Daily British Whig.

The Canada School Journal points out that while phonography and telegraphy are part of the Kingston Collegiate Institute curriculum, in Toronto these most necessary arts can only be learned at considerable expense, and at independent places of instruction having no connection with the Public Schools or Collegiate Institute.

The Ottawa Citizen says it is more than probable that fewer changes than usual will be made in the tariff during the approaching session. From time to time certain modifications of existing regulations are demanded by the exigencies of trade, but these are dealt with to a great extent by order-in-council, so that very few changes of importance are on the tapis. It is said that glass will be allowed to come in duty free as there are no glass factories now in operation in Canada. They have proved failures.

According to the Mail, the laborers who went up to work on the Lake Superior section of the Canada Pacific Railway refused to take off their coats at $2 a day. The Mail does not state what wages these laborers were promised if they would go there. It is a fact that laborers have been enticed to that section of country by the inducement of large pay, which inducement on their arrival they found to be a myth.—Exchange.

We have it from one who has been on the spot that the case is more serious than the public are aware of. The Railway Company seem to have agents at work, and the business of these is to recklessly promise men permanent employment and high wages. Many have had the situation pictured to them in such a remote hue as to join the troop of west-bound navvies, much against the counsel of friends, and greatly to their own chagrin and disappointment. There is a great work to be done, and those who are employed receive good wages, as high as $2.50 and $3 per day, but scores reach the parts to which they are directed only to find that they are not wanted, and that they must endure privation and hunger long drawn out. What Kingstonians saw at Gravel Bay, where the schrs. Gleaner and Gaskin recently unloaded rails, need not be told in print. The story would not improve the popularity of the Syndicate or the Government by which it is financially backed.

THE MAYOR'S RUGABOO.

His Worship the Mayor has developed a taste for theatricals. He opened a scene in most tragical style in the City Council on Monday evening, and was so successful in creating a mock sensation in the chamber and the press that heartfelt regret will reign in the public and the Council over the positive announcement that he is about to retire again to the greater happiness and success of private life, and that his flirting with the Mayoralty of 1884 is over. Just as he has given those opening touches of dramatic skill and pictured the great possibilities of the man it seems hard indeed that he should withdraw. The City Council has long wanted such an element, for it has never had a fair mixture of light and shade in its performances. Comedy has ruled.

His Worship had "seen something" while he was a Police Commissioner that was "shameful and abominable"—and the Council all cried out for it, and he told his whole tale with great fervor, returning twice to the charge, to speak of the "shame" and the "pretty position for a Mayor," quibbling with the logical remark this he had not first to find with the other Commissioners, but only with the Mayor. The personal animus was unmistakable, but nevertheless it was very tragically done and it is a pity that even the stern logic of facts should step in and spoil the act.

The great complaint is that a contract for the supply of police uniforms was given for four years instead of for one year. It is such a terrible outrage that the public should know the facts. The police upon public parade had shown uniforms of almost as many shades as Joseph's coat of old. The want of uniformity was conspicuous. No two coats seemed to come from the same web, and with a view to encourage the keeping in the city of a stock of the proper goods, a contract was given for four years. Thomas Moore was the successful tenderer and Chas. Livingston & Bro. unsuccessful bidders. The Commissioners put the cloths to the closest test possible, and did not know until they had selected the patterns whose were chosen. If His Worship would like to know who sent the cloth with a shoddy look which peeled off as if it was a piece of birch bark, he has only to enquire of the Commissioners. The men were afterwards voted an average allowance of $45 a year for clothing, in place of the city furnishing clothing upon requisition, because it had been discovered that the latest uniforms had not been returned for Fall and Spring inspection, and that good police clothing had been made over for boys in a certain tailor shop.

The giving of a four years' contract may not be legal, but it was, at any rate, expedient and fig the benefit of the city. Some votes of the City Council in Mayor Livingston's time have neither been legal nor expedient. That there was anything but fair dealing, open and undisguised, it is not in His Worship's power to say. Where then is the shame and abomination?

The Mayor states that "tenders had always been advertised for year by year." Yet only once has an advertisement been inserted, and that was in the very year in question. As the Mayor implies and the News states that tenders for the four years' supply were not asked through the press, the subjoined advertisement, which appeared in the News of Oct. 6th and 6th, 1881, may furnish some proof of the truth and fair play they unitedly employ. We omit the conspicuous coat of arms from the top:

TENDERS FOR POLICE CLOTHING.

