> The state of the s TILLEY'S LONDON LOAN.

An attempt is being made by the ministerial press to show that the sale of 10e. Canadian 31 per cents at £91, 1s. 8d. 1s an excellent one, and more advantage-STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL, ous than the sales conducted by Sir Richard Cartwright in 1874 and 1876. This will be disputed by those who remember that Sir Richard floated the first 4 per cent. loan, and that the general rate of interest on colonial securities is lower now than it was ten years age. Deducting the usual allowances the sale of 31 per cents, payable in 25 years, is not better than £90—as nearly as possible 4 per cent.—and, besides the 4 per cent interest, Sir Leonard will have to pay at the expiration of the
