The Policeman's Rattle

It was a brave policeman who, on his steady beat
Did twig a burly burglar a coming up the street.
The burglar's coat was bulging with swag and silver pots,
And as the Peeler stopped him and asked a few hot shots

Look 'ere, said the policeman, a bunglin you have been
So come with me, my chicken. I mean to run you in.
That burglar took a blackjack, the policeman cried "Bullah,
You say that thing about me my chicken I will blow."

That burglar didn't tremble but said "No on old chap,
D'ye think for that there whistle I care a jolly rap."
He hit him with the blackjack, the peeler howled out in pain,
"I'll play my concertina if you'll me again."

He played the concertina, no fear the "Po" es pressed
But pulled out his revolver and aimed at bobby's breast.
Bold bobby recoiled and murmured "I'm going to a kingdom come,
But won't surrender quietly I'll beat upon my drum."

He beat the drum right loudly he played the cymbals too,
And the bus breath was hailing the ephemeris to blow
The struggle was unequal against the burglar's might
Nor big bassoon nor trumpet could make a decent fight

At last he gave face of and keepsun there he lay
Whilst burly at his supercharacter sped calmly strolled away
If burglars carry Bludgeons, six shooters and a dog,
How can a penny whistle protect a peaceful life?

OUT OF CLOUDLAND

SALVATION ARMY TROUBLES ENDED

CAPT. ABBIE WELCOMES THE SERGEANTS BACK TO THE RANKS

A Hallelujah Time on Saturday Night Witness of the Little Officer Yesterday Scene at the Morning Meeting Visitors Forbidden Admission The Clergy Speak Their Little Pieces A Hamilton Convert.

On Saturday night, at the meeting in Victoria Barracks, the nine dissenting Sergeants marched in and took seats upon the platform. There was satisfying evidence that the Captain and her soldiers were again united. Many wondered if Abbie had yielded. She did, and most gracefully. On Saturday the resigned non-commissioned officers wore in a state of glorious uncertainty. They were tempted to "branch out" on their own account, and they went so far as to make application for the City Hall for a public meeting on Monday evening. They did not desire, however, to be regarded as opponents of the Army, and so ultimately decided to await further developments. They came quickly, the haters conveying the announcement to them that they were, unconditionally free to take their places as soldiers in the Army. Some of them had resigned the Sergeancy and they could not, of course, assume the positions of non-commissioned officers. They are not anxious, we believe, to accept office, but they say they will be as active as ever in good works. During the evening documents were read by Mr. Bawden, stating that the Sergeants excuse Capt. Abbie from blame in introducing unpleasant features in the public services, and that a detailed statement of the finances would be made in connection with the opening of the barracks. Capt. Abbie was glad, apparently, to have thus reached the close of a week which had been fruitful of anxieties, though through them all she could say "hallelujah."

TAKEN ILL IN MEETING.

The morning meeting yesterday was well attended, and not a few expected to see Capt. Ryerson, of Belleville. They were disappointed. Miss Ryerson is coming on a visit but not until Tuesday, and it is not promised that she will stay for any length of time. Capt. Abbie was in command of the corps as usual, and suddenly paled, staggered and became silent. She decided to retire from the meeting, and would have fallen in the aisle but for friends. On reaching Miss Nelson's, Earl street, a physician was summoned. The Captain was found to have been attacked with remittent fever, and so serious was her case that visitors were not allowed to see and disturb her. Lieut. Rose told the people all about the case at the evening meeting. She remarked that Abbie had done what she could, that she had performed her duty, and fallen at her post. This was the ambition of every true soldier in the Salvation Army. The afternoon and evening meetings were largely attended, and as seriously and circumspectly conducted as the most exacting Sabbatarian could demand. "Salvation Rose" modestly occupied the chair. She is very gentle and not demonstrative, but she says she has been too—tho' not in Kingston. She is good natured but not humorous, but she managed to say some things that sounded like the utterances of her Captain. She had not the assistance of the band, but she had behind her those who did effective service in the vocal line under the leadership of Cutets Stephenson and Morrison. Most of the old Sergeants spoke, all declaring that they were living nearer to God and more determined than ever to fight for Him to the end. In the evening also Revs. Dr. Wilson and R. McKay spoke effectively. Dr. Wilson said he would willingly die if he could make one soul feel the joy which possessed him and Mr. McKay, quoting the case of Mann, the murderer, pointed to the terrible effects of disobedience. A convert of the Hamilton corps of the Salvation Army two weeks since gave a testimony which interested every one.

