THE SO-CALLED DUDE.

The dandy of these latter days
Has much that men may rightly praise.
For he, with all his vapid ways,
Is something new.

He writes from the ribbon stage,
To being free from fraud and guile;
His handsome person and vacant smile
Alike are true.

Some foreign airs he can't escape,
Some foreign styles he has to ape,
But on the whole he well has shown
From top to toe

No vulgar copyist is he,
But truly heads himself to go
A quite unique variety.
"Bathah, ya know."

In dressing up a mother Hub
No pudder's apt dangerous here;
As nature made that member Mrs.
Mrs it remains.

And nature rules in all the rest
Of his attire when he's dressed,
Unless perhaps his hat is cocked
Too much of beaver.

In disposition meek and mild,
Almost as harmless as a child,
Silly by name he may be styled,
But seldom rude.

Though stronger words may soon be down,
At most admire his clean opinion,
And think thrown good name to him
The modern dude.

DISTRICT PASSES.

The village of Newburgh is erecting 1,350 feet of sidewalk this summer.

Jas. Cornish, Lansdowne, is a honey king. He has now 170 swarms of bees.

The Gananoque Village Council have decided to spend $350 in enlarging its drains.

Thomas Pearson, Q.C., of Pembroke, has taken G. Belcher into partnership with him.

Jackson Bongard, of South Marysburg, has 140 wheat grown the average height of six feet.

A number of cattle were killed by lightning near Portland about two weeks ago.

Costello Bros., merchants, of Renfrew, have made an assignment. Liabilities about $17,000.

The Carleton Place Herald has been revived with Messrs. Allen Bros. & Kidner as publishers.

Peter Hope has bought from Edward Elliott, a residence and commodious grounds in Perth for $2,000.

From the 13th of June to the 13th of July there were five marriages and five deaths in Cape Vincent.

M. J. K. Brown, merchant, Delta, has reared his store and increased its size until it looks like a new building.

Mr. Hiram Hunt, for the last two years in the employ of H. J. Arnold, of Westport, leaves shortly for Dakota.

73 candidates presented themselves at the entrance examination in Perth. Of these 27 passed and 14 were commended.

John Cochrane, of Lansdowne, has purchased four and a half acres from Wm. Byers on the Gananoque river for a market garden.

Dr. Elliott, of Pembroke, dedicated a Methodist Church at Leslie, in Pontiac County, on Sunday. The debt on the church was wiped out.

High land crops are exceptionally good around Delta but the wet weather of the past two months has told sadly on the low flat grounds.

The Gananoque constables swooped upon the cows last Monday morning, and put 18 of them in pound. The by-law will be a dead letter no longer.

From twelve to twenty cars of ties are loaded at Cape Vincent daily and shipped to the Central road. Workmen receive twenty cents per hour for their services.

The total receipts for duties at the Cape Vincent Custom House during the month of June were $48,377. This is the largest amount ever collected here during a single month.

Robt. Eyers, of Gananoque, is on a visit to Manitoba and the North West. Just before leaving he was presented by the employees of the Spring shop with a heavy ebony walking stick, with beautifully chased gold head.

Mr. Lawson, the new C. M. minister of Delta, has withdrawn his appointment next Sunday evening to allow his congregation to attend the Presbyterian service and hear the celebrated Kingston singers who are to render the music on the occasion.

A sad accident occurred at Westport on Friday afternoon. An only son of Mr. James Porter, while endeavoring to draw water from an open well, fell in and was drowned. The body was not discovered for half an hour.

A Gananoque merchant bought some eggs that looked as though they had been sat on for weeks, but as they did not "shake," he supposed they must be good. He broke several of them, and found that they had been boiled, which so hardened the putrid contents as to keep them quiet when shook.

The saw mill of Caldwell & Son, at Carleton Place, closed for the season, the supply of logs having become exhausted. The mill commenced operations about six weeks ago, so that the season's run has only been about one-fifth that of former years.

March, a young son of S. M. Conger, of the Fisher Glenelg, cut his foot severely. His brother Charlie, 14 years of age, undertook to row him some distance to the house. When in deep water Marsh fainted and fell overboard, going to the bottom like a stone. Charlie went after him and brought him up and swam with him to the shore.

The Presbyterians of the village of Newburgh a short time ago reported $100 from Mr. Hugh Heron, of Chicago, to buy a library to be used for the Sabbath School of the church, and besides that he gave $100 to help to build the church as a token of the deepest regard to the early training of a beloved mother. His brothers, John and William Heron, who now have left Canada and gone to the United States, are also thanked for their liberality towards the building of the church.

