M. T. Co. and its Exemption By law-The Case Adjourned-Taking the Evidence.

The special committee appointed by council to consider the M. T. Co.'s case the advisability of proceeding against them on an alleged violation its exemption by law, was called for o'clock yesterday. But four members of the committee put in an appearance-Alds. McKelvey, Harty, J. Wilson and Clements. The clerk was first request ed to read the letter written by Mr. B M. Britton and laid before the council at its last meeting, the gist of which was that the company would resist the suit for the penalty of $2,000, etc., but that a more reasonable demand would be

He said they could read over the evidence they had carefully, and judge whether they had evidence sufficient to warrant them going on with the lawsuit. There was a difference of opinion as to whether the solicitor had proper authority for proceeding at all; some thought be had not, but his own opinion was that he had.

Some discussion occurred in regard to the instructions which Mr. Agnew had in commencing legal proceedings against city council. the company. The report of the old committee was understood to be all that the solicitor had to work upon, and the question was asked. Is that enough? Ald. McKelvey-Some members of the council think not.