MORE LIVELY AND NOISY

SERVICES OF THE SERGEANTS.

On Saturday the Sergeants said they would hold special services on Sunday, and did so. Four of them went to the County Gaol at 8 o'clock, and had a service for the benefit of the prisoners. Mr. Moore conducted it, Mr. J. Stacey read the lesson, and Messrs. N. Pigeon and W. Shea made addresses. They moved one poor fellow to tears, and another, sentenced to the Central Prison, was equipped with a new testament and Salvation Army hymn book. At the House of Industry at 11 a.m. there was another service in which the nine Sergeants participated, also ex-bandsman Hatch and cadet Wooton. Two people were deeply moved and asked to be prayed for

COPY OF OFFICIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

While the Sergeants were holding a meeting in Miller's store on Saturday evening the following letter was handed in and read 82 Gore street, Saturday Eve'g.

To the Sergeants of the Salvation Army.

My Beloved Brethren—I am very glad to tell you that Capt. Abbie assured me to-day of her willingness to make go condition of any kind to your return to the Army—that you are free to come back as you wish, and immediately if possible.

May I ask you as one who loves you deeply to go back this night if possible, to show that the breach is healed and that we are one again in Christ.

May God bless you and keep you evermore.

Yours in Christ,
HENRY WILSON.

The Sergeants marched to the hall in a body and took places upon the platform. Mr. Bawden explained the situation of the young men, and at the same time read the following document, a copy of which had been sent to Capt. Abbie before the meeting.

To Capt. Abbie Thompson, in command of the 4th Canadian Corps of the Salvation Army.

The undersigned desire to state that they are satisfied from the examination made of the account of receipts and payments at this station, that the moneys have been expended properly upon charges connected with this station, and that the War Cry account is not in any way a charge upon the collections. The undersigned desire to renew their protestations of allegiance to the Great Captain of man's salvation and the work done in His name by the Salvation Army. The method of conducting the meetings here, in which they themselves have been blessed and have labored for the blessing of others, seemed proper to be continued without interruption. They wish to be not misunderstood. They do not question the liberty of any brother soldier of the Lord Jesus, but having regard to the Apostolic command, "Let all things be done decently and in order," they question the expediency of departing from the order which has prevailed here, and think that the remonstrance they have offered in a spirit of Christian love and with the sole desire of sustaining the grand cause so actively progressing in this city should be heeded. With earnest prayer that the Shepherd and Bishop of souls will guide you, and all officers of the Salvation Army, in the love that "thinketh no evil" to deal with this remonstrance which we offer solely from love to our dear ever blessed Redeemer.

We are, your faithful fellow soldiers in following Christ.

John Pigeon, Nat. Pigeon, W. Shea, W. J. Moore, Fred C. Miller, James Fowler, H. Hartman, J. Abernethy, J. Stacey.

The Sergeants then sang, "We will conquer sin and satan, hallelujah," following which each one gave his testimony.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

Capt. Thompson, A.D.C. to Major Moore, as well as Capt. Ryerson, will be here on Tuesday.

The barracks are well advanced. They will soon be finished.

Capt. Abbie will soon be leaving us. This fact she no longer attempts to conceal. We hope she will be thought as well of elsewhere as in Kingston.

There was another silver collection at the door last night. There was more copper than silver tendered, however, and the receipts were therefore scarcely half what they were a week ago.

The resigned Sergeants have taken the red brand and trimming off their clothing. Unless reinstated a new batch of officers will be necessary.

VICE-REGAL LIFE.

Experience of the Marchioness of Lansdowne—Her Relations in the British Parliament.

