The Times says Mr. Chamberlain and Sir Chas. Sidney Smith, of Cobourg, was present. He is an aged gentleman. To make an address costs him considerable effort. He said he had learned that he was advertised to speak in Kingston some days ago. Of course he did not appear, as he had not known snything about the matter. The night he was to speak here he was in Hamilton. He then went on to relate how he found salvation. For 55 years he served sin. About five years ago he began to search for salvation. And he found it. The speaker then alluded to the crosses he had to bear in his lifetime. Once he was burned out and had $60,000 worth of property destroy. ed; upon it he had only about $5,000 insurance. He was thrown out of a buggy twice, and was so badly injured both times that it was thought he would not survive. But he rallied. He was last hurt on New Year's Day. He was driving a fiery horse and it ran away and threw him apon the road. It was during his sickness that he saw the light. It was through the instrumentality of little Captain Emma Clark, late of Kingston, of the Saved Army, that he was
