THE NEW GOVERNOR.

Ohio, from being the banner State of the Union in the line of furnishing Republican Presidents, with the elections of Hayes and Garfield, has settled down to Democratic politics. The administrative defeat of last year has been repeated, and Ohio will have a Democratic Governor, the Hon. George Hoadley. This popular gentleman is a Cincinnati lawyer, who had served as Judge of the Superior Court, and refused two offers of a seat on the Supreme Bench that he might continue his private practice. Unfortunately he was one of the counsel who successfully resisted the effort to compel the reading of the Bible in the public schools. He was originally a Democrat, but his abhorrence of slavery led him into the Republican ranks, where he remained until the close of Grant's first term. In 1876 his opposition to Greeley's protection principles sent him back and he did efficient service under Tilden and Hendricks. He is keen and comprehensive in argument, and his periods are natural and forcible. He is a Unitarian, stands at the head of the Ohio bar, and is a vigorous defender of Civil Service Reform. His convictions are too rigidly maintained for Judge Hoadley to become an eminently successful politician, but his record as a man of intelligence and sagacity, his wit and his eloquence will always make him noted and popular.

THE PARISIAN HISSES.

The Paris populace is volatile in spirit and easily moved to demonstration, especially of the revolutionary order, but the ungracious reception of Alfonso was such a sudden eruption that it puzzled those who do not closely watch European affairs. And it is not so singular when explained, though no explanation can dissolve the gross insult to Spain or the almost unparalleled breach of hospitality.

From a pet of the French Alphonso has descended to the rank of an unwelcome visitor. He had spent a part of his life in Paris, thence he marched triumphantly to answer to the call to the throne of Spain. Next to his own country he was most identified with France, and was looked upon as a firm ally. Proportionately as he was favorably looked upon has been the disgust created in Paris by his recent acts. Alfonso went to Germany at an "awkward" time and against the will of his Ministers; he accepted the Honorary Colonelcy of the 15th Uhlans—the German regiment, of all others, the most obnoxious to Frenchmen on account of its war record, and being stationed at Strasbourg, in the heart of the lost territory—and, finally was on his way from Brussels, through Paris to Strasbourg, to review that regiment.

The apology of President Grevy has been published and is humble enough in all conscience for a proud nation like France to be forced to make. It may not yet satisfy Spain, and then to-day's despatches say that Germany may not feel satisfied even though Spain may be. The Franco-German war sprang from far smaller incendiary embers than are now flying between the three countries.

MISSION WORK.

Excellent as are the benevolent institutions of Kingston, from its hospitals down to its poor associations and church reliefs, there is still a want—a common centre. Each board, association, national society and church committee is working in its own independent way, and the applicant for relief can run down the whole scale and get relief from several contemporaneously without their being a bit the wiser. A premium is thus put upon pauperism, and inexperienced officers are doing the public a continuous injury by injudicious repetitions of benevolence. The chief magistrate of the city, to whom all impecunious strangers appeal for help, is powerless to help them except from his own pocket, and if he hands them over to the societies he does it with shame, feeling that the corporation does nothing toward that benevolence which ought to be its special mission and not a burden upon private purses.

But the means of relief, fitful and voluntary, can be much better husbanded than they now are, by a central officer, conveniently located, keeping a register of all benevolent grants, and of worthy and unworthy recipients, to whom societies and other dispensers could refer. In this way a more equitable distribution would take place, fraud could be more speedily checked, and duties and cares of the officers of the societies greatly lessened. The Poor Relief Association has made an humble beginning of such a plan through Mr. Jack, and the "Good Samaritans" have just sprung into organization here with a kindred object.

The subject is receiving attention in other fields. In an interesting book, published by the N.Y. County Company, called "The Christian League of Connecticut," Dr. Gladden has undertaken the subject practically. In every city a score of moral and benevolent interests of the community do not fall to the lot of any one body, and they cannot in their nature be done by the bodies working in their own field only. They must be done by joint action. The doing of these depends on a common moral sentiment, and on united counsel and labor. To this end co-operative planning and working are needed. Dr. Gladden's questions—whether these works should not be more directly organized and sustained by churches, in union efforts, and whether a more tolerant Christian spirit would not give them more power—are questions well worth our consideration.

IN HYMEN'S FETTERS.

Fashionable Wedding in Picton—A Charming Bride and Lovely Maids—Society Agog.

