Daily British Whig.

Ireland has given a remarkable instance of honor to an actor. The most popular and profitable thing now-a-days is to be a good performer. Barry Sullivan, the tragedian, on arrival at Cork on Monday to open a short season, was met by the Mayor, High Sheriff, Corporation and a large crowd of citizens, who presented him with an address of welcome. He was then conducted to an open carriage, and paraded through the principal streets, preceded by bands and followed by a large concourse of people. There was also a torchlight procession to his house. In one evening in London, this month, while playing as Pauline, Mary Anderson was seven times called before the curtain.

HOW TARIFFS WORK.

Sir Charles Dilke was very warmly received upon a recent visit to Paisley, Scotland, and when voted the freedom of the burg, special stress was laid upon his services in connection with trade, especially in regard to the French treaty. Sir Charles, in reply, stated the difficulties encountered in the negotiations for a new treaty. The propositions of the French Government were far short of the necessities of international trade. It was willing, indeed anxious, to take on worsteds for one, and on cotton printed goods for two, protectionist towns. That England's interests were well guarded in the negotiations has been plainly shown in the fact that cotton and woollen exports to France have increased, worsteds alone falling off. Indeed cloths, cassimeres and other milled tissues of wool have been developed from 9½ million francs to 34½ millions. Lately France has been driven to the free admission of some wools for export manufacturing. The chief French manufactories are strong enough to hold their own everywhere, if braced by the free air of open competition. But, as it is, their cotton industry is dwindling, and even their great woollen industry is not thriving as it would thrive if it cast off crutches and walked alone. The cheap cookery of France is wretched, and a great agricultural country allows itself to be seriously hampered in this way for a very doubtful benefit to a small trade.

LENNOX REDEEMED.

For hours there was doubt as to the result of yesterday's election in Lennox, but that doubt no longer exists. Mr. Allison has been elected by but a small majority—only four at the present writing—but it is large enough for all practical purposes. We cannot measure the influences that have been employed by the friends of the Government, but we are quite satisfied that the devices of Sir John and Sir Leonard and the rest of the corrupting crew have been exhaustive, and that the election of Mr. Allison means much more to a party sense than Conservatives will now be willing to admit. Their candidate was not personally as strong nor as powerful as the standard bearer of the Liberal party, but he was, as the friends of Mr. Uriah Wilson remarked, quite busy, he had the aid of the best missionaries the Government could furnish, he had the benefit of the local railway influence and a huge bribery fund in the distribution of which very "canny" but notorious persons were busily engaged. After all he was defeated, just as Sir John would have been defeated in June, 1882, had Mr. Roe and his associate bribers not been so flush of $4 bills.

The constituency has been redeemed so far as the Commons are concerned. The blot placed upon its escutcheon by the election of Mr. Roe must now be removed, and that right speedily. Lennox is Liberal in sentiment, and none but a Liberal can represent it if the corrupters can only be held in check. Sir Richard Cartwright, of all the Liberals who have fought the invading force of Government hacks, will be entitled to honor. He has done a yeoman's service, and he has proven that he has the personal power and influence of which the more rabid and bitter of his opponents have (in their minds) deceived him. He has not been met in a manly way by his detractors. They would not face him in Napanee, they dare not with him discuss the questions of the day, but he has the satisfaction of knowing that his exposure of their trickery and trafficking has had its good effects. He has whipped the enemy badly in Lennox, and he will whip it again when he goes to West Huron shortly for election. His star is certainly in the ascendant.

Placing Off of Ties.

There was a meeting of the Managing Committee of the Central Football Association held in Pickering on Saturday. It was decided to allow another week to the groups to conclude the group champions. On Saturday, Dec. 8th the final games for the Association championship will be played in Kingston. In the morning the contest will be between Queen's College, Kingston, and Cobourg or Bowmanville, as the case may be, and in the afternoon the winners of the morning game will play the last match with Knox College, or University College, or Whitby, as may be decided by the matches of the present week.

A Young Jockey.

