FIFTY PARAGRAPHS.

At a meeting of the Kingston City Council on Tuesday night...

The telegrams in yesterday's issue told of another calamity in the capital...

Thanks to the N. P. Music publishing is an industry in Canada well protected against foreign competition.

INTERESTING CASE.

The Assize Court at Ottawa has to-day been occupied with a case having a close interest for shippers...

NOT TO OBEY.

Old scriptural authority was rudely shocked the other day when the Methodist Conference resolved to strike out of the responses in the marriage service the woman's promise to obey.

A DOUBLE FEVER.

The reports sent from the Toronto Exhibition grow to the papers to work up a crowd of visitors to the Industrial Exhibition are not borne out by the testimony of people who have seen "Canada's Great Fair."

APPEARANCES DISCREPANT.

Edwin Cassell and J. E. Phillips, of Philadelphia, have been visiting London and looking up phosphate land near Portland, purchased years ago by the older Phillips.

THE THROUGH ROUTE.

John McLennan, ex-M.P. of Lancaster, and a shareholder of the Montreal Transportation Company, has been writing able letters upon the policy of the abolition of the canal tolls, especially on the St. Lawrence.

INSPECTION DAY.

Creditable Field Movements—Fire Department of the City—Fire Station in Detail.

Yesterday was inspection day at Coburg and for several days previous there was a grand rubbing up of muskets and swords for the occasion.

Major Moore was particularly successful in his efforts to get the men of the Salvation Army meeting on Wednesday evening.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEFS.

Alfred Clayton, driver, was run over and badly hurt. The train was delayed for some time.

THE GARDENERS.

Quebec city Battery was in the Dominion Artillery competition. Welland and Montreal being next in order.
