What Though Clouds.

What though gloomy clouds should lower,
At the early morning hour;
What though tempests black and dread,
Rise at mid day o'er the head;
What though storms and wild winds stay
With us until the close of day.
If the sun has not set at night,
In a cloudless sky and bright?

What though each of earthly life
With many cares and grief are rife;
What though life's ambition be
Clouded by adversity;
What though troubles deep remain,
Until life begins to wane;
If our sun has not set at even,
Mid the joys unseen of heaven?

Passing a Resolution.

The following is a copy of a resolution presented to Mr. Jeremiah Snider by the Wilton Official Board, of the C. M. Church on the eve of his removal:

"Seeing that you have found it necessary to go from among us, we, the members of the Quarterly Official Board of the Wilton Circuit, take this opportunity of expressing our regret that you have thereby been forced to resign your position as Recording Steward of said Board, and to sever the ties that have so long bound us.

"Not only do we lose by your removal a very efficient officer and one who has performed the duties devolving upon him with faithfulness, but also a devoted brother in Christ with whom we have had sweet fellowship for years.

"While, however, we are sorry that in the order of Providence you cannot remain longer with us, we assure you that you have our hearty wishes for the future welfare of yourself and estimable partner, and whatever your lot may be cast our prayers will follow you.

"Our consolation in your removal is that our loss will be a gain to others, and that the Church of God will not be deprived of your Christian works and labours of love.

"Trusting that the Lord may richly bless you, and spare you yet many years to toil in his vineyard, we remain, your brethren in Christ."

Religious Rites Refused.

On Thursday last a family named Reynolds, from Thanet, who had lost an only daughter by death, about six years of age, brought the corpse to this village, says the Madoc Review, expecting to give it a Christian burial under the auspices of the Episcopalian Church. The officiating clergyman, Rev. Mr. Jones, of Ontario Diocese, on learning that the child had not been baptised, refused the body to go into the church or to have anything to do himself with conducting the burial service at the grave. The ministers of other denominations in town had then to be applied to, but all happened to be absent at the time, and the unfortunate father might have buried his child with as little ceremony as he would his dog had not E. B. O'Flynn kindly offered to read the burial service over the little one's grave. Before reaching the graveyard, however, Rev. Mr. Baker returned, and gave his services in giving the body a Christian burial. Rev. Mr. Jones may have been carrying out the dictates of his prayer-book, but he did a heartless and unchristian act, not sanctioned by the Christian members of the Church.

Nearly Concluded.

The interesting story, "My Marriage," will be concluded this week, and on Saturday we will begin upon E. P. Roe's last work, "His Sombre Rivals." It is historical in character, the scenes being laid during the American Civil War. It gives a spirited description of many of the scenes of the war, in which the principal characters were actively engaged, and shows the unhappiness of the finest characters without religion. The religious teaching is, however, far from prominent, and the temperance teaching is entirely neglected. Mr. Roe takes pains to do full justice to Southern motives and Southern valor, saying that it is time that men and women should be large-minded enough to recognize that "whatever may have been the original motives of political leaders, the people of both sides were sincere and honest."

Rise a Suspicion.

He was a bank teller. He had been sent off on a vacation, his books overhauled, and he had been found $9,000 short. This fact stared him in the face as he sat amidst the Board of Directors.

"Now, then," said the President, "I presume you acknowledge the embezzlement?"

"I do."

"And how did you use the money?"

"In speculating."

"In what?"

"Well, I was a bull in X, Y, Z railroad stocks, but there was too much against me. I did'nt have a fair show to make anything."

"Why—how?"

"Well, while I was using $9,000 of the bank's money to bull the stocks, the cashier was gaining me $20,000 to bear them, and so I lost all."

The Fat Girl's Corpse.

Immediately after the funeral ceremonies at Mount Olivet Cemetery the weeping Mr. Mowe went to Dr. Hill's office. He told the doctor, who he was and added: "I want to sell my wife's body. It may be stolen, anyhow." The doctor told him that he would give him $100. Mowe snapped at the offer. Mowe who went to New York immediately after the funeral, will be in Baltimore in a few days and be present at the disinterment of his bride, who in death as well as in life is a source of profit to him.

It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.—Made simply with boiling water or milk. Miscellaneous.

Plain Truths!

The blood is the foundation of life, it circulates through every part of the body and unless it is pure and rich, good health is impossible, if disease has entered the system, the only sure and quick way to drive it out is to purify and enrich the blood.

These simple facts are well known and the highest medical authorities agree that nothing but iron will restore the blood to its natural condition; and also that all the Iron preparations hitherto made blacken the teeth, cause headache, and are otherwise injurious.

SULPHUR AND IRON BITTERS will thoroughly and quickly assimilate with the blood, purifying and strengthening it and thus drive disease from any part of the system, and it will not blacken the teeth cause headache or constipation and is positively not injurious.

St. Johnsbury, Vermont Oct. 1st 1883.

For six years I have been a great sufferer from blood diseases, dyspepsia and constipation, and have used a dozen bottles of what I could not obtain anywhere in my section, at last I was induced to procure a bottle, and when hope had almost left me, I was induced to give Sulphur and Iron Bitters a trial. I am now taking the 6th bottle and have not felt so well in six years as I do at present.

MRS. S. L. MOORE.

SULPHUR AND IRON BITTERS effectually cures dyspepsia, indigestion and weakness, and renders the greatest relief and benefit to persons suffering from such diseases as kidney and liver complaints, dyspepsia, indigestion etc.
