GENTLEMEN wanting good fitting, fashionable and well made garment should go to the new clothing store, Lambert & Walsh, 226 Princess Street.

HAS IT BEEN ABANDONED?—The Old Mortality Committee seems to have abandoned the Dominion Day Celebration. A few days more and there will certainly be insufficient time in which to make the necessary preparations.

HAGAN ROSS RACE.—William Little and Matthew Bateson, two popular firemen, have undertaken the management of an excursion to Ogdensburg on the day of the race—July 18th. They have chartered the Maud and the trip will, therefore, be pleasant as well as well managed.

FELL OFF THE CARS.—A young girl fell off the G. T. R. express train yesterday at Trenton station and injured one of her arms very seriously. Conductor Pike, who was in charge of the train, telegraphed to Belleville for medical assistance, but there not being time in which a doctor could respond the girl was taken to Napanee.

ARRIVAL OF MINISTERS.—Rev. H. F. Bland will arrive here on Thursday evening from Pembroke. He will be received by the congregation at the parsonage. Rev. Leroy Hooker will not arrive until Saturday morning. He comes to the city on the steamer Ontario from Ottawa.

ACTION FOR SLANDER.—The Managers of the International Throat and Lung Institute intend entering an action for slander against Drs. Bray, of Chatham, and McCammon, of Kingston, for $10,000 each, for the statements uttered by those gentlemen at the meeting of the Ontario Medical Council

AGRICULTURAL SHOWS.—The Prince Edward Agricultural Society has issued the prize list for its annual exhibition at Picton on October 9th and 10th. The prize list of the Kingston Central Fair was arranged last week and is now being printed. The show is from the 2nd to the 8th of October, both days being included.

AWARD GIVEN.—The award in the James property arbitration places the value of the land at $925. This is the price the city will have to pay for it. The land of the Salvationists will probably be secured without an arbitration. The lot was bought for $1,000; the Army want $2,000 for it now. The difference will probably be split.

TITUS V. MARSH CASE.—Mr. A. H. Marsh, of Toronto, who was arrested on a warrant at the instance of L. U. C. Titus, a barrister of Brighton, intends bringing an action for damages against two men on a charge of conspiring against him. It is Mr. Marsh's intention to proceed against Titus with the object of having his name removed from the list of barristers. Titus will be remembered as the guardian of the young woman who committed suicide at the British American Hotel over a year ago.

MARRIED BY THE RAIN.

The rain of last night kept many away who desired to attend the entertainment in the Methodist Episcopal Church. About 80 braved the storm, however, and were present. The annual statement was read by Mr. Gardiner, showing the financial position of the church to have been improved during the past year. Rev. Mr. Wilson made an interesting address, readings were given by Messrs. R. Shaw and E. Crumley, (encored) and the choir sang several anthems most acceptably. The tea was highly appreciated. The entertainment will be repeated to-morrow evening.

STONEHAM TALK.

Phosphate business is rather dull in this section of the country.

Mr. E. S. Hand, of Milburn, N.J., has returned to this place to spend the summer.

One of the hotel-keepers says if the temperance cause becomes too strong he intends to start a temperance house.

The regular monthly meeting of the Blue Ribbon Army was held in the M. E. Church on Wednesday night, the 15th. Mr. J. P. Lacey was called to the chair and opened the meeting by calling on the united choirs of the P. M. and M. E. churches for a piece of music, after which the Rev. J. E. Mavety led in prayer. After a good deal of singing and a number of speeches the invitation was given to join the army, to which call 76 persons responded and signed the pledge. This blue ribbon movement was started about three months ago and now the army numbers 333. We hope to have every person living in this village wear the blue ribbon ere long, and not only the inhabitants of this village but of all others adjoining it.

Will the young lady please return the parasol taken from Polson's drug store on Tuesday last?

A cricket match, between the Cadets and Kingston Club, occurs to-morrow afternoon on the grounds of the latter.

The Locomotive Works have received a large steam rivetter. The plant of the establishment will soon be most complete.

To-morrow evening the Methodist Episcopal Church entertainment will be repeated. Last night's storm limited the attendance.