TENDERS will be received until TUESDAY, OCT. 11th, 1881, at noon, for the supply of such suits of winter and summer clothing as may be required by the City Police, as may be required for the ensuing four years.

Samples of goods, with prices to be furnished, Further information may be obtained by applying to the Chief of Police at his office.

By order of the Board of Police Commissioners.

Oct. 6th. S. B. HAWKE, Chief of Police.

His Worship will scarcely tax the credence of the public so far as to ask them to believe that he has only now made the fateful discovery upon the police books. The relations of father and sons, in business and at home, have been too close for this to happen otherwise than as a miracle. C. Livingston & Bro. tendered for the four years' supply, and the award was announced in the press. They complained grievously then just as they did two years previous, over their disappointment. It may be, however, that these circumstances are not so closely allied to the Mayor's outburst as may seem to some on the surface. Yet after showing such a want of interest in his position as Council's representative on the Board it is too much to expect us to accept his theatricals as the proceeds of purely public indignation.

HOME FROM HEATHENDOM.

Great Degradation of the Women in the Robinson Island—Their Fidelity to the Cause of Christ.

To-morrow evening, in Chalmer's Church, Rev. H. A. Robertson, a returned missionary, will deliver an address. Mr. Robertson, for the past twelve years, has labored in the Island of Erromanga, in the new Hebrides, in which John Williams and the brothers Gordon, from Nova Scotia, were cruelly murdered. He is on a year's furlough, having come home to procure a number of tombstones for the work. At the time he went to Erromanga, called the "Bloody Isle," there were only six real members of the church, and about sixty others who were favorable to Christianity. The murder of the Gordons had a disastrous effect, almost throwing the island into a civil war. During these troublesome times he, with his wife and family and the native converts, were forced to live continually on the watch within a palisaded enclosure. One of the most serious obstacles at first, even now, is the condition of the women. They are infinitely

MORE DEGRADED THAN MEN.

In their fellows they are purchased as the wives of full grown men, and the missionaries found the young women and girls the wives of old savages. While travelling over the island he was often pained to see the men, when they arrived at a stopping place, rush ahead and secure the best huts and good things, leaving the poor women to sleep outside under the eaves. At first, among the converts, it was very hard to persuade the men to allow their wives to sit on the forms. They were enraged also at the first cotton dresses which were worn by the women. He insisted that no one should be allowed to attend the services in the chapel except those who discarded the old grass kilts and appeared in civilized clothing. The husbands were greatly enraged at this, but at length they became reconciled. At present in church the men and women sat in different sides of the church. One of the great difficulties is to clothe the people. They can not buy clothes for themselves, and he found it impossible out of his his small salary to do much. So he and his wife had determined to give an opportunity to outsiders to practically testify their interest in the work by giving money or clothes. In the South Seas as in Canada he has always found and they had always remained faithful to him. In 1877 the island was visited by destructive hurricanes. At this time all the men but three left him, but the women gave him valuable assistance to repair the damage. The field is a large one and the climate splendid. The missionaries had now one thousand church goers, eight hundred readers and a large number of children under instruction.

THE WOMEN TRUE BUT WEAKER,

His visit to the Lower Provinces has been very encouraging. In ten days he raised $676. Shortly before he left the young men had also subscribed $20 for the purchase of a horse, $19 for the erection of a manse, and $6 for the Day-spring. But they still wanted more. Meanwhile things are going well on the "Bloody Island" and he feels sure that it will soon become one of the brightest gems in the Ocean's centre.

The Individual Opposition.
(London Advertiser.)

When Separate came during the term of the Mackenzie Government we were told that it was the duty of the Government to provide what for the people, that any Government that could not do so was composed of "dead on the wheel," and that the additional policy would cause towns to become cities and villages towns, opening up a larger market for the farmers, that capital and population would be attracted here, and that in short the resolution proposed by Sir John was a modern vision of the years full blest, promising plenty and prosperity to Canada, and holding out riches that we only needed to clutch at to possess. The Tories are not to be absolved from responsibility on the plea that, if they lied, they knew they were lying.

COUNTY COUNCIL.

Little Work So Far Accomplished—Remembering the City Charities with Liberal Grants.

Yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the Council met for its fall session. The Warden called the members to order. The following were present:

J. Adams, Portsmouth; W. Booth, Ops; G. Buck, Kingston; G. W. Dawson, Clarendon; George Dunnion, Portland; Robert Flynn, Olden; D. Grant, Wolfe Island; T. Hogan, Wolfe Island; J. McKenzie, Palmerston; McKeown, Hinchinbrooke; J. Morton, Portland; J. H. Quinn, Howe Island; R. S. Patterson, Pittsburg; J. Rutledge, Loughboro; R. Shannon, Storrington; T. Tapping, Barrie; J. B. Tett, Bedford; A. P. Vanluven, Kingston; D. J. Walker, Storrington; J. Williams, Kennebec; T. Whitney, Pittsburg; J. Woodruff, Loughboro.

PETITIONS, ACCOUNTS, ETC.

From Gilbert Vanvalkenburg and 18 others asking the Council not to grant a deed of the boundary allowance between lot No. 1 in the 1st con. Olden and lot No. 25 in the 10th con. Hinchinbrooke, to D. McLean as said allowance is required for a public road and the petitioners have done road work upon it.

From A. L. Morden, Napanee, touching the same matter.

No action was taken as the by-law had not been introduced.

A number of accounts were read and referred to the proper Committees to report.

A communication was read from the Inspector of Gaols regarding required improvements in the gaol.—Referred.

D. A. Givens was placed on the Board of Examiners for Frontenac in lieu of T. Gordon.

GAOL'S SURGEON'S REPORT.

A. S. Oliver, M.D., reported that the gaol had been in a healthy state. Two deaths occurred, one from old age and one from measles. The inmates in at present ill from remittent fever, the result probably of improper drainage under his quarters. The drainage could be remedied at slight cost. There are present in the gaol nine men and five women. All the women are old, decrepid or insane, requiring a good deal of attention. One man is idiotic. He has been in gaol for a long time awaiting transmission to the Asylum at Orillia, which is full at present. Since the last session of the Council the Surgeon had made 80 visits to the gaol.

The Council then adjourned.

WEDNESDAY MORNING'S SESSION.

The Council resumed at 11.30 o'clock. The Warden intimated that the Treasurer had sufficient security. He had three bondsmen—J. Richardson, Kingston; William Fralick, Napanee; and William Vanluven, Yarker. The bondsmen who had whispered around that the Treasurer was working on one surety were telling untruths.

A. P. Vanluven said he would not be a candidate for re-election, and if the county wanted a fourth surety he would be glad to become such next year.

The Council said there was sufficient security.

GRANTS TO CHARITABLE INSTITUTIONS.

It was moved by J. Hogan, seconded by R. Flynn, that the following sums be paid to the several charitable institutions in the city: General Hospital, $100; Orphans' Home, $50; Hotel Dieu, $50; House of Providence, $50; House of Industry, $50.

The resolution passed, after a little discussion. A. P. Vanluven was the only one who opposed it.

The Council then adjourned.

COMING CANDIDATES.

The Retiring Ministers of the County Council—Who will Probably be Again to the Front.

The people in the country are beginning to talk municipal elections. There will apparently be quite a number of retirements and faces now familiar in the Council Chamber, will be missed after the new year. The removal of G. W. Dawson, through press of business, will be much felt. He was a good worker and would have, ere long, graced the Warden's chair. The County Councillors, on enquiry, told us the following:

Mr. J. H. Quinn, Howe Island, will not be a candidate. Other names are not yet mentioned.

Mr. J. Adams cannot give any news in regard to Portsmouth's intentions.

Messrs. Patterson and Whitney will again seek honors in Pittsburg. Mr. S. Anglin will try for the Township.

Mr. J. Williams, for Kennebec, is undecided.

Mr. McKeown will again be a candidate for the Township of Hinchinbrooke. He will be opposed by J. Watson.

Mr. Robert Flynn, Reeve of Olden, has not decided what he will do.

Mr. J. Mackenzie, Reeve of Palmerston, is urged by his friends to come out again and will probably conform to their wishes.

Mr. D. J. Walker, Reeve, and Mr. S. Shannon, Deputy Reeve, of Storrington, will look for re-election.

Mr. Dunnion, Portland, retires. He answers to Harrowsmith and Mr. J. Morton will be a candidate for the Township. A Deputy Reeve has not been named.

Mr. J. B. Tett, Reeve of Bedford, finds business so pressing that he must retire from the Council. The man will be either Mr. John Aitcheson or Mr. James Wilson.

Mr. Thomas Tapping, the "gale and man," will not wrestle for the Township of Barrie. He is not now in attendance.