Society in Picton was all agog on Wednesday owing to the marriage of one of its favourites, Miss Belle Wilson, daughter of ex-Mayor Stewart Wilson, to Mr. David Swinton, formerly of Kingston, but now of the wholesale and retail stationery firm of Swinton & Reynolds, East Saginaw, Mich. The event had been looked forward to with much anticipation and when the day broke clear and bright many were the congratulatory remarks. The marriage service occurred in St. Andrew's Church at 2 o'clock, but long before that hour the cosy little edifice was crowded with an expectant multitude. The ladies were out in force and handsomely attired.

Before the hour announced the groom, accompanied by Messrs. J. G. Elliott and D. B. Mundell, of Kingston, entered the church and took their positions before the altar. Shortly afterwards the bridesmaids, Misses Bessie Gillespie and Helen Wilson, the latter the sister of the bride, arrived, followed by the bride leaning upon her father's arm, the organ in the meantime pealing forth a fitting wedding march. The bride looked charming, dressed in an olive green satin travelling dress with myrtle green plush basque, hat in accord. The first bridesmaid, Miss Gillespie, was attired in wine coloured silk with plush basque to match. Miss Helen Wilson wore a similar costume to that of the bride. All bore lovely bouquets.

The service was short, the matrimonial knot being effectually tied by Rev. W. Coulthard. The happy couple were then congratulated and wished an unclouded future by the numerous guests. The twain, who had been undecons, were at once driven to the station where they embarked for their future home, the intention being to visit several places en route. The guests returned to the residence of the bride's father where a dejeuner was partaken of, followed in the evening by a social hop.

Among those present from a distance were Mrs. Swinton, Simcoe; T. Howard, Bath; A. C. and Miss Johnston, Miss Gibson, Kingston; Mrs. O. Thompson, Miss Mabee and Miss Smith, Belleville, and many relatives. The presents were numerous, handsome and valuable. The couple start life with bright anticipations and it is trusted that their hopes will be more than fulfilled. The event was an important one to Pictonians as by it the town lost one of its most charming belles and a favourite with all classes. Mr. Swinton's numerous Kingston friends wish the couple a felicitous future.

CONVICT M'CABE SHOT.

His Attempted Arrest at Port Hope—In Self-Defence He is Shot by a Constable.

A telegram from Port Hope at 3:30 o'clock says: There was great excitement about noon yesterday. Information was received at the police headquarters here that McCabe, an escaped convict from Kingston Penitentiary, was lurking around town. Constable Rankin went to look for him, but was unsuccessful. About 11 o'clock last night word was sent to Mr. Rankin that the man was at the Turner House, and he immediately set out with an assistant to look after him. As soon as McCabe saw the constables were after him he and ran, Rankin following, and when about to lay hands on him he turned and drew his revolver and said if the constable came a step nearer he would shoot him dead. But Rankin was too sharp for him and shot first, killing the man instantly. The ball must have struck in a most vital part, for the burglar had not time to fire his revolver. It in his hand when picked up dead. There is no question if Rankin had not been successful in having the first shot he would be

WAS FOUND COCKED

IN THE DEAD BURGLAR'S POSITION.

The Constable immediately gave himself up and is now in the lock-up awaiting the action of the Coroner's jury which was to meet this morning.

The Bicyclists' Complaint.

There is apparently occasion for the complaint of the bicyclists that they have not been well treated by the Midland Fair Association. A sum of money, $70, was collected for distribution in prizes. The weather only permitted of one day's racing, the money won at which aggregated about $43. The other day some of the bicyclists asked to have the balance, $30, returned to the subscribers or expended in a new and city tournament. They were informed, however, that the sum to their credit was not so large as they had calculated, that $17 had been expended in putting the track in condition. They were at liberty to draw the balance of $13 but declined. The President took occasion to remark to one of the officers of the Association that next year the fair would be without the attraction of a bicycle race, that the present unfavorable experience would be remembered.

To-day Mr. J. B. Walkem, Reform, announced that the balance of $30 would be given in prizes for several newly arranged bicycle races in connection with the Queen's College sports on Tuesday. Mr. Walkem says that it really cost $17 to put the track in condition at the fair, but that this amount will not be deducted. He adds that when the first day's racing could not take place it was agreed that there should be but one day's competition and that $43 should be expended in connection therewith. The demand for the return of $30 was not made until afterwards. His decision will, no doubt, give satisfaction.