The Hamilton police want an increase of salary. The ordinary patrol-man in Hamilton gets $45 a month, or $1.50 a day, in addition to his clothing.

A clergyman in North Lanark the other day, while marrying a couple, read through half the christening ceremony before he discovered his mistake.

More rain fell last evening between 6 and 10 o'clock than in the same given time this season. It will be well if the crops have not been injured.

The application of candidates for Matriculation Examination must be in the Registrar's hands to-morrow. The examinations are to be held on next Tuesday.

Two hundred immigrants arrived at Montreal at noon to-day en route for Ontario and the North-West. About a thousand more are expected in the afternoon.

The yacht George Frederick, upon which Capt. Taylor had such an adventure, is 52 feet keel, 8 feet beam, and draws 6 feet of water. She went out poorly rigged, without a pump, compass, and windows in her cabin. Capt. Taylor does not want any more experience in yachting.

The Richelieu & Ontario Navigation Company's strs. on the daily route will be the Corsican, Algerian, Corinthian and Passport. This line will run up and down through the American Channel three times a week, and three times a week through the Canadian Channel, passing through the Thousand Islands each trip.

Jacob Sharman, Barriefield, writes in reply to J. Knapp & Son, that he does not cover or obliterate a builder's name on a boat, nor have one returned five times for leaking, that his credit and reputation are at a premium with those who know him, always selling a dollar's worth for a dollar. There are other parts of his letter we cannot fathom.

WILLIAMSVILLE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Last evening the Williamsville Methodist Church was filled by those who, heedless of the storm which prevailed, attended the juvenile entertainment given by the school. Mr. A. Shaw, Superintendent of the school, occupied the chair, when the following programme was furnished, reflecting credit upon Miss Etta Smith, who so ably trained the young:

Opening Chorus by the School—"Away Over Jordan."
Variation Song—Maud Hinds and Susie Carnovsky.
Recitation—Sarah Mellquahm.
Recitation—Minnie Vandewater.
Song and Recitation—Jessie Gaden.
Dialogue—Eleven Boys.
Duet—Misses E. Smith and R. Bryant.
Reading—Miss Olive Carnovsky.
Song and Chorus—Miss Vicky Watson and Gaden Family.
Chorus by the School—"We'll all Gather Home in the Morning."
Recitation—Miss Ruth Follett.
Duet—Master G. Reynolds and Miss Minnie Waddingham.
Recitation—"Give the Boys a Chance." Master Alfred Pannell.
Song—Miss Vicky Watson.
Reading—Andrew McMahon.
Recitation—Miss Laura Gaden.
Trio—Misses E. Smith, M. Cooper and R. Bryant.
Reading—Miss Tilly English.
Song—Miss R. Bryant.

At the close of the programme Rev. W. W. Madge was the recipient of a very handsome dressing case from the teachers of the Sunday School and the young men among whom he has laboured during his residence in this city, being indefatigable in his efforts to win them for Christ. He carries away with him the best wishes of the school and church in Williamsville. Mr. Madge, who was taken by surprise, replied in a feeling manner, bidding them adieu. He removes to Montreal this week.

POLICE COURT—TUESDAY.

William Harquin made his second bow before the seat of justice. He had been drunk and incapable. Having escaped easily on his first appearance the Magistrate felt that he was worthy of severer punishment and imposed a fine of $10 and costs or 30 days in gaol. The prisoner will be in time to weed the prison garden.

An assault case was arranged. The belligerent women did not appear in court.

Two boys, Venault and Burns, were charged with larceny, but no one appeared against them. They were picked up in a boat which had been stolen from the premises of Mr. Burns. The lads claimed that they had rented the boat for 15 cents from another boy whose name they could not tell. In the boat was found the brass beam of a platform scale and several weights. These articles are now at the police station. The youths were reprimanded and dismissed, their friends becoming responsible for their good behaviour.

DELTA DEPARTURE.

Paying Respects to Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson—A Succession of Very Pleasant Events.