"Everything is quiet on Wolfe Island" said a municipal legislator. The present occupants of the positions, T. Hogan and D. Grant, will probably take the field again.

Mr. G. W. Dawson, Reeve of Clarendon, retires in order to properly attend to his business. The contest for the Township will probably be between B. Watkins, late Reeve, and John T. Howell, a Councillor.

Mr. A. P. Vanluven, Reeve of Kingston, announces his intention to retire. Mr. J. L. Haycock or Mr. Wm. Craig will run for the position. T. Buck will try for Deputy Reeve.

Mr. J. Woodruff, Reeve of Loughboro, and the Deputy Reeve, Mr. J. Rutledge, desire re-election.

Mr. W. Booth of Ops, retires.

An Explanation Offered.

The Editor, British Whig.

Dear Sir,—The case of Mrs. Briggs, of Cataraqui, which was before the Police Magistrate at Toronto of last week, calls for some explanation.

Had the parties who laid the information telegraphed to Mr. T. H. McGrire, of Kingston, Q.C., they would have learned that the matter was in his office, the money for the deed in his hands, instead of this they communicated with Mr. McIntyre, who had of course no other reply to make, than that he did not know Mrs. Briggs, nor was any money in his hands. Hence fraud was suspected, and an arrest ordered. So soon as the facts were known, the court apologized to Mrs. Briggs, and the case was dismissed.—Yours truly,

A Witness in the Case.

PREDICTION COMES TRUE.

A Man Says He Will Die at a Certain Time, and, Lying Down, Does So.

Ashurn, M.E., Nov. 14.—Lafayette Cook, an eccentric citizen, recently predicted that he would die on Nov. 11. On Sunday morning he remarked that he would never eat another breakfast with his family. He appeared to be in unusually good health. In the afternoon he went out for a walk. Returning he said he would prepare himself for the coffin, which he did. Then he bade his relatives good-bye, laid down on a lounge. He soon fell asleep and sank into a stupor from which he could not be aroused. A physician was summoned, but the man died. On Monday morning a post-mortem disclosed no evidence of poison.

SHENANDOAH FIRE.

Five Acres of Desolate and Smouldering Ruin—500 Families Homeless.

Shenandoah, Pa., Nov. 14.—To-day the streets were crowded with people viewing the ruins of the great fire. The burned district covers five acres. The work of rebuilding has begun in many parts. The majority of the business houses had no insurance and lose everything. Mrs. Philip Wolf, rescued from a burning building, died from freight. George Healon, who had his legs cut off by a coal train, died this morning. George Whitaker had his leg broken this morning while removing articles in the burning ruins. Patrick Delaney is so overcome with fright that he cannot recover. Jerry O'Neil, one of the firemen, received serious injuries. By actual count two hundred houses have been destroyed and five hundred families are homeless and destitute.

NEW YORK MARKET.

A Flurry in St. Paul and Manitoba RR Stocks—Big Declines in Their Value.

New York, Nov. 14.—The feature of the stock market this morning was the drop in Manitoba from 108½ to 103. It is said that there have been a Western selling of the stock for two weeks. This morning there were orders to sell at the best price and some room traders got wind of the orders and helped to mark the price down. The Company's earnings continue to fall off and the Company is in trouble with the Fargo Southern. Near mid day the stock rallied to 104½. The general market declined ½@1½ in sympathy. At noon there was a fractional rally.

Encouraging to Dyspeptics.

Charlottetown, P.E.I., Nov. 11, 1878.

Mr. J. H. Robinson, St. John, N.B.

Dear Sir,—My boy, almost an accident, early this spring, being confined to my room for nearly three months, and during this time I was under the combined care of three of the most eminent physicians of Charlottetown, and by them and my friends given up as beyond all power to help me. Dr. Bakon, of Moncton, having occasion to call upon me on business, very naturally observed my state of health, and after fully describing my trouble, which by the doctors attending me was pronounced Dyspepsia or Indigestion, in fact I was so bad I could only eat brown bread, and that after being soaked at least three days, white tea, coffee or milk I dare not touch, and a slice of dry toast would inevitably give me the utmost distress. Dr. Bakon recommended "Robinson's Phosphorized Emulsion," and I feel that I owe the public a debt which can only be paid by saying to all sensibly afflicted, "Go thou and do likewise." "Try Robinson's Phosphorized Emulsion." To-day I am hearty and strong, and can, without fear, indulge in all the luxuries of a first-class hotel.

Yours, etc.,

(Signed) J. McKECHNIE.