LENNOX ELECTION.

A. H. Roe Shakes a Farmer's Hand and a $2 Bill Unfortunately Sticks—Feeding Children.

Napanee, Oct. 11.—The trial of the Lennox petition against Sir John A. Macdonald opened here yesterday, Justice Armour on the bench. Messrs. Deroche and Madden, of Napanee, and Mr. Bethune, Q.C., appeared for the petitioners; and T. H. McGuire, of Kingston, and Mr. McCarthy, Q.C., for the respondent.

Stephen Davis, of Richmond, testified that A. H. Roe paid him $20 to get his boys to do all they could for Sir John. "I gave $5 to Peter, $2 to George, and $2 to Jefferson, and kept the rest myself, and told Peter that it was Mr. Roe's money," said he, "I paid my sons the money on election day at the polling place in the village of Roblin; I poked George's money in his pocket near Jim O'Brien's pump, for fear somebody would see me do it; he found the money all right." The witness went on and testified that Monday before the election he saw A. H. Roe feeding school children with bull's-eyes.

Riley Pringle said A. H. Roe paid him $5. Of this sum, $2 were at his own place. Roe told witness to "go and vote right." He asked for more, and received $3. Witness generally voted on the other side.

Byron McCann got $5 for his vote, and of course, from A. H. Roe. Witness said:

"I don't exactly know how it happened; he and I were standing side by side and he quickly slipped it into my hand; he wanted me to vote for Sir John. I said after I got the money I would vote for Sir John.

MONEY WAS GOING PLENTY,

as I thought, and I asked him for $5 or more. I heard money was going and I thought I would have a share. I voted after getting the money. Roe was at my place one time and said he did not give me any money. This was about a week ago last Monday. He said, 'Did I give you any money?' I said, 'Of course you did, Mr. Roe.' He said, 'I don't think so.' I said, 'I know better, you did. I will not swear to a lie for any man.'"

Daniel McAuley was paid $2 by Alex. Hewitt the night before the election "to vote for John A. Macdonald, as he thought he was the best man in Canada."

Edward Deline was called on charges 28, 29 and 30—that Jacob Deline, Robert Deline and Edward Deline, of Richmond, were paid by Roe the sums of $20, $2 and $5 respectively. He said: "I was a voter at the election. I saw Mr. Roe and James McConnell at my father's house. I saw him on polling day and shook hands. The previous time something stuck to my hand and I put the hand in my pocket and something dropped off. I found afterwards that it was $2. I did not look at it until about an hour afterwards. I would have looked at it before if it had been a proper place. Roe shook hands with me at my father's door. Mr. Roe was to see me. Since I was subpœnaed he asked me if I had got any money, and I told him how it was. He was enquiring for another man, and I said I was subpœned. He said that's all right."

John Babcock, of Ernesttown, was called upon charge 77—that he was paid $1 by Isaac Aylsworth. He said: "Mr. Aylsworth is a supporter of Sir John. He paid me $1 on election day. He owed me $1 for some work I had done for him, it might have been five years or more before that. I asked him that day to pay me. I had never asked him for this money before. I think he asked me how I was going to vote. I said I would vote for John A. if I voted for anybody. Shortly afterwards I asked him for the money for the work I had done. He paid me. I could hardly tell what the work was or when it was done. Mr. Aylsworth was Reeve of the Township at the time.

The above are the chief points brought out so far.

SIR JOHN UNSEATED.

This afternoon we learn that the election of Sir John A. Macdonald, in Lennox, was avoided owing to bribery on the part of an agent named Hewitt, who bribed a man named McCarthy by the payment of $2. Both the bribed and briber admitted having been implicated. The defence was unable to rebut this evidence. Roe said he was prepared to rebut all the charges against him, but the avoiding of the election made it impossible. Mr. McCarthy wanted to put Sir John in the box to remove any imputations that might be made against him, but the Judge considered it unnecessary.

LATER INFORMATION TO HAND.

A special telegram to the WHIG at 4 p.m. said: The Lennox petition case was continued this morning, and after the evidence of several witnesses Mr. Dalton McCarthy, for Sir John Macdonald, acknowledged bribery by agents and said there was no use continuing the case unless personal charges were to be gone into. After a few minutes' consultation the petitioner's counsel, Mr. James Bethune, Q.C., said they would allow the personal charges to drop. The Judge then declared the Lennox election void. Mr. Bethune made application to the Judge for a summons against A. H. Roe, M.P.P., and Elijah Starr, to prove the various charges in the evidence. This privilege was granted. The court then adjourned.

