro Lake possessing unrivalled natural beauty, may yet be converted into a grand summer resort for the tourist who wishes to escape the hurly-burly of the fashionable watering place. - A Vanalstine, of the Queen's Hotel, leaves during the coming menth for the city.—Several new buildings are being erected in and around Battersea. - Mr. Lake purposes starting a temperance hotel in the stand vacated by Mr. Vanalstine.—We extend sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Lake who mourn the loss of a son killed in the recent cyclone at Sauk Rapids.—The teachers have a few holidays now as the association and Easter vacation immediately follow each other.—The cheese factory on which vast improvements have been made will soon be

Joy in Every Drop. This may be truly said of Polson's Nerviline, the greatest pain remedy of the age. It brings comfort to the weary sufferer when failure has attended the use of every known remedy. Nerviline is an absolute cure for all kinds of pain, internal, external or local. Purchase a 10 cent sample bottle and try this great remedy, Nerviline, nerve pain cure. Don't forget the name at any drug

A Ludy's Hair Saved from Destruction, She writes: "After being almost driven frantic about my hair loosening and turning tutions with perfect safety. Its great succe gray, I heard of Dr. Dorenwend's "German | arising from its being intrinsically THE BEE Hair Magic," and to my great surprise made my hair come in thicker and stronger than ever before, and also gave it a bright. healthy appearance." Testimonials by the hundred show the good results of the "Hair St. James street. Left alone, Lady Lydiard Magic." For sale by J. G. King, Market Square, and A. P. Chown, 124 Princess St., druggists, agents for Kingston.

The Lost Restored. Ira McNeill, of Peplar Hill, Ont., states that his brother aged 12, was afflicted with a lost his voice. Hagyard's Pecteral Balsam cured the cold and restored his voice in the most perfect manner. He says it cannot be exceeded as a remedy for coughs and colds

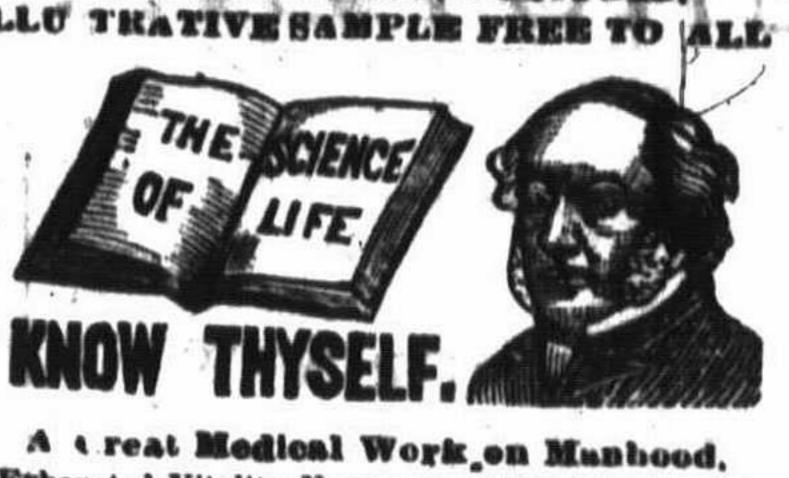

Richard Fuller, Church street, Toronto, on the recommendation of the city treasurer. who had experienced the benefit of Giles' iniment and Pills in being cured of rheumatism, procured a supply. He suffered from rheumatic gout, commenced with soreness of the muscles of the knee joint, afterwards pain and swelling of the ir step and ankles. and lameness of the muscles of the right foot. Was unable to walk. Kidneys were also affected. Dr. Giles' Liniment Iodide Ammonia gave immediate relief. Sold by Compelied to Yield. Mrs. Salter, of Franktown, Ontario, was dock Blood Bitters ; 4 bottles cured her. All chronic seres and humors of the blood must

In order to withstand cholera and such It is infallible for coughs, colds, consump-ike epidemics a perfect purity of blood and tion, bronchitis, influenza, hoarseness,

West's World's Wonder or family Lini-

A STANDARD MEDICAL WORK FOR YOUNG AND MIDDLE-AGED MEN ONLY OR BY MAIL, POSTPAID,

The Science of Life is worth more to the young and middle-aged men of this generation than all the gold mines of California and the silver mines of Nevada combined.—S. F. CHRONICLE.

The Science of Life points out the rocks and quicksands on which the constitution and hopes of many a young man have been fatally wrecked,—MANCHESTER MIRROR. The Science of Life is of greater value than all the medical works published in this country for the past The Science of Life is a superb and masterly treatise on nervous and physicial debility.—DETROIT FREE PRESS. There is no member of society to whom The Science of Life will not be useful, whether youth, parent, Address the Peabody Medical Institute, or Dr. W. H. Parker, No. 4 Bulfinch Street, Boston, Mass., who may

Wood and Coal.

S'MGIIIN'S

FOR SALE

All kinds of Lumber, Building Timber, Laths, The only place in the city having three Machines worked by steam for sawing Cordwood.

-TELEPHONE COMMUNICATION. April 21.—Gardening has commenced, and W. B. AND S. ANGLIN.

and SOFT WOOD

THE DRIEST, CHEAPEST and BEST Hard Maple and Beach Cordwood, Oak, Birch, Ash, Blim or Hern lock Cordwood, Sewed or

. CRAWFORD & CO. N H.-Orders left at the Grocery Store of Jas. attention. Es Telephone communicati

THE BEST IN THE MARKET Becure delivery before broken weather sets in. Objet Office-St. Lawrence Wharf. Branch Office-Corner King and Clarence Sta. opposite British American Hotel, PROMPT & SATISFACTORY DELIVET Y A SPECIALT Coal all under pover and well screened.

CAN ALWAYS BE OBTAINED AT

Delivered at any part of the town.

Miscellaneous

is a Pure Fruit ACID POWDER at contains neither alum, lime, nor ammont and may be used by the most delicate const ly adapted to the wants of the kitchen, has excited envious imitations of its name and appear-

No addition to orvariation from the simple name. COK'S FRIEND IS GENUINE.

Trade Mark on Every Package

Steam Rock Drill and Mining Repair constantly on hand. Cheese Factory Boil ers and Fittings. Also a number New sed heeds hand Entines and Boilers.

t and lung

A. SENERLONEN

the skill of all other physicians a specialty. Such to ed successfully without an instance of failure. Mer BRITISH WHIG, Kingston, Ont.

LUMBER, WOOD and Chal YARD

Planing Lumber $2 per M Sawing Lumber 83 per M.

If You Want

OH IF LOU WANT

tario Streets-Fost of Clarence

Wholesale and Retail. . 2. Chrence St. Whari. " 3-bi. Lawrence What

JAS. SWIFT.

Sept. 4, '84. .

into a quiet, peaceful slumber? W. J. Wil. E. FOUGERA & CO., N.Y., AGENTS FOR