☞ In this present age, when the life battle is so fiercely fought, and when upon even the strongest the tug and strain of it tell so heavily, how necessary it becomes for us to provide for the keeping up of our reserve stock of our mental and physical vitalities, by the use of such a nervous tonic and vitalizing agent as Robinson's Phosphorized Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Lacto-Phosphate of Lime.

Its gentle stimulating and nutritive tonic properties supply the materials, and assist nature in her efforts to keep up with the exhaustive demands upon her reserve.

Prepared only by Robinson Bros., Chemists, St. John, N.B., and for sale by druggists generally. Price $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5.

Ellison's Electric Light is a wonderful discovery, but not as wonderful as Hall's Catarrh Cure. Sold by all druggists.

SHAMEFUL ASSERTION.

A Grave Charge of Cruelty Against the Kingston Penitentiary Authorities Investigated.

(Toronto News.)

In Saturday's News a letter appeared over the signature of A. Johnson, who stated that the Kingston Penitentiary authorities were in the habit of indulging in a very cruel practice, viz., shaving the heads of female convicts before discharging them. This morning a reporter was detailed to enquire into the allegations, and called on a Sheriff's officer, who gave a flat contradiction to Mr. Johnson's statements. A call was made on Mr. Newhall, Chief of the detective force, who stated that he had read Mr. Johnson's letter, and characterized it as the veriest nonsense.

"Why," said he, "Mr. Creighton, the Warden of the Penitentiary, is one of the most tender hearted men in the world, and he would never dream of indulging in such a practice in order to humiliate the female convicts released at the expiration of their terms."

"I thought that the head of every criminal was shaved while in prison?"

"And that is correct, but not at the expiration of the sentence. The Warden knows just when a woman's term expires and he invariably prevents her hair from being cut during the three or four months prior to her release.

"If that be the case how is it that, according to Mr. Johnson, there are so many women parading the streets of the city with hair close cropped?"

"I don't know who Mr. Johnson is, or if that be merely an assumed name, but I do think that that letter was penned by a man who was either off his mental equilibrium or had the jim jams. Now just look into the book for a moment. It shows how many female convicts from Ontario have been discharged from the Penitentiary during the present year. In January, you see there was one woman discharged and she was convicted at Woodstock; in February and March there were none; in April there was one, who was convicted in Toronto; in May there was one, who was convicted in Perth, and in June and July there were none, so that during the present year there were three female convicts let loose on Society. Nearly every day I meet women on the street with their hair cut short, but because of a peculiarity in the fashions I don't take them for convicts, as apparently does Mr. Johnson."

The reporter was proceeding down stairs when the detective called after him, and gave it as his solemn opinion that Mr. Johnson had mistaken the Celestial laundryman for discharged female convicts.

What does Mr. Johnson say?

HOT WEATHER JOKES.

A man in Rochester has such a cracked voice that he rarely says anything without breaking his word.

"What is true bravery?" asks a New York paper. It is going to sleep while your wife sits up in bed to listen for burglars.

Ruskin says no couple should marry until they have courted seven years. This would lead one to think that Russia runs a soda fountain.

It is rather a remarkable fact that the greatest orators of the world have been Pagan; for instance, Demosthenes, Cicero and Bob Ingersoll.

A young correspondent complains that "there are too many lawyers in the country." Oh, no, my boy, there aren't half too many lawyers. There aren't half enough clients, that's all.

"Well, may I hope, then, dearest, that at some time I may have the happiness of making you my wife?" "Yes, I hope so, I am sure," she replied. "I am getting tired of suing fellows for breach of promise."

If brooms are wet in boiling suds once a week, they become very tough, and will not break up so easily when a fond wife is remonstrating with her husband and trying to induce him to do better.

A boy in Wilmington, N. C., was bitten by a rattlesnake a few days ago, the fang of the serpent entering the end of one of his fingers, when he seized a hatchet which happened to be near at hand, and cut off his finger before the poison had time to spread through his system.

A New York boy drank a pint of whiskey, went swimming, ate a lot of green apples, drank a large quantity of ice water and went to bed. Next morning he was found dead. About the worst thing a boy can do in hot weather is to fill himself up with ice water.

"Save the Sweetest Kiss for Mother" is the title of the latest new song. The author evidently overlooks the fact that the young man's precious time is so completely occupied in paying his respects to the daughter that the old lady stands a mighty slim chance of getting any kiss at all.

Hurdford's Acid Phosphate

removes the uncomfortable feeling sometimes experienced after excessive smoking or chewing.

ROBBING A ROTHSCHILD.