The jockey, Martin, who won the Cesarewitch is only 13 years old, and still goes to school, and, according to good English sporting authority, his earnings for the present year will not be less than $20,000. For the Cesarewitch alone he received $3,000. Many middle-aged lawyers, clergymen, doctors and judges would be glad to earn a third as much as this youngster. Of the riders, like Archer and Cannon, are independently rich. But the man who pays than 13 year old jockey to be became a perfect light weight jockey is harder to find than an average preacher or philosopher, besides being more useful on a race course.

A TEARFUL FAREWELL.

Paying to Capt. Abbie a Last Visit—How She Acted and What She Had to Say.

Capt. Abbie Thompson sat in her cosy little room on Earl street this morning when the WHIG representative presented his card and received a welcome.

Heaps of albums, photographs and such works lay beside and around her. These belonged to various persons in Kingston, and were left there that the Captain might write her autograph upon them. "I don't know what to put in this," said Abbie as she handled a beautifully embossed album, but she scribbled off her name and laid it aside. Her eyes were swollen and red. She had been weeping out her parting sadness. But amidst her sorrow she had a desire to appear quite pleasant and happy. She had but few additional words to say to her friends. She parted with many

FOR WHOM HER HEART ACHED.

To see them saved, she said, would be her greatest delight. For that she had prayed and wept, and still they were obdurate. She deeply regretted leaving the city, as she had spent many of her happiest days here.

During our short stay the door bell incessantly rang, and many came in to bid the Captain "au revoir." All were advised "to get saved and then God would bless them."

SEEKING A LITTLE CONSOLATION.

As the reporter was about to leave a letter came in and Abbie remarked, as she read it, "Oh, I get lots like this." It was from one, who, when a young man, had secured his peace with God, but now, having lost his hold on spiritual things, was in dark despair. He sought a word of comfort from Abbie as he then had no hope of entering heaven. "These messages," remarked the Captain, "come in in loads. Sometimes they send stamps for my replies, sometimes they are not so mindful. All are in despair and seek consolation."

ROCHESTER HER NEXT STATION.

Abbie goes from Kingston to Philadelphia, where she takes part in a big "go" on Thanksgiving Day, (Thursday.) Then, after a few weeks' travel, she returns to Newark, N.J., her home, where she will spend a long holiday. It is generally understood that her next station will be Rochester, N.Y.

Abbie smiled, and yet the tears welled to her eyes as she thanked the local press for its treatment of her. Her anxiety now is to secure the support of the Rochester reporters.

A SAD, SAD MEETING.

The private meeting of the officers of the Salvation Army with the soldiers of that Army last evening was a very sad one. Capt. Abbie cried, so did Lieuts. Rose and Mary, and some of the corps sobbed as if they would break their hearts. Scores testified that the Army had led to their salvation.

TAKING A FAREWELL LOOK.

The ferry wharf was jammed with people. Locomotion was dangerous. The band, specially organized for the occasion, played Salvation tunes while the Captain and her Lieutenants passed along the wharf, grasping the hands of all extended towards them. A large party were on board to see her safe to the American side. The three officers mounted the hurricane deck and as the boat moved out Abbie's last words were short and sweet, "Be good!" Amid the waving of handkerchiefs and cheers the company on land bid the ladies "God speed." As long as they could be seen the waving of linen continued, and after that the notes of the band came floating over the channel: "We shall meet beyond the river." Hundreds of regrets were expressed at the removal of the officers, and fervent prayers will be said in their behalf. Good-bye, good-bye.

LENNOX ELECTION.

Local Interest in Its Electors and Scrutineers From Kingston—In a Glee.

The election in Lennox County has been a hot one, as the result shows. The constituency seems to have been besieged with missionaries, those representing the Dominion Government being "well heeled" and not too scrupulous as to what they did and said. A number of electors went from Kingston and also a number of scrutineers. The returns were largely canvassed here, and at 9 o'clock when the telegraph office closed the issue was a doubtful one. Allison having majorities aggregating 89 and Pruyn 94. The first message this morning left the result still in uncertainty. It read: "Allison has a majority of 10, with Amherst Island to hear from." At 10.30 o'clock Messrs. J. A. McMahon and J. H. Metcalfe arrived in the city. They reported that Pruyn had a majority of 7, and that Allison was elected by about 3 votes. Mr. Metcalfe was a busy worker on the Island from Saturday, and Mr. McMahon crossed to it from Bath yesterday morning. He was two and a half hours in crossing the channel in a row boat and was tossed about in an angry sea. He has no desire to repeat his experience in such a storm.