The Late Mrs. Machar.

At the monthly meeting of the Orphans' Home Committee, on Tuesday, the following resolution was passed:

Moved by Mrs. Chown, seconded by Mrs. Macnee, and resolved: "The Committee of the Orphans' Home and Widows' Friend Society desire to take advantage of their first meeting subsequent to the death of Mrs. Machar to place on record an expression of their deep regard for her and of their heartfelt sorrow in losing so valued a counsellor and successful a worker as she has been from the foundation of the Institution. The Committee have had long experience of the depth of her interest in the Home, and they feel assured that she will be followed to the grave by the regrets of many who, in some way or other, have been benefitted by her ministry, inasmuch as she has been 'a succourer to many.' The regret of the Committee in parting with so wise a friend is tempered by the remembrance that to her the change has been one of blessed character, from suffering to rest, from a world of sin to the presence of Him whom she loved and served through so long a period."

No Reception.

The Duke of Connaught's request that the authorities of Bombay should avoid the expense of giving him a public reception is possibly a concession to the outcry that has been raised as a consequence to the appointment of so young a soldier to the command of a division in the Indian army. Entering the service in 1868, he was made a Major-General only twelve years later, and now has $33,000 a year as his pay. The command of the Meerut division, which he has just assumed, is an important one.

It seems that among the Chinese, the Larvæ of Insects are used medically to give strength to feeble. Caterpillar Syrup they consider a specific for Bronchitis. A simple remedy containing well-known ingredients is nothing thought of by a patient, and their doctors seem to be quite of the same mind. How different it is with us outside barbarians in this respect, where the elegant preparation, of pleasant taste, composed of well-known and well-tried remedies, such as imbodied in Robinson's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Lacto-Phosphate of Lime is not only sought after by the patient but is recommended and largely prescribed by the most intelligent physicians.

The Excelsior Rupture Treatment was introduced to the American people several years ago by furnishing the remedy to those afflicted with Hernia in any of its forms and collecting no pay until permanent cure was effected. In this way the treatment gained a world wide reputation on its own merits, never failing to cure any reducible Hernia. The Company has placed the remedy on sale by all druggists in the United States, Canada and England, in this way bringing it within the reach of all classes at a trifling cost. Ask your druggist for a free book or send six cents for one to the Excelsior Rupture Cure Manufacturing Co., Ogdensburg, N.Y.

An Answer Wanted.

A Question.

How can we raise more corn to the acre. Why, of course by using Putnam's Corn Extractor. Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor has given universal satisfaction, for it is sure, safe and painless. Like every article of real merit it has a host of imitators, and we would specially warn the public against those dangerous substitutes offered for the genuine Putnam's Extractor. N. C. Polson & Co., proprietors, Kingston.

Important to the Ladies.

A brilliant shade of Plum and another of rich Dark Blue have quite taken the place of Strawberry in popularity. Use Triangle Dyes; they are the favorites everywhere. Ask for Triangle Dyes and take no substitute said, by unprincipled persons to be just as good, at King's, W. J. Wilson's & Wilson Bros. 10cts.

The public are cautioned against imitations of the Pain-Killer, and to be suspicious of persons who recommend any other article as "Just as Good"; many of these they make a little more profit upon, but which have no qualities in common with the PAIN-KILLER.

MARRIED.

On 29th September, 1883, at the Chapel of the British Embassy, Paris, by the Reverend A. F. Kirkpatrick, M.A., Regius, Professor of Hebrew, University of Cambridge and Canon of Ely, George A. Kirkpatrick, Speaker of the House of Commons of Canada, to Isabel Louise, youngest daughter of the Hon. D. L. Macpherson, of Chestnut Park, Toronto, Speaker of the Senate of Canada.

SOMETHING ABOUT FLOUR.

CHAPTER III.

We call special attention of the public to our GOLDEN CROWN FLOUR, made from the finest Manitoba wheat by the full patent process. Being much dryer than the ordinary flour, it will take in more water, and of course give more bread than a like quantity of ordinary flour. It is also much healthier, and is highly recommended to dyspeptic persons, being more easily digested. Neither in the great State of Minnesota nor in the Dominion of Canada can it be surpassed for WHITENESS and PURITY. The world knows no better.