The Marchioness of Lansdowne has had considerable experience of Vice-Regal life. During the Vice Royalty of her father, the Duke of Abercorn, in Ireland from 1866 to 1868, she greatly assisted him in fulfilling the numerous and delicate social duties attached to so dignified a position and won golden opinions from all with whom she canvassed. A leading incident of the Duke's reign in Dublin was the visit of the Prince and Princess of Wales, and Lady Lansdowne owing to the fact of her father being a widower, presided with grace and dignity over the splendid festivities that marked the occasion. Since then she has visited Ireland several times, especially during the second Vice Royalty of the Duke from 1874 to 1878. Her father and husband both possess large estates in that country, the Duke of Abercorn holding no less than 93,000 acres in the counties of Tyrone and Donegal. Lady Lansdowne's mother was Lady Louisa Jane Russell, second daughter of the sixth Duke of Bedford, K.G. She thus inherits from her mother the blood of the noble and patriotic family of Russell while through her father she is descended from the ancient and illustrious house of Hamilton, of which the Duke of Abercorn is the head. The Marchioness also lays claim to noble French ancestry. Her father is the male descendant and representative of the Regent Arran, first Duke of Chatelherault in France, though this title was assigned by Napoleon III to his own kinsman, the twelfth Duke of Hamilton, grandson of the Grand Duchess of Baden, who was a Beauharnois.

Lady Lansdowne has three brothers well known in the House of Commons. The eldest, the Marquis of Hamilton, sits for Donegal, while Lord Claude and Lord Geo. Hamilton respectively represent the boroughs of Lyme Regis and the important County of Middlesex. The latter was Vice President of the Council in the Earl of Beaconsfield's last administration, and is a deservedly popular and young statesman.

Another daughter of the Duke of Abercorn was married at the same time as the Marquis and Marchioness of Lansdowne, to the Marquis of Blandford, eldest son of the late Duke of Marlborough and who is the present Duke.

"Can Speak Once More."

Physicians, as well as sufferers, who have been somewhat skeptical regarding the WOMAN'S FRIEND CURES exclusively by the exhalations of the inter-nebulized Proximate Principles existing in M. Souvielle's inventions, the Spirometre, for the cure of Catarrh, Catarrhal Deafness, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption, can be convinced, beyond doubt, by calling upon Miss Wray 420 Church Street, Toronto, where she is breathing relief, and by her at Preston, Ont., where she is a case of Laryngitis and Bronchitis with a strong family tendency to Consumption. There was a COMPLETE loss of voice, could not make the slightest whisper for over seven months, great weakness and debility, a severe cough, and night sweats, but now can speak with ease, her looking finely and healthy. You can converse with her and be convinced that the treatment by the Spirometre of this Institute and the use of the Spirometer is the only successful treatment for diseases of the air passages. You can also write to or talk with D. Bignell, of W. D. Bignell & Co., publishers, Toronto, who will tell you that he has been cured of the worst form of Catarrh, also Bronchitis, by the use of Dr. M. Souvielle's Spirometer and medicines. If you cannot call personally and be examined, write for one of questions and copy of "Internal News," published monthly, to 420 Church Street, Toronto, or 13 Phillips Square, Montreal.

Women as Students.

In an essay on women at a meeting of Dutch Reformed ministers in New York Rev. W. H. Ford, of Brooklyn, held that woman has the brain power and physical ability necessary to bear the mental strain and that there is a sufficient field for her to utilize whatever education she may obtain, and that the fact that female students at universities often break down is due more to the late hours they keep than because they are not physically capable of following the course.

That is what a great many people are doing. They don't just know what is the matter, but they have a combination of aches and pains, and each month they grow worse.

The only sure remedy yet found is SULPHUR AND IRON BITTERS, and this by rapid and thorough assimilation with the blood purifies and enriches it, and rich, strong blood flowing to every part of the system brings the wasted tissues, drives out disease and gives health and strength.

IMPORTANT TO STEAM USERS AND ENGINEERS

How to Keep Boilers Clean.

ANDREW'S PATENT AUTOMATIC BOILER CLEANER, when properly applied to a steam boiler, never fails to remove all

Muddy Deposits and Sediments

from water before they become baked into scale. The Cleaner is automatic and certain in its action, and will surprise a new boiler. A boiler kept clean means a saving in fuel and repairs, as well as a reduced liability to explosions.

Having the agency for this section of the country, we are prepared to fit them up and guarantee them to do all the patentee claims for them.
