CITY AND VICINITY. Wind shifting to the eastward, contained fine weather to-day slightly cooler at night. Several very good fishing parties and much game should go to the new clothing store, Lambert & Walsh, 226 Princess Street.

BEYOND THE MOUNTAINS - The operation taken in behalf of the individual in the case of Sullivan's Harty has been decided by Chancellor Boyd, who agrees that the examination shall be held before the Master, Administration to be made in the usual terms.

NEARLY STUNNED - Mrs. Rowdson, of Kingston, who was on route to Kingston to attend her dying mother, put up at the Royal Hotel at Goulash a few nights ago. She being discovered coming from her room next morning the door was burst open, and she was found almost lifeless. She was restored to consciousness in about two hours.

FEDERAL IN TORONTO - The funeral of the late Henry Rowdson, the well-known passenger conductor between Toronto and Kingston, took place on Wednesday afternoon at St. Michael's Cemetery and was largely attended by his many friends.

A NARROW ESCAPE - Yesterday afternoon a brakeman named Healey, on the K. & P. RR., had a narrow escape. At Pakenham he attempted to couple two cars, loaded with tin, the ends of the latter striking over the trucks. He slipped in between the cars and when they came together his head was caught by the tin and severely injured.

A skill, supposed to have been used by the convicts who escaped from the Kingston Penitentiary, was found, but taken up near Cape Vincent.

THE BROTHER PLAN for assisting all young men at Calverton Cemetery a small annual for floral decorations should prove popular. Mr. T. Rigney's friends expect him to clear himself of the charges which led to his expulsion last year from the Winthrop Training Association.

THE 14th P.W.A. Rifle band is now doing considerable practice, under direction of Mr. W. Carey, and will soon make a creditable appearance. The celebrated 'Knickerbocker' band, of Oswego, N.Y., numbering fifty performers, has at great expense been secured for the Dominion Day celebration.

George Macdonald, of Cape Vincent, married a Kingston lady upwards of 17 years ago. A few days ago he was made happy by the addition of a little 10-month-old treasure.

There has been a break in the Chicago grain market and considerable grain is again on its way east. England will not purchase grain at the present high price considering the favorable prospects for good crops, and there are indications that wheat will take several months to reach a very low figure.

THE GIRL IN FREE. Susan Phillips was again before the Police Magistrate this morning. Her examination, on a charge of concealing the birth of her child, followed. The poor girl pale and in appearance, after a night's confinement in the cells, appeared in the dock and every one pitied her.

There is another boom in Chicago for the St. Lawrence route. The following five schooners were chartered at 40c to Kingston: Selkirk, Daniel G. Fort, 28,000 bush corn; John R. Kelly, 18,000 bush corn; John R. Kelly, 22,000 bush corn; West Side, 21,000 bush corn.

Yesterday afternoon and evening the Ladies Aid Society of St. James Church held one of their half-yearly sales, and though this is not the season for such things to prosper they made a deal of money. There were tables for work, cakes and confectionery, besides a refreshment department.

THE BRIGADE CAMP. We learn, says the Belleville Journal, on reliable authority, that it has been decided to postpone the annual drill of the volunteers of Military District No. 3 until the autumn, and that the camp will then be held at Niagara. The reason for this postponement is understood to be the difficulty of procuring transportation by water for the troops from Kingston at this season.

AN IMPORTANT DECISION. A great many are interested in the decision in the case of Maguen v. Maguen, and especially the result of the case.
