A Game of Base-ball at which there was Some Fine Play-Eleven Inings to Change a Tie.

Yesterday afternoon the most interest for a long time occurred in the cricket field- in the presence of a large number of people. The competing teams were those of Bath and St. Lawrence Clubs. Eleven innings were played, and but for numerous errors on the part of the lating for the battalion medal, made 47 ter the result might have been very dif. Kingston... ferent. The play was good, generally, but the most brilliant was that of Dolan and J. Little, of the St. Lawrence. O'Neil pitched fairly well, and Conway as catcher did admirably. The pitching for the visitors was done by E. Wemp and F. Howard, and they showed more skill than was expected. P. Nolan, the veteran umpire, was on hand and his decisions are regarded as fair. What he doesn't know about the game is not worth.
