And still found the False with the True; I sought and the Human for Heaven. But caught a mere glumpse of its Blue; And I wept when the clouds of the Mortal Vested even that glimpes from my view. And I moaned 'mid the massw of men; I'll I knelt, long ago, at an after and I heard a voice call me :- since then walk down the Valley of Silence That hes far beyond mortal ken

Do you ask what I found in the Valley? Tis my Trysting Place with the Divine. And I fell at the feet of the Holy. And above a voice said : 'Be mine. And there arese from the depths of my spirit An echo - My heart shall be thine.

Do you ask how I live in the Valley ? I weep and I dream-and I pray But my tears are assument as the dewdrops That fall on the roses in May . And my prayer, like a perfume from Causers Ascendeth to God night and day.

to the bush of the Valley of Stience. I dream all the songs that I sing ; And the music fleats down the dim Valley, Till each finds a word for a wing, That to hearts, like the Dove of the Deluge, A message of Peace they may bring But far on the deep there are billows

That never shall break on the beach And I have heard songs in the Silence Health is Wealth That never shall float into speech ; And I have had dreame in the Valley Too lofty for language to reach. And I have seen Thoughts in the Valley Ah! me, how my spirit was stirred!

And they wear holy vails on their faces, Their footsteps can searcely be heard: They pass through the Valley like Virgins, Too pure for the touch of a word! To you ask me the place of the Valley. Ye hearts that are harrowed by Care? t heth afar between mountains, And God and His angels are there:

And one is the dark mount of Sorrow.

And one the bright mountain of Prayer !