A valued correspondent sends us the following account of the honors done a family formerly residing in Pittsburgh, latterly in Delta: If petting has the same effect on preachers that it is said to have on some children then we have grave fears for the future usefulness of the Rev. J. Ferguson. Surely if ever one of the itinerant clergy could congratulate himself on leaving his three years' charge, carrying with him the hearty good will and best wishes of his people, Mr. Ferguson is that one. However we believe there are circumstances under which the laborer can accept his reward "without scruple and without diffidence," and this we believe to be such a case. As far as our knowledge extends no Methodist minister ever performed the work of this circuit more faithfully and more successfully than the rev. gentleman just now about leaving us. The general feeling of goodwill towards Mr. Ferguson and family has been breaking out during the past few days into tangible expressions.

A FAREWELL FESTIVAL.

On Thursday, the 17th inst., a farewell festival was held in the Town Hall, Delta, at which was assembled a large number of Mr. Ferguson's friends and well-wishers from the several appointments on the circuit, including members both of his own and sister denominations. After partaking of a sumptuous feast from tables spread in the large Masonic Hall, up-stairs, the large crowd assembled in the Court room down stairs, where an address was read to the rev. gentleman, accompanied by a purse of upwards of $30. The address was followed by some speeches and Mr. Ferguson's reply. The Delta brass band enlivened the whole proceedings by selections suitable to the occasion. Altogether there was a pleasant and enjoyable time, and the general feeling that prevailed was one of good will towards Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson, and regret at the inexorable "triennial bill" that demanded their departure.

A TENTH ANNIVERSARY.

Not yet satisfied with this expression of their good will towards the rev. gentleman and his family, it having become noised around that Saturday evening the 16th inst., closed the first decade of nuptial bliss with the pastor and his wife, partly by invitation and partly from general good will, a crowd assembled at the parsonage between 7 and 8 o'clock, all bearing sundry little carefully-done-up parcels of glassware &c., which were deposited on a table within the house. A few minutes after 8 o'clock the members of the Brass Band which, by the way manifested as much interest in Mr. Ferguson as any of us, came up the street and forming in front of the parsonage favoured the audience with some fine selections, after which all went within to partake of refreshments and to inspect the gifts which, spread upon a large table, made quite an imposing show. In some lines at least Mrs. Ferguson will not need to invest in glassware for some time. After refreshments the next thing on the programme was the giving away in due form of the bride and bridegroom: the latter, being an affair of considerable weight, was delegated to Mr. Eyre: the former, being a matter of greater delicacy, was not so difficult to perform. After this the order of the evening was

SOCIAL TALK AND MUSIC.

In the latter we had indeed a treat. While the band from without gave forth some of their most choicy selections, during the intervals Mr. Ferguson's Heintzman piano sent forth its warbling trills, as the elastic fingers of Miss Hiscock swept over its keys. Amid congratulations, and farewells the party broke up about 11 o'clock, all wishing Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson many more decades of happiness, success and usefulness in their lifetime. Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson and family take their departure for their new field of labour on Wednesday the 20th inst.

DESERONTO'S DOINGS.

A photographer is in town arranging to start a gallery. The great difficulty seems to be to get a building.

The Deseronto News Co., limited, expect to start their newspaper on Dominion Day, provided they can secure an office. It will be called the Bucc Spy.

We are to be favored with two brass bands on Dominion Day. Parties who may visit us on the occasion, and who have not been here since our last celebration two years ago, will be astonished at the growth and progress of the place.

Never were the [illegible] more satisfactory or the subscriptions so liberal towards our grand Dominion Day celebration. The celebrated Kingsford's Band, which took second prize at the Centennial from over 100 competitors, will arrive on Sunday evening previous. The different steamers on the Bay will carry excursions here and issue tickets for the round trip at single fares, good to come or return by any steamer. The launching of the new steam-barge (the largest on the Bay) will be an interesting feature. The aquatic sports will be held in the vicinity of the flour mill, where a splendid opportunity is afforded to witness them from the elevated railway just completed. In addition to the special prize offered to the best looking young lady, a special prize will be offered to the ugliest looking man in attendance during the day, the offer being open especially to Napanceans. The Equescurriculums parade, in the evening, will include sixty horseback riders and two hundred pedestrians with torch lights. The day's sports will conclude with a $200 display of fireworks; the order for which has been given to a New York firm.

