Specy Board of Governors.

Daily British Whig.

Cleveland will, in all probability, get the nomination of the Democratic state convention. Flower is not so strong as he was supposed to be, but the New Yorkers say his cause is improving and he may develop unexpected power. Cleveland, as governor of the state, has the benefit of a party lever, which at this juncture cannot be overestimated.

The new York Times, a most pronounced Republican paper up to the holding of the Chicago convention, was disgusted with the nomination of Blaine, and said that in the ensuing campaign it would act the part of a friend and physician. It now physics the party by boasting the nomination of Cleveland, and will further display its friendliness by helping to elect him if he is made the choice of the Democratic party.

A cable from Tangier as we go to press says eight French men of war and two large torpedo boats have arrived there. These produced great consternation. The Sultan has forbidden the passage inland of 2,000 rifles, which are now to be sent to the French. The Moors are greatly incensed against the Sultan, and in 1856 became his Speaker.