PERSONAL MENTION.

How People we Know are Spending Their Time—Their Coming and Going.

J. A. Proctor, a Toronto politician speaker for Mr. Allison, lost his traps at the Campbell House fire in Napanee.

—E. Rose, Q.C., has been appointed to the judgeship rendered vacant by the elevation of Justice Osler.

Miss Kirchhoff, who sings at St. Andrew's concert on Friday evening, is a famous vocalist. Her voice is sweet, clear and powerful, and possessed of a marvellous compass.

Lt.-Gov. Robinson, Toronto, and his A.D.C. Capt. Geddes, arrived in Montreal this morning. His business is of an important character and he will return home to-morrow night.

Hon. G. A. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick arrive here to-night. They will be surprised at the reception they will be sure to get at Cape Vincent from the Salvation Army.

LENNOX ELECTION.

Mr. Allison Elected—A Great Change—Big Tory Majorities Swept Away.

Napanee, Nov. 26.—Mr. Allison is elected. It has been a hard fight for Reformers against heavy odds. Messrs. Boultbee, of Toronto, and Mackintosh, of Ottawa, have been here directing the campaign the past few days, and used the same arguments as in Muskoka. Late last night (Sunday) the Tory Committee rooms were in full operation under the direction of these men, and early this morning they were again on the qui vive, and parties were seen issuing therefrom with mysterious packages. Reformers are jubilant over the result.

Returns not in presentable shape; they will not tally with the total as sent by special message, and must be held over for verification. Allison is said to be elected, however, by 3 or 4 of a majority.

SUPPER TO VISITORS.

The True Blues, of Napanee, Entertained by their Kingston Brethren.

Yesterday evening some fifteen young gentlemen arrived from Napanee, and became the guests of the Kingston True Blues. The visitors belonged to the "No Surrender Lodge, No. 88." Last evening, after the regular meeting of the lodge, the members and their guests retired to the hostelry of Mr. Samuel Thornton, where an elaborate supper awaited their attention. About fifty persons were in attendance, including the following Grand Officers: Miles Plumley, Napanee, Grand Lecturer; E. Traynor, Associate Grand Lecturer; J. Dennison, Associate Grand Chaplain. The collation was agreeably enjoyed, after which several hours were happily spent.

Toasts were frequent. "Queen Victoria," "King William III.," "The Principles of the Order," the "Sister Lodges," "No Surrender Lodge, Kingston," "The Press," etc., being very heartily received.

The speeches of the evening were made by Messrs. Plumley, Napanee, and Davies, Montreal.

Recitations by James Perry, representing the 'Prentice Boys, and songs of a lively character, were rendered by Messrs. Brisco, Mctill, Cockburn, Schryver, Hatch, Stacey and others. The company, after drinking "mine host and hostess," about 12.30 o'clock, dispersed.

Both the Kingston and Napanee lodges are in a flourishing condition. The members are young men whose devotion to the principles of the Order is very conspicuous.

VATICAN AFFAIRS.

A Papal Nuncio for America — What His Chief Mission Really is.

Rome, Nov. 27.—The report that the Papal Nuncio would be sent to the United States probably arose through a misapprehension of the fact that the Vatican thinks of sending Monsignor Sepiacci to preside as an Apostolic Legate at the Council to be held in America in 1884. The American Bishops are here to make arrangements for that Council. Mgr. Sepiacci may remain in America to carry the labours of the Council into effect and afterwards to maintain direct communication between the Vatican and the Church in America. The question of re-opening diplomatic relations between the Vatican and America has not been mooted.

HUNTING FOR ARTHUR.