MARINE NEWS.

A Wild Night—Capt. Taylor's Cruise in a Yacht—Heavy Receipts of Grain Here.

Work on the Tay Canal will commence in a week.

The schr. S. Neelon has cleared light for the canal.

The schr. G. M. Neelon arrived at Garden Island this morning with timber.

The Chieftain left her tow at Port Dalhousie and proceeded to Hamilton for a raft.

In the squall last evening the schr. Samana was struck off Long Point and her main boom carried away.

The arrivals at Garden Island are the schrs. Oriental, Demark and G. M. Neelon, timber laden from Toledo.

Captain Gourson, formerly of the schr. Nellie Sherwood, has taken command of the schr. Annie M. Foster.

The tug Frank Perew clears this evening with two barges for Belleville. They will be loaded with corn from Chicago via the Midland RR.

The barge Huron, belonging to the Kingston & Montreal Forwarding Company, carried to Brockville 977 tons of coal gross or 1,094 tons net. She had over 130 tons on deck.

The black clouds which passed over Kingston about 8 o'clock last evening were seen by Captains off Long Point about 7:30 o'clock. As Long Point is over 30 miles from the city the speed at which the squall travelled can be fairly estimated.

The arrivals at the Montreal Transportation Company's wharf are: Schr. E. H. Rutherford, Toronto, 10,300 bush. wheat; prop. Lake Ontario, Toledo, 5,700 bush. corn; schr. Typo, Milwaukee, 22,450 bush. wheat; schr. G. G. Houghton, Milwaukee, 22,330 bush. corn; schr. D. G. Fort, Chicago, 23,333 bush. corn; schr. Samana, Chicago, 19,263 bush. corn; schr. J. H. Mead, Milwaukee, 27,900 bush. corn.

VESSEL RAN ASHORE.

Yesterday, in a fog, the schr. Anglo Saxon, timber laden from Toledo to Garden Island, ran ashore near South Bay Point. Calvin & Son sent up relief to-day.

The str. Hiram, with the Oriental in tow as a lighter, will go to the assistance of the schr. Anglo Saxon this evening. It is feared that her bottom will be badly chafed, as she went ashore on a very rocky place.

CORNER IN KINDLING WOOD.

It is said that the Rathbuns have a corner in kindling wood. Hoppins & Chadwick feel merry in consequence and have dropped freights from $1 to 85c. from Trenton. They endeavoured to secure the steam barge Anglin to freight several thousand cords at 90c. Captain Hurley don't want any more of it, even at $1 per cord, as it does not pay. The probability is that this freight will go up to $1.50. The corner will not pan out well at these figures.

A MUCH MIXED UP CASE.

The canal schooner Camanche is now being fitted out by her old owners, Albert Quonce, Capt. Becker and others, of Oswego. The vessel has been placed in their possession by an order of the court on their giving bonds in $10,000 to render a proper accounting of her doings and deliver her to whom may be declared her legal owners. The Camanche has been tied up at Buffalo since the spring of last year. She was sunk in the Welland Canal in the fall of 1881 corn laden, and, after much delay, was brought there badly damaged. Her owners abandoned her to the underwriters, who caused her to be repaired. The latter claimed that the abandonment would not hold good, and the question was brought before the court and decided against the owners, and they have appealed, the matter being still in abeyance.

CAPT. TAYLOR'S YACHTING EXPLOIT.

