BOTTLED ALE

IN CENTRAL CANADA.

Since the first of the year we have made extensive alterations and additions to our Ale cellars, and we are now in a better position to offer Labatt's London month of January and the first of Feb. ruary was very hard on the Ale business In the very cold weather it was almost impossible to get the Ale well up, and when it was well up it was impossible to deliver it to people's houses without getting chilled. The weather is getting mild and we have our Ale in the finest order and condition and we can new deliver it without fear of getting chilled and giving the people a better and finer article than ever before. * A call from a descriminating public will convince sten, but of every Farmer in the three counties. "We beg to inform our customers and "the public of Kingston and adjoining " counties that at this season of the ' year our stock was never before so well assorted. As to prices we have nothing to say, we leave it to the peo-" ple, and to those who continually buy " from us. If any houses in this city, or ' in any other city, try to give better " value than we do all we have to say is "they must come to grief sooner or " later." We have made our business a "study and all pains are taken to have " everything in our establishment that " families require in Groceries and Pro-' visions. The quality of the goods can-" not be surpassed anywhere. 'As to the quality of our Coffee it's now becoming "a household talk, not only in this city " but by families at a distance, who say "it's very fine, both in strength and 'aroma. It is roasted on the premises " and great pains are taken to make it ' surpass anything in the market. The beans used are selected by ourselves from the best Maricaibo, Java and Ja. maica. We would respectfully ask those