A daring diamond robbery took place in Toronto on Saturday night, by which the jewellery firm of Rothschild & Co., lost $4,000 worth of the precious stones. When leaving the establishment on King Street on Saturday Mr. Louis Bush, one of the partners, took 60 diamonds, $20 in cash, a cheque for $29 and a gold watch with him to his house, at No. 178 Jarvis Street. On getting up next morning he found that his clothes, in the pockets of which were the valuables, had been carried down stairs to the dining-room in the back part of the house. The watch, diamonds and money, valued in all at $4,000, had been taken from the pockets by the robbers, who it is supposed entered the house before the family retired on Saturday night and concealed themselves until ready to ransack the place. It was found that they had left the windows and doors in the house wide open so as to facilitate escape in case of detection. The cheque was signed Messrs. Thomas Walls & Co. Mr. and Mrs. Bush were sleeping in the room from which the clothes were taken, and consider it strange that they were not disturbed by the thieves. Mr. Bush offers $1,000 reward for the recovery of the stolen goods.

A Cure for Cholera Morbus.—A positive cure for this dangerous complaint, and for all acute or chronic forms of bowel complaint incident to summer and fall, is found in Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, the grand specific for these troubles.

CAREY, THE INFORMER.

His Craven Fear of Publicity — His Boldness Leaves Him—Sent into Exile.

I have just learned some extraordinary things about the informer James Carey. With all his bombast and make-believe courage he turned out a most craven coward. He demands to be released and his expressed determination to brave the anger of the multitude were evidently intended only to induce the authorities to give him money to leave Ireland. But the clever conspirator, the deep knave, who to the last moment pretended to be deeply religious was completely outwitted.

Without his knowledge, his wife and children had been sent away from Dublin. He was brought out of Kilmainham in a cab. He came to defy the castle and to impose conditions. But he suddenly found he had met his match. He was shown his passage if he chose the latter course, the door was open to him and he was a free man. What was he to do? He had no house to shelter him; there was not a friend to receive him; his wife and family were on board the vessel in an English port that was to convey them to the colonies, and to go into the streets, may be to be butchered within half an hour, or certainly torn to pieces before another day elapsed.

He was dazed with sudden fright; his limbs seemed to become paralysed, his tongue seemed to lose power of utterance, and cowering down he begged that he would not be driven forth. Gladly he accepted the proffered passage to an English colony, and to the credit of Lord Spencer be it said that James Carey has left Ireland forever without receiving one farthing from the Government. The Lord Lieutenant not only refused to give him any money but absolutely refused to give him a written pardon, and the last board from Carey, as the ship left on her voyage, were deep curses on the Castle, on the Invincibles, and every one in general.

Peter Carey was treated differently. He not only received a written pardon but a sum of money, not very much indeed. When the school of informers were located together in Kilmainham they were frequently at a loss for amusement. Robert Farrell was the subject for their practical jokes. After the execution of Joe Brady they so terrified him that he nearly lost his senses. Over Farrell's head was a bell, and having secretly attached a string to this bell they tolled it during the night. They jumped up saying that was Joe Brady's death knell, and Farrell, in a state of abject terror, prostrated himself on the floor, begging Brady's pardon. They found means of moving chairs and tables at night in such a mysterious manner as to convince Farrell the place was haunted by his victim. As a result he prayed the authorities to send him away as soon as possible.—Dublin Letter in Philadelphia Press.

Little Things

Seem to constitute the very essence of life. The little drops of water in tiling form the mighty ocean, and a hundred examples might be cited to prove how important after all are the little things. Now, corns are small affairs. Little sympathy is expected, though they should be a source of agony to the unhappy possessor. Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor is a small affair, yet by its perfect, speedy and painless action it has gained the good will and kind words of thousands who have used it. Don't take the dangerous substitutes offered by some, but see that it is made by Polson & Co., proprietors, Kingston.

Oh, my Back!

Is there a miserable, weakening pain in the small of the back? Is urination painful? Do you have palpitation of the heart? Do strange, indescribable feelings creep up your back and sides? Does the least exertion weary you? Does your urine show brickdust or albuminous deposit? Does any sudden fright cause an intense, sharp pain in the small of your back? Do you have an aching in the groin? Is your memory impaired? Is your breath short? Are there shooting pains about your vitals? Are you becoming dropsical?

These are all symptoms of kidney diseases. Be on your guard against them. If let run it may end in Bright's Disease, which is sure death.

Your best course is to procure at once a bottle of Sulphur and Iron Bitters costing only one. It will cure any form of Kidney Complaint, except Bright's Disease, it will relieve the symptoms and deaf the cold day sometimes unconfinch.

Sulphur and Iron Bitters is a medicine as harmless as water. The world has not seen its equal as a cure for diseases which attack the Kidneys and for the complaints to which females are alone liable. It is of no no value than any medical compound known to the medical faculty.