Yesterday fears were entertained regarding the safety of Capt. W. R. Taylor, Marine Inspector, who on Sunday afternoon started on the yacht George Frederick for the Main Ducks. These fears were dispelled about eight o'clock last evening when the old tar's voice was heard on Ontario street. He was found "wetter than a drowned rat, but in fine spirits after a two days' rough sailing. He reports that after leaving the harbor on Sunday, and while the yacht was going speedily along, a fog set in. There was no compass on board and the Inspector did his best to guide the craft. He got his eye on the North Star and stayed by her until the fog lifted. Then there was no alternative but to "heave too," and so on the "bounding waves" the Captain and crew [illegible] they saw lights and learned that they were near Pigeon Island. Another start was made, and in due time and a rough trip the Ducks were reached. The Captain saw the man who had charge of the jettisoned portion of the cargo of the prop. City of Montreal. There were 483 barrels of flour and 60 barrels of whiskey. The stuff was being transferred from one side of the Island to another for reshipment. One team of horses, (the only team on the Island) was engaged in the work. Without a watch the Captain and crew of the George Frederick started for Kingston. The Captain steered for a lump of land which he thought was Nine Mile Point, but which turned out to be Amherst Island. A change of course had to be made in the trough of the sea, now rolling high. The craft made several tremendous plunges, went far over, but quickly righted. When off the Knitting Mill a great black cloud was seen sweeping over the lake. With all haste the canvas was lowered and every thing made ready for the squall. By and by it swept past. Nothing could be seen but foam. The sight on the water was a grand one. The yacht stood the blow, proved a splendid sea boat, and finally ran into her moorings. Of course she shipped considerable water. Capt. Taylor, who will not soon forget his adventure, when a reporter called this morning to see him, was in good humor and was quite witty in relating his cruise upon the George Frederick.

COURT OF APPEAL.

Two Important Reductions Made—Insurance Cases—Assessment of Profits Sustained.

Yesterday afternoon Judges Wilkinson and Price heard the appeals against the decisions of the Court of Revision in the Council Chamber. The first case was that of Rykert Kent, who appealed against the assessment of his fine stone residence on King Street. The property was assessed at $15,000. Mr. Kent claims that it should only be assessed for $12,000. The evidence of eight gentlemen was taken and the assessment reduced to $12,000. In the case of the Frontenac Loan Society the assessment of the stockholders was struck off, but the assessment of the Company was allowed to stand.

A portion of yesterday afternoon and this forenoon was taken up in the consideration of appeals against the assessment of the income of the Insurance Companies. The appeals were argued at length. Mr. James Agnew appearing for the city and Messrs. E. M. Britton, Q.C., R. T. Walkem, Q.C., and J. M. Machar for the Companies. The decision of the Judges led to the dismissal of all the appeals. The Judges held that the income derived from the premiums on the insurance policies was assessable under the Assessment Act. The following are the Insurance Companies and the amounts for which they are assessed:

City of London Fire Co	$ 800
British American Co	500
Queen's Co	2 000
Imperial Co	1 000
Western Co	600
North British & Mercantile	3 000
Standard Life	2 000
Canada Life	1 000
London & Lancashire	1 000
Royal Co	3 000
Commercial Union	2 000
Liverpool, London & Globe	2 000
Ætna Co	3 000
Agricultural Co	3 000
Guardian Life	1 000
Mercantile Co	500
Frontenac Loan	13 200
Hartford	2 000
Phœnix, of Brooklyn	1 000
Phœnix, of London	2 000
London Corporation	2 000
Norwich Union	700
Northern Co	600
Fire Insurance Association	2 000
	$53 300

The amount of assessment struck off by the Court is $23,000; of this $5,000 was on Rykert Kent's house, and the balance on the Frontenac Loan and Investment Society, which has been illegally added to the roll after it had been returned by the Assessor. The assessment sustained totals $53,900.

Consumption.

From H. B. Smith, Esq., a prominent Merchant of Bercouche, Kent county, N. B., under date June 8th, 1877

Dear Sir,—I have suffered for some years past with Cough from Affection of the Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Weakness of the Chest, and Want of Appetite, and have tried many so called remedies but without any effect whatever until I commenced using Rendson's Pneumonized Extract. I have now taken 6 bottles, and find this quite equal to what it is represented to be, for it has worked like a charm, and I can cordially recommend it to all who are afflicted as I have been, as I feel it is going to make a perfect cure of me. I still continue it, and I must say I never took anything equal to it. If you wish to make any use of this for the benefit of yourself and the world at large you can do so, for I think it should be known. I remain, yours truly,
