

PUBLICATION NOTICE.
SHEPHERD'S BAGGAGE.
LONDON: 15, Abchurch Lane, E.C. 4.

Two days ago we took occasion to point out that the better treatment of Jews was a duty incumbent upon the Government, and that recently Jews in this city had not been properly treated. No reflection was passed upon the country, none was intended as any intelligent reader would have perceived.

SCOURING THE FARMERS.
The Reform candidate in Lennox does not say that he is a free trader, but he complains that the farmers do not get a high enough price for their produce.

A WITTING CRITICISM.
What an amusing paper would it be if it were written by a man who had been in the front ranks of the Liberal cause in 1848.

HIGH-PRICED INDIANS.
A Very Serious Threat which the U. S. Government has made to the West.

TRUTH WILL OUT.
A Young Woman's Disposition and What She Will Do About It.

COLLEGE STATE AID.
Hon. E. B. Hale, Chancellor of Toronto University, is said to have intended that the province had done nothing to assist in the maintenance of a non-denominational college.

COURT OF REVISION.
Decisions in the Cases of Two Works Yesterday—Reading Through Books.

AN OPPORTUNIST'S FAILURE.
New Brunswick, N.J., Nov. 15.—The Novelist's Club has failed; liabilities $12,000. Four hundred hands have been discharged.

PLEADING FOR PEACE.
Berlin, Nov. 15.—Germany will send a special envoy to Peim to exert his influence on behalf of a peaceful solution of the trouble between France and China.

CONDENSED TELERGRAMS.
Last Night's and To-day's Reports Condensed for Our Busy Readers.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.
His Body Removed from the Parapet to Prevent Grave Robbing.

ERRINGTON'S MISSION.
What an Irish Journal Says is to be the Church Weekly Mission?

O'DONNELL'S TRIAL.
General Report of Hearing His Acquittal—Declared to be an American Citizen.

A DEATH FORETOLD.
A Party's Actions—A Trance and What It Clearly Foretold.

Berlin, Nov. 15.—The Government will ask for a grant to build 30 torpedo boats.

MANAGERIALLY STABBED.
Paris, Nov. 15.—During a street row here four Englishmen, mistaken for Germans, were dangerously stabbed. The assailants escaped.

LOVE AND THUNDER.
San Francisco, Nov. 15.—A month ago Assisi DeLafayette was married to a rich heiress by the name of Mrs. Parsons. Yesterday she invited a former lover to the house and took poison in his presence.

SCOURING MR. LEVY.
Atlanta, Nov. 15.—The ladies of Macon have refused to appear at the grand musical festival here with Mr. Levy, the corner player, because he recently made heartless statements about Mrs. Tovar and his abandoned wife in England.

WHAT A YOUNG MAN.
The jurors had a terrible night. When the Court adjourned they were taken into a room and given bread and cheese, then they were put back in the court room and given another trial.

A BRUTAL FELLOW.
The Result of Jealousy—Beating on Agent Man Almost to Death.