A Kentuckian Goes to New York for the Purpose of Shooting the President.

New York, Nov. 27.—A man about 65 years of age was found prowling around the corners of Fifth Avenue Hotel yesterday. When told to leave by Detective Pryor he walked to the stairway and shouted, "I am a Colonel from Kentucky and I made this trip east for the express purpose of shooting President Arthur." As he uttered these words he touched his side pockets significantly, called a cab and drove away. Pryor says he firmly believes the stranger would have assassinated the President had he seen him. He did not appear to be a crank.

WOLFF'S INFERNAL MACHINES.

They Would Certainly Have Gone off Had They Not Been Discovered.

London, Nov. 27.—The Times says it is now considered certain that Wolff's infernal machines would have been used against the German Embassy within a few hours had they not been seized. Their effect would have been similar to the explosion at Praed Street. It is believed that the plotters were only anxious to produce alarm.

A VILE MURDER.

The Woman Makes a Full Confession—Her Judicial Father's Last Counsel.

Dartwood, Wis., Nov. 27.—Mrs. Ellen Long has confessed that she murdered Harvey Whitmore, the son of the man with whom she kept up an illicit intercourse. She says nobody helped her to commit the deed. She insists that there was no motive for the deed. The woman confessed at the instance of her father, Judge Myers, who hopes to gain the leniency of the court.

It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. A RIGHT ESTABLISHED.

Toronto, Nov. 27.—The Court of Common Pleas has confirmed the Police Magistrate's sentence of imprisonment on a woman charged with keeping a house of evil repute. This establishes the right to convict on bad reputation alone and is a point in favor of the crusade against vice.

AFFAIRS IN EGYPT.

Cairo, Nov. 27.—Baker Pasha starts for Suakim in ten days to take command of the Soudan expedition. The Khedive received despatches from the chiefs in the vicinity of Berber protesting the fidelity of the Egyptian Government. He has received no communication from the Porte concerning Soudan.

BETTY AND THE BABY.

They Have Become a Trifle High Toned—Mrs. Mason Sues Mr. Mason.

Albany, Nov. 27.—Sergeant Mason's pardon has not yet arrived. A prison official said yesterday that during his incarceration Mason and his wife had frequently quarrelled by letter. Mrs. Mason, elated by the small fortune obtained by means of "Betty and the Baby" fund, acted in a somewhat foolish manner. Though a portion of the money she obtained was wisely employed in making repairs and additions to their cottage in Locust Grove, Virginia. The larger part was devoted to unnecessary embellishments of the place and the extravagant adornment of Betty's person.

Washington, Nov. 27.—The official document states that President grants pardon to Sergeant Mason for good and sufficient reasons.

EVACUATION DAY.

A Great Sight at New York—British Powder for the President's Salute.

New York, Nov. 27.—There were few accidents reported yesterday. Gen. Wm. Tidball fell from a car, dislocating his knee. A number of pickpockets were arrested. The land procession was eight miles long, and there were four miles of steamboats in line. The artillery salute, with which the President was greeted on his arrival at Stark's wharf, was fired with British powder. The Committee of Arrangements neglected to furnish powder, and at the last moment a supply was obtained from the Captain of the English steamship Bolivia. The President returned to Washington at midnight. It is estimated that there was 200,000 strangers in the city.

QUARREL AND MURDER

Tracing the Story of the Crime With Blood Upon the Door-Step of One's Home.

London, Nov. 25.—William Brown, a medical student residing in Lanarkshire, Scotland, quarrelled with Miss Spiers, his intended, last night on the highway near her house, accusing her of unfaithfulness. He cut her throat, stabbed a maid servant who rushed to her assistance, and then cut his own throat. All three are dead. Before dying the servant dragged herself to the house and knocked faintly at the door, but receiving no reply traced with bloody fingers on the door-step the words, "Willie did it."

Encouraging to Dyspeptics.
Charlottetown, P.E.I. Nov. 11, 1878.
Mr. J. H. Robinson, St. John, N.B.

