A Church of England minister will be located at Wellington, and take charge of the parish, which includes Hillier.

Capt. Middleton, City Collector, has begun his work, and soon the tax assessments for 1883 will be in the hands of the electors.

The Maid's expansion down the river to-morrow occurs at 1 o'clock. Kingston will be reached at 7:30 o'clock on the return.

D. J. Robins, carter, fell off his vehicle this morning and was severely injured. The accident occurred on Princess street.

The corporation laborers are removing the grass, weeds and rubbish which have so long decorated the sides of the principal streets.

People cannot complain of a lack of outing when they can make an afternoon tour among the Thousand Islands for 25c.

The Ontario and Quebec Railway have secured a large field of fine gravel at Sharbot Lake; also a gravel and sand pit in Sherbrooke, into which a sailing boat has been built.

Porter, the brakeman, who was fatally injured at the G.T.R. collision at Port Hope, is a native of Prince Edward County.

The damage to the train and rolling stock only totalled $30,000.

There is very little now doing at the Thousand Island Park. Services are now held every Sabbath. Capt. Rothwell says there are a good many residents now on the grounds.

The Oswego tugs are being fitted right and left. The tug Seymour has dropped $300 because her whistle is in front of the smoke stack instead of aft of it. How ridiculous the Oswegos are.

Messrs. Rabban have purchased the land lying along the St. Lawrence from the foot of Main street to the mouth of the Gananoque River for $2,300. They now own the whole water front west of the Gananoque River.

Some slight creature poked an umbrella through the plate glass window of Bowen & Bissonette on Saturday night.

There was no necessity for such wanton destruction even though the fire had already cracked the glass.

Capt. Smith, of the steamer Alexandra, is making that steamer more popular every year by reason of his thoughtful and careful treatment of passengers. The round trip is made most delightful to families through the attentions of all on board.

Interest in the Salvation Army movement has not slackened any, judging by yesterday's meetings. A clergyman from the Maritime Provinces spoke last evening. Principal Grant was present, and during the second part of the service encouragingly greeted Lieut. Ryerson.

PERSONAL MENTION

Major Fairthough, R.A., of Kingston, is used to C. Wilson, but the lessees of the track claim that he cannot get upon his land without their permission. The lease states so. The track will be greatly torn up by the traffic across it, and if the weather is stormy the damage will be very great.

CATCHING BASS.—Fishermen are now going out to the lakes in the rear of the county for sport. The fish in Sharbot and Rideau Lakes will be captured if possible. A few days ago a 6.8. bass was caught in Thirty Island Lake, near the Glendower iron mine. There are some of the finest bass awaiting a trial in this lake can be found anywhere.

The Bard of Loch Fyne, after a pleasant trip among his countrymen in the Eastern part of the Province, has returned home.

The scenery down the Ottawa was reminded him of his highland home.

Mr. McColl has been delayed in the publication of his book of poems by the absence of the publisher, Mr. Rose, of Toronto, who is now on his way to Scotland.

PAVING BIG SUMS.—It reports to true the men employed at the shoals and those who have large and other machinery at work are making much money.

The Government, one would imagine, believes that the Conservative interests here are located on the shoals, as all the money goes to them rather than to some other work for which it was applied.
