

PUBLISHERS NOTICE. The Whig is published every evening except on Sundays and public holidays.

On the heels of Hon. Mr. Ross election comes the contest of Mr. Johnston, a Conservative, in West Middlesex.

The Berlin News has a new idea, a thought which comes as if by inspiration, and becoming so to a sort of spiritualist philosopher.

The Belleville Independent is fearfully indignant because Mr. D. W. Allison, in his address to the electors of Lennox, insinuates that the Tory Government is responsible for the drop in the price of wool and barley.

Up to the present some men have been unable to do much for their party in the late New York State election.

The Department of Marine has decided to present to Mr. Michael Troy, of Wells Island, a silver watch in recognition of his humane and praiseworthy actions in saving life in Lake Ontario.

The West Middlesex election will be remembered as the most exciting of any occurring in this year of grace.
