

The Bill incorporating the Ontario Society, which was drawn for second reading in the Dominion Parliament yesterday, was at the suggestion of Sir John A. Macdonald ordered to stand over. This is taken as an intimation that the Premier has succeeded in obtaining the withdrawal of the Bill.

The life of a New West Governor is not a happy one. Neither in the past nor in the future of the Canadian Territories, departments of the administration of Lieutenant-Governor Dewdney, want to be remembered with anything but the warmest and most affectionate of feelings. Some of the Indians threaten to poison them, others to have the eye-sockets of the settlers in the action. We hope for the future of the Territories and the settlers themselves, that no such lawless designs will be permitted to go into execution.

In his splendid reply in the House, Mr. Patterson quoted the saying of Sir Charles Tupper when Mr. Mackenzie was a surplus of $800,000. That the Government had no right to have a surplus if it had it should go out of it as soon as possible by lightening the taxes on the people. The Minister of Finance, too, had promised that when the surplus had increased to an aggregate of $5,000,000 he would only be glad to relieve the people of taxation. But there had been no $5,000,000, but $16,000,000 of a surplus during the last four years and still the grinding system of taxation was kept up. There was no ceasing of the burden on the necessaries of life. It would fall on the supporters of the Government judge between Sir Charles Tupper and the Minister of Finance. He would, however, give Sir Leonard Tilley credit for doing his best to make the expenditure of the country keep pace with the grinding taxation.

PRACTICAL EDUCATION

Rev. F. McCaughey made an admirable point at the recent meeting of the King's School Teachers' Association, when he said the school curriculum should be reduced one-half or one-third. The subjects taught in public schools are too numerous and there is far too much cramming done to make the subjects of any value in every day life. General education should be of the most practical character, to prepare boys and girls for the increasing activities of life. The majority of pupils have not time or capacity in their short school life to grasp all branches taught, so as to be able to carry a knowledge of them into future careers. If the studies were more in accord with the duties they would have to perform when they grew up to manhood and womanhood there would be less indiscrimination on the children's part to attend school and a greater prospect of their retaining the instruction and frequently exercising and refreshing it. Much has been accomplished in the past ten years in an educational way in Ontario, but the standard has at length been sufficiently elevated. Let the practical side now be closely looked into. Let the high schools, collegiate institutes, and universities train the youth in the higher branches, but give the boys and girls, whose parents cannot keep them for a long time at school, an education such as will fit them for the avocations of every career of a living. The want of knowledge prevalent in our country regarding essential things is remarkable. A newspaper reports that on an examination of the younger children of the public schools of Boston, made by Dr. Stanley Hall, it was found that 10 per cent. of the number had no knowledge of a cow, further that that gained from a picture; 61 per cent. of those examined had never seen an ant; 60 per cent. did not know where their ribs were nor exactly what it was, while only 9 per cent. were ignorant of the location of their stomachs. Some of the children stated that four came from the ground, who gets it directly from God; others said that meat is dug from the ground or picked up from the street. How few a class of King's school scholars stand such an examination.

OPPOSITION CRITICISM

On the day preceding the delivery of the Budget speech a Ministerial party said Sir Leonard Tilley, mostly highly pleased with himself and his surroundings, was in better humor than usual because there was in no line the Opposition capable of seriously criticizing the public finances. The Liberal party suffered a great loss when Sir Richard Cartwright was gerrymandered out of his seat, one of the Harrows, and he had to fight the battle of a Conservative party. Sir Richard is a brilliant speaker, and he had to fight the battle of a Conservative party. Sir Richard is a brilliant speaker, and he had to fight the battle of a Conservative party.