Dear Sir,—By, I may say, almost an accident, early this spring, being confined to my room for nearly three months, and during this time I was under the combined care of three of the most eminent physicians of Charlottetown, and by them and my friends given up as beyond all power to help me, Dr. Baxter, of Moncton, having occasion to call upon me on business, very naturally observed my state of health, and after fully describing my trouble, which by the doctors attending, me was pronounced Dyspepsia or Indigestion, in fact I was so bad I could only eat brown bread, and that after being made at least three days, while tea, coffee or milk I dare not touch, and a slice of dry toast would invariably give me the utmost distress. Dr. Baxter recommended "Robinson's Phosphorized Emulsion," and I feel that I owe the public a debt which can only be paid by saying to all similarly affected, "Go thou and do likewise," try "Robinson's Phosphorized Emulsion." To-day I am hearty and strong and can, without fear, indulge in all the luxuries of a first-class hotel.

Yours, etc.,
(Signed) J. McKECHNIE.

Mrs. Elizabeth Mason—Dr. M. Souvielle & Co. Gentlemen,—Yours of last week to hand, and in reply to your enquiry I have much pleasure in stating that from the first time of using the spirometer and the medicine I have improved very much. The bronchitis has entirely left me. I sleep well and have a good appetite. I must also add that coming to you as I did as a last resort, the cure effected has been wonderful.

Gratefully yours, MRS. E. MASON.

BEATING THE RECORD.

The Aldermen do the Business of Two Weeks in One Hour—The Consolidated By-laws.

Last evening a regular meeting of the City Council occurred. The following were present: Mayor Livingston; Alds. John Carson, R. J. Carson, Creeggan, Clements, Dunn, Irving, McGuire, Quigley, Redden, Shaw, Smythe and Whiting.

The minutes were read and adopted.

The Consolidated By-laws have been completed. Ald. Smythe had a bound volume in his hand. It was decided to postpone the third reading of these until the next meeting.

FINANCE REPORT.

Ald. R. J. Carson presented the report of the Finance Committee, recommending the payment of the following accounts: Cannom & Clayton, $128.48; R. Mowat, $25; John Bryant, $8; John O'Neil, $28.25; T. Hughson, $30.65; F. Hopkins, $14; B. McConville, $162; W. B. Little, $4; W. Hutton, $122.85; W. McMunn, $20.16; S. Lobeep, $4; M. Lemon, $96; John C. Innes, $8; J. Agnew, $2; G. Newlands & Sons, $67.75. —Report adopted.

THE LICENSE REPORT.

Ald. McGuire presented the report of the License Committee, recommending that no action be taken on Hugh McGuire's petition; that Timothy Connolly be allowed a rebate of two-thirds of his license fee, as he only began to sell meat on Oct. 10th. The petition of James Robb was deferred for further consideration.

Ald. R. J. Carson said Hugh McGuire had been forced out of business and his case should have been considered.

Ald. McGuire said there was no precedent for the granting of a rebate because a man had given up business. It would be unfair to do so, as one could thus act unjustly to his neighbors. He thought no precedents should be established or other persons would come in and ask for favors. He said that they had the statement now made that Mr. Harkness did not buy Mr. Robb's license, that Harkness made no agreement to purchase it, the understanding being that Mr. Robb should not open nearer than six doors from Mr. Harkness.

The report was adopted.

COMMUNICATIONS.

From the Board of Police Commissioners, asking for the room next to the police station, now occupied by the City Assessor for an office for the Chief of Police. The Commissioners deemed it necessary that the Chief's office should have immediate connection with the station, in order that he might have closer supervision over the force. A door could be put in the partition between the two rooms.—Referred to the Committee on City Property.

From Eckhard Hoffner, asking that he be called upon to pay but one-sixth of a butchers' license for his new butcher shop opened in Mrs. Stratford's old stand. On motion the Council decided to accept one-sixth of the fee.

SERIES OF PETITIONS.

Ald. J. Carson—The petition of Capt. Abbie Thompson. (Laughter.) It asked for a remission of the rent of the City Hall, used on the occasion of the Salvation Army's marriage feast.—Granted on the usual conditions.

