CITY AND VICINITY.

To-Day's Probabilities.

Moderate to fresh winds, mostly easterly, generally fair weather; slightly higher temperature.

Took the Prize.

Ald. John Carson is happy. He secured the first prize on his carriage horses. They are certainly beauties and held at higher figures now. A man named Switzer secured second prize.

Will He Run?

General Laird will be asked to send in his resignation, with the option of a parliamentary enquiry into his conduct on a recent occasion when inspecting the battalion commanded by Col. Williams, M.P.

Kingston's Most Rueful.

John Miller, a second year student in Queen's University, who has developed as a mind reader, is again in the city and is interesting his friends by his performances. He is the equal of Cumberland.

A Match.

It has been arranged for $100 a side for Oct. 2nd, between J. E. Jones' g. g. Davidson; W. H. Carson's m. Schelin; and George Briggs' c. g. Johnny B. It will settle a deal of local speculation and boasting.

Sailors Under Arrest.

Captain Ellman and sailor of the schr. William Elgin have been arrested in Oswego, charged with stealing clocks from the wrecked schooner Sarepta. A clock was found in Captain Ellman's trunk. He claimed that it was given to him by a sailor.

Returned Home.

L. W. Brock has returned from Lake George, where he was engaged during the summer as head electrician in the office of the Western Union Telegraph Co. His quarters were at Fort William Henry Hotel. He spent a most enjoyable season. Lake George is a lovely place to rusticate at.

A Fine New Church.

The contract for a new Roman Catholic Church at Alexandria, to cost $37,000, exclusive of the altars, has been let to Mr. Paquette, the well-known contractor of Montreal. When completed the cost of the building is expected to net $50,000. The style of architecture is Gothic. The structure will be the handsomest between Ottawa and Brockville and Montreal. The spire will be 150 feet high. Rev. A. Macdonnell is the parish priest.

Preparing the By-Law.

J. H. Whelan, of Westport, is in the city arranging for a by-law to be presented to the ratepayers of Crosby granting a bonus to the K. & P. RR. The by-law will be submitted to a vote some time during November. It is probable that $20,000 will be the amount asked for. The by-law for submission to Bedford will not be voted upon until next year. Owing to fire and flood the township has had to pay 5 mills on the dollar more this year than previously.

At the Old Ways.

Capt. Abbie has been playing her pranks again. On Wednesday she shipped off to Belleville, arriving there in the evening and surprising the soldiers of that place considerably. "Happy Nellie" noticed the visitor hiding among the sailors. The Ontario says she was escorted to the platform amid the wildest excitement, and for a considerable time held the attention of the audience by her quaint sayings. The circumstances connected with her visit to Belleville were related in a style peculiar to the hallelujah lass.

Our Ladies' College.

The Ottawa Free Press remarks that Kingston deserves hearty congratulation on having successfully established a Women's Medical College. The formal opening of the institution took place on Tuesday under the auspices of the faculty, and was a complete success in every way. Dr. Lavell delivered the address. Touching on the reasons why women should be doctors the paper says his words were true, wise and courageous. They present the case in favor of women as physicians correctly, and it is to be hoped the college will prosper and perpetuate the career of usefulness so auspiciously begun.

Dredges for the Murray Canal.

The tug Justin Hall arrived this morning with the dredge St. Charles and three barges. They have been for five years operated at Quebec in the tidal basin, and will be employed for the next three or four years on the Murray Canal, in the interest of Sifton & Mussey. The dredge is of the chain description—that is its scraps clean like a chain, and is well suited to handle the soft material it is capable of doing great service.

Joseph Bawlen has presented the Ladies' Medical College with a fine microscope.

The schr. Typo has reached Oswego and will be at once repaired. She is now being relieved of her cargo.

This was the children's day at the Fair and it wasn't much of a day either, as far as the show was concerned.

In the case of Sherwo vs. the Pullman Palace Car Co., the place of trial has been changed from Ottawa to Kingston.

Liquor must have flowed freely yesterday. There were many drunken persons upon the streets last evening.

The prize list of the Midland Central Fair will be completed this evening. It will be published in subsequent issues.

The Montreal Star has a handsome new dress. Our contemporary is one of our best exchanges and deserves success.

The employees of the Locomotive Works are now doing night work in order to get along the more pressing contracts.

Latest returns from Algoma give an increase of 22 to Mr. Lyon's majority, making a total majority as far as heard from of 143.

The Holmans were well patronized last night, and sang well. To-night they produce "Pinafore," in which they have achieved great success.

The police have had some exciting races after the McKees. They cannot escape punishment unless they permanently leave the city.

Robert Kane, of Westport, visited Kingston a few days ago for the first time in 15 years. He noted many improvements which were a surprise to him.

Mr. Isaac Shaw was greeted by many old friends upon the fair grounds yesterday. As a business man at Philadelphia and Cape May he has been very successful.

The tug Glide has gone to Oswego with three barges for coal, and the tug Thompson is expected from Charlotte with three barges having a cargo of 1,800 tons of coal.

The McKees have just lately returned to the city from Chicago, where they have been employed. Last night's stabbing is a style of warfare peculiar to Chicago.

Rev. Mr. McOuaig had a conference with the Postmaster General anent the Sunday mail service. Mr. McOuaig was well received and remains at the Capital for a few days.

A lady called upon the Chief of Police this morning and asked him to purchase a lottery ticket. He said he couldn't, that a lottery was illegal, and that the only connection he could have with it would be to stop it going on.

The dockmen at Deseronto have been doing some quick work. The Reliance and Resolute were both loaded twice last week, each trip being accomplished in less than a day. The vessels cleared with nearly two million feet of lumber.

For recuperative powers commend us to Hanley, of Sharbot Lake. It is not a month since he had his arm taken off by the railway and laid twelve hours on the track unconscious. Twenty-four hours later he reached the Kingston General Hospital, and left it to-day looking regred and well.

Personal Paragraphs.

Sir Richard Cartwright is in the North West.

Mr. W. J. Robertson, managing editor of the Canada School Journal, is in the city.

G. S. Wakefield, former manager of the G. N. W. Telegraph Co., Deseronto, is now located at Thunder Bay, on the C. P. Railway's western division.

Sir John Macdonald arrived this morning and has been busy all day with the politicians. The Premier is resting here, en route to Napanee, where his election trial begins on the 10th.

Arrivals at the British American Hotel: Sidney Cooper, Isaac Munson, Allen G. Brush, S. B. Taggart, Watertown, A. Nicholson, R. Laurance, John Collett and wife, London, Eng.; D. R. Mollison Wm. Scully, J. J. Dyas, Toronto; G. M. Porteous, Chicago; D. L. Kennedy, Dr. R. A. Simpson, New York; W. M. McGrath, H. E. Lyons, Toronto; Warren Clark, Lockport; R. J. Hayes, Cleveland.

Things Not Generally Known.

That Julius Cæsar had a bald head and an aquiline nose.

That Mark Anthony, for a Queen of 60, lost the empire of the world.

That Mahomet turned the East into a Temperance Society.

That King Henry VIII. was a very good-natured man.

That William III. was a believer in predestination.

That Oliver Cromwell was the greatest man of the Anglo-Saxon race.

That the little Premier has more pluck in proportion to his inches than any man in the Dominion.

That the "intelligent foreigners" who visited the Midland Central Fair have given as their opinion that Kingston has a city as well worth seeing as Hamilton Lake.

That when a certain police officer makes a present of a cabbage leaf cigar to a pressman it invariably produces a spell.

BUTCHERS' GRIEVANCE.

A Scene on the Market Square—The Reception of a Scribe—A Statement Given.

The other morning, in passing up Brock Street, we observed a commotion in front of the shambles. Anxious to learn the cause of it we approached the assembly and were greeted by the cry from a stalwart knight of the cleaver, "Here's the very man we want." Before we knew where we were he escorted us in a sort of triumphal procession under festoons of beef, mutton, lamb, liver, pork, etc., and finally enthroned on Pat Clerk's stool, opposite that worthy's desk.

"And what do you want of me," demanded the scribe, surrounded by these angry men, and casting a glance at the gory knives and cleavers around. "Gentlemen, I assure you there is not an eighth of an inch of fat on my ribs. I would never make pork."

A peal of laughter uprose and the Chief Knight of the Golden Cleaver advanced.

"Wine," said he, "although Conservatives we do not bring thee hither to devour thee, but merely to retail our grievances through thy worthy paper. Know then that the city of Kingston has passed a by-law which authorizes any little store to sell meat at the moderate price of $2 per year. Now here," continued the speaker, "we have been in the habit of selling meat to the citizens at a heavy tax, and we have behaved decently by them, too. It is just the same," continued the orator, "as if a merchant was to say to his clerk, I can get a cheaper man than you, and as Sir John said to Letellier, St. Just, your usefulness is gone. Let us look at it in another way. We butchers supply and are a necessity to the public. We have to pay from the 1st January next the same as others, $2 per year. Where is the fairness of that?

"But that puts you on an equal with the rest."

"It does, do you think? Look here!" We have frequently to pay our passage to Guelph and elsewhere to buy these cattle, and pay freight and other attendance here with all other expenses, and people here expect to get them at less than cost price where we purchase them. Besides we are at the expense of fitting up our shop, paying rent, taxes, etc., and we are at a heavy expense for ice to keep our meat cool and clean, and we are debarred from selling anything else like these hucksters and others. I think the public will soon get sick of their fly-blown meat in the summer. I will give you a list of our prices, as they say we have a monopoly, and you can see that our choice meats are at least 3 to 4 cents cheaper in Kingston than between Toronto and Montreal:

|---|---|
| For boiling, Briskets, | 7c to 8c per lb. |
| " Shoulders | 8c to 10c " |
| Ordinary steak..... | 10c to 12½ " |
| Round steak (best)... | 13c " |
| Roast sirloin & ribs (b) | 13c " |

And yet a well known butcher from Gananoque states this morning that the best meat has been selling at 18c to 20c per lb.

An Attempted Suicide.

Alexander Nicholson, who has been a convert of the Salvation Army, and whose failing is his unfortunate liking for liquor, had a half holiday yesterday and drank heavily. In the evening he became quite furious and destructively inclined while visiting the Wemple House. The police were called in and the man put under arrest. He was locked up in the big cell off the station, and when visited by the Sergeant on duty shortly afterwards was found in the act of attempting suicide. He had fastened his braces to the casting of the window and was tightening the suspenders about his neck when detected. He was stopped, of course, and quieted down. Shortly afterwards he was again visited and found to be trying to strangle himself with a handkerchief. He was then handcuffed. The Sergeants of the Salvation Army visited him later on, and had him removed to the hospital, where he was reported to be very ill this morning. The Army is bound to save him.

Suit Challenged.

In a half column article the News tells what it knows about "the firemen's troubles," as their statements were challenged. The point at issue has not been disproved. In Tuesday's paper our custom said: "In the meantime the Chief had sent a petition to the City Council requesting the appointment of Mr. Hall, and the prayer was granted."

With Chief Horsey's authority we printed the following: "Chief Horsey will present the News editors with $10 if they can produce the petition he sent to the City Council requesting the appointment of David Hall as Second Assistant Chief."

The News has not shown in this article that the statement was true. We still challenge it to prove that Chief Horsey has anything to do with the petition.

A Very Gallant Act.

Yesterday afternoon a team of horses attached to R. Boyd's new hack was startled on Princess Street, while returning from the palace grounds, by the driver cracking his whip. Away the animals flew with three passengers. They raced down the street at a terrific pace and several times escaped collision with other conveyances. The lines became entangled amongst the horses feet, making the situation more dangerous for the passengers. One of the ladies pushed open the carriage door and jumped out. She fell but was not injured. The gentleman, however, averted the catastrophe by a gallant act. He climbed out of the door upon the top of the hack, then jumped from the seat to the tongue, grasped the lines and saved the conveyance from destruction. The act was a very courageous one.

City Teachers' Association.

This morning the City Teachers' Association met, but did no business. Mr. W. J. Robertson addressed the teachers in the interest of Gage's readers. The discussion was joined in by Messrs. Knight, Wood, McGuat, Kidd and others. The Association then adjourned until Saturday, the 16th.

BICYCLISTS' RACES.

WHEELMEN ON THEIR MUSCLE—THE DISTINCTION WHICH SOME OF THEM ACHIEVED.

Three Good Competitions—Mishaps and Funny Episodes of the Day—All Men Are Not to be Judged by Appearances—Prizes Won and Distributed—Items of The Racers—Encroachments of the Crowd.

The bicycle races constituted the leading attraction at the Midland Central Fair yesterday afternoon. The contestants, three in number, were confined to the members of the Kingston Club with one exception, Mr. West, of Belleville, a handsome, lathy youth and a good rider though not physically fitted to compete with some of the local wheelers. The bicyclists met on Princess St. and headed by President Armstrong, rode to the fair ground, each one in uniform, a jockey suit of dark blue and blue stockings, blue turban caps with badges upon the forehead. They reached the horse ring at 2 o'clock precisely and "stacked" machines while the enclosure was being cleared of all who had not business within it. This was not an easy task, the multitude crowding in from upon one side as it was forced back upon the other. It was really astonishing to note how many were privileged persons upon such an occasion, how many jostled on each other about, and in the excitement of the afternoon attempted to "tramp" each other down. While the preliminaries were being settled the competitors were sized up by the spectators and speculation done as to their performances. Certain men were picked out for special distinction and they—didn't get it. They disappointed themselves and their friends. Mr. J. B. Walkem acted as starter, judge and referee, whose orders were imperative and whose decisions were absolute and final. There was no occasion for dispute, however, the racing being conducted in a friendly spirit and with perfect harmony. The horse judges were silenced for the time being, the colts ceased to frisk about the ring, and at 2:30 o'clock the wheelmen desirous of entering were summoned to the starting point. It was stated that the ring would have to be rounded ten times, and that the prizes would be $12, $8 and $5. The following raced: W. G. Nicol, Cataraqui; R. Wilson, —, West, Belleville; J. Tweddell and G. Smith, Kingston.

First Lap—They got off nicely, but Wilson and Tweddell and Smith forged to the front.

Second Lap—Tweddell had taken first position, leading Wilson by about 100 yards, with Wilson a close third. West and Nicol were near to each other but very far in the rear.

Third Lap—Tweddell still led, going very fast and without husbanding his strength, Smith second and Wilson a hot third, Nicol some 20 yards behind them, and West apparently out of the race.

Fourth Lap—Tweddell maintained the lead, but Smith was gradually gaining upon him. Nicol, whose action was graceful and showed that he was quite capable of doing better than at the outstart, whirled along and took third place, leaving West and Wilson behind.

Fifth Lap—Near the starting point Nicol, (who had during the last round taken second position) cleared upon Tweddell and passed him, Wilson third, 75 yards behind the first, Smith fourth and West last.

Sixth Lap—Nicol led easily, sitting erect and booming along at a spanking rate. West did wonders and took third position, not far from Tweddell; Smith fourth and Wilson last.

Seventh Lap—Nicol first, Tweddell a good second, West and Smith together and 10 yards behind Tweddell, Wilson last.

Eighth Lap—Nicol was now safely counted upon as the winner of first prize, but as for the rest it seemed yet to be any man's race. West passed Tweddell and Wilson took fourth place.

Ninth Lap—Nicol had increased his lead and put defeat out of the question. West was a poor second, Wilson, Tweddell and Smith bunched. Now Smith put on a spurt and went flying past Wilson and Tweddell, but he was too late to get a better position and larger prize.

The Finish—Nicol first, driving his machine without the use of his hands; West second and Smith third. Smith thought there was another round, and did not make his dash soon enough, otherwise he would have been good for second prize. Tweddell did splendid work at the outset but did not have the endurance. He considers himself too light for racing on the track, and yet he thinks nothing of a spin to Napanee and back. A road and a horse track are vastly different.

THE OBSTACLE RACE.

The obstacles were branches of trees, thrown across the track in two place requiring, in two laps, four dismounts. The prizes were $5 and $3. The competitors were: Messrs. Nicol, D. F. Armstrong, G. Wilson, R. McKelvey, W. B. Skinner, Smith, Renton and West. Renton went off with a rush and led until the first obstacle was reached, where he was delayed by a mishap and Nicol passed him. At the second obstacle, however, Nicol was delayed by a fall of his machine, and so brought some of the others to a halt. When they got over the obstacle they failed to remount as quickly as they have been known to do. Skinner got the lead, but Renton went in hot pursuit of him. In the second round Skinner led and made his stoppages and starts safely and expeditiously. Renton lost his chances, and McKelvey went to the second place. On the home stretch Nicol passed him. The finish was made in the following order: Skinner, Nicol, McKelvey, Armstrong, the rest in a bunch. The winner (Skinner) is a young rider, but one of pluck and great promise.

HALF-MILE RACE.

There were three prizes, $10, $6 and $4. The entries were: Messrs. Armstrong, T. Benton, R. McKelvey, Skinner, West, Nicol and Tweddell.

First Lap—Benton led off, followed by Armstrong, McKelvey third, Skinner and West together, Nicol and Tweedell far in rear.

Second lap—Benton led by 20 yards, Armstrong second, the others pretty well together.

Third lap—Benton and Armstrong came up to the judge's point together, Armstrong leading by a length. In an instant, however, Benton had shot ahead and Armstrong turned out. No one could understand what he meant until he announced that he had stopped because he thought the race was finished. Skinner now became second, the others bunched and close behind.

Fourth round—Skinner, somewhat unexpectedly, passed Benton, whom he led by 25 yards, Nicol third, West fourth, McKelvey and Tweedell together.

Fifth Lap—Skinner first, 30 yards; Nicol second, Benton third.

Sixth Lap—Skinner wins, Benton second, passing Nicol, third. The others scattered and out of the race.

NOTES ON THE GROUND.

Mr. W. C. Carruthers had the finest machine but he did not ride in the races, not being in condition.

There was no fancy riding, except that done by Mr. Armstrong upon his arrival at the ring.

Mr. Skinner had the fork of his machine injured and a couple of spokes broken. In consequence of this he dropped out of the mile race after having got a good send off.

The Mayor and Corporation officials gave this sport their particular patronage.

The mile race occupied eight minutes.

It was scarcely necessary to lay down the rule that the wheelmen should be clothed from the shoulder to the knees. The cold wind made such a condition imperative.

The races were among the best things at the exhibition.

Literary Notes.

"The Broad-winners," the anonymous serial now appearing in the Century, is much praised by other authors. Mr. Howells, in denying the authorship added, "I wish I had written it."

Mrs. Oliphant has written for the November Century a paper on Queen Victoria, chiefly devoted to her life as a happy queen and mother before the death of Prince Consort. The frontispiece of the number is an engraving of an original oil study of the Queen, made from life by the young American artist, Thomas Sully, in 1838.

Fathers of the present generation of young folks may revive their boyhood in their sons' enjoyment of Captain Mayne Reid's new serial story in the coming St. Nicholas. Mayne Reid's powers of observation are vigorous writing are unimpaired. His new story is to treat of adventures in Terre del Fuego, "the land of fire."

Better Than Gin.

We can heartily endorse the following: "The tweed-covered vultures of this city who eke out a fat living by imposing on the credulous at the various fairs throughout this district, should be taught a lesson this year. At every exhibition quite a number of these unlawful contrivances for making money from the unsuspecting and the unwary have been, to the great annoyance of the public, in full blast. If the law lived up to these matters more fully than it seems to do at present, these human parasites would be prevented from preying upon the youth of the land in emptying their pockets of money and in producing demoralizing effects on their minds."

Perfectly Lovely.

Do not fail to see the large display of Triangle Dyes and the samples of cloth dyed therefrom at the exhibition this week. You may judge for yourself how perfectly lovely the colors are. See the fashionable shades at J. G. King's. W. J. Wilson and Wilson Bros. Hats.

Dr. C. W. Benson's Celery and Chamomile Pills are prepared expressly to cure and will cure Headache of all kinds, Neuralgia, Nervousness and Dyspepsia. Proved and endorsed by physicians.

It is said that among the Chinese the Larvæ of Insects are used medicinally to give strength to feeble; Caterpillar Syrup they consider a specific for Bronchitis; Dried Toads are taken to give tone to the system, while the horns of the rhinoceros, the bones of tigers, the jaws of tigers, and the wings of hawks all have a place in the Chinese Pharmacopœia. A simple remedy containing well-known ingredients is nothing than let of by a pleasant, and their doctors seem to be quite of the same mind. How different it is with us outside barbarians in this respect, where the elegant preparation, of pleasant taste, composed of well-known and well-tried remedies, such as embodied in Robinson's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Lacto-Phosphate of Lime is not only sought after by the patient but is recommended and largely prescribed by the most intelligent physicians.

Gentlemen,—Having taken many doctored bottles of medicines for my wife, I have, we are glad to say, found nothing to do her any good as your Phosphorated Emulsion Compound.

Yours &c. JOHN BYERS.

For sale at Wade's drug store, corner King and Brock Streets, and the Pharmacy, W. J. Wilson, successor to Heath & Gunn, 166 Princess Street.
