He followed and overtook them just as she had the tenor "good-night" with her hand in his.

"I am very sorry, dear, that I missed you, and did not let it happen again. But his way home is in an opposite direction."

"I have already apologized. Won't you forgive me?" "I am old enough to take care of myself, and in the future I shall return the compliment."

"I am sorry to seem intrusive," he replied with equal calmness. "but it is a lonely road, and I have the right to inquire after your well-being."

"I know I could do it better than either of you," she said, looking at him with a steady gaze.

He lifted the child in his arms and carried him to where the others hurried to meet him.