Ald. McGuire—The petition of Daniel Murphy, asking for leave to lay down building material on Bay and Rideau streets.—Granted on the usual conditions.

Ald. Redden—The petition of Messrs. & Minnes, asking that the frontage tax be not exacted for two drains, constructed in order to prevent suffering from neighbours' closets.—Referred to the Committee on Streets.

BAND CONCERTS.

Ald. Creeggan, seconded by Ald. Quigley, moved that the City Hall be granted to "B" Battery on the usual conditions for a series of promenade concerts, the admission fee not to exceed 15c.—Granted.

COAL OIL LAMPS.

Coal oil lamps will be erected in the following wards: Frontenac, 3; Rideau, 3; Victoria, 2; Cataraqui, 2.

CONSOLIDATED BY-LAWS.

Enough Aldermen having arrived to continue the business of the Council should some Aldermen desire to retire, it was decided to read the Consolidated By-law a first, second and third times, pro forma. The various letters of the divisions were read and adopted.

The by-laws recently passed regarding the sale of meat, the firing of arms and abusive language, will be added as an Appendix to the Consolidated Bylaws, which will take effect at once. They were signed and sealed in the presence of the Council, and that body then adjourned at the early hour of 9 o'clock.

WORDS IN SEASON.

NO. 1.—We cannot expect this mild weather to continue but a few days more at the farthest. While it does last, however, it behooves us to make ample preparation for a long, cold winter, filling up the coal bins, putting on double windows, getting ready to answer the question, For whom do you vote? and, what is fully as important as either, overhauling Furs and Fur Garments, sending such as need repairing or remodelling to some reliable Furrier to be put in shape for immediate use. This is also the best time of the year to purchase new Furs. Stocks are full and the assortment much better, especially Persian Lamb goods and Astrachan Jackets, than can be expected later on. BUFFALO ROBES will be found cheaper this season than they have been in years, the price ranging from $6 to $12 for extra large robes. Japanese Wolf Robes are also very cheap—if you know just where to buy them, and very many people believe that in all Canada there is no better or cheaper place to buy ROBES, FUR COATS, JACKETS or FURS of any kind than at the

Boston Hat and Fur Store,

Wellington Street, Kingston. This firm manufactures Furs of every description and pays careful attention to the remodelling and repairing of all Furs, and last, but not least, they have the reputation not only of keeping the finest Stock but also of selling their goods cheaper than any other house in Kingston. IT'S SO! ASK JOHN?

WE HAVE ALWAYS BEEN GOVERNED by the old adage better to lead than follow. The reason we do the leading Ale and Porter business is that we have the largest stock of bottled Ale and Porter in Canada and we bottle nothing but Labatt's London Ale and Stout, and it is beyond a doubt the finest Ale that is made (we do not take exception to Bass' Ale for we think we can discount them) having received honors in Paris, Australia, Philadelphia and we have not to go away from home to receive honors. We received the Gold Medal that was awarded in Canada, 1876, and the great Montreal analyist says: Labatt's London Ale is the purest that I have ever tested; it is made from the finest Canadian barley and English Kent hops, the water used being taken from the rock on the premises and is far superior to lake or river water for brewing purposes. It is sold in bottles by all first-class hotels and restaurants and when you ask for ale to sure it is Labatt's London you get.

Great has been the sale of our Patent Flour; it always gives satisfaction and, that alone accounts for our great sale. We have now something new, "Gold Dust"—the name sounds well, but the article tastes better. Gold Dust is Ohio celebrated Corn Meal and people who use it say it is the finest article they have ever used. We have also Pearline Corn Meal made from the finest Kansas White Corn when this is baked it is whiter than any kind of cake and and is much healthier and cheaper. People who use the ordinary Corn come and get some of our American meal, and when you use it once you will never go back to the old again. This fact has been fully demonstrated last week. We had no American meal, and our customers preferred waiting rather than take the ordinary meal again. Always come to CRAWFORD'S when you want fine Groceries and you will get the best assortment of goods in the Dominion of Canada.

JAMES CRