

DAILY BRITISH WHIG logo and masthead information.

The News on the tariff question now seems as we did in 1878. We are glad to see it so.

The Conservative organs are an exception against A. H. R., M.P., on the Liberal paper. For instance the Burlington News, of the political complexion of which there can be no doubt, says: "We would not refuse to support even a Whig."

NORTH-WEST DISCONTENT. The newspapers of Manitoba and the North-West are voicing the discontent of the people which has long existed and seems to be increasing.

It is feared that the large Ryan has been lost with all hands. The Ryan was in tow of the steam barge Ohio in Sunday night with the Johnson, but during the gale the vessel was forced to separate.

ARRIVAL OF THE BARRETT. The opening of the barretts on Queen Street to-morrow will be another step toward the Salvation Army. Less than a year ago they came here and since then have won the confidence of the people, and the high barretts is one of the results.
