The Editor, British What. Bear Sir.-In Tuesday evening WHIG I noticed among the items in the budget debate a proposition (made by a certain worthy alderman in explanation of a reduction of $500 made by the Fi nance Committee in the School Board estimates) that the school board trus tees should, if patriotic, and in sympathy with the committee in their efforts to avoid increased taxation, deprive of July by an excursion to and picnic the school children of their anticipated at Davy's Island and Stone Mills. pienic, and also of their prizes.

I could not help being struck by the sagacity displayed in robbing the children in order to provide funds for such items as are mentioned in the estimates under the head of contingencies, notably $210 for Mayor Livingston's portruit, &c.

In years past the amount necessary for such a mark of esteem was subscribed by the aldermen and friends of the gentlemen to be thus honored, it being generally understood that the future candidate for the mayoralty would be manic body, and that at some future pay $100 to anyone he can not yanquish elected (or elected) from the aldertime each might become the recipient in a controversy.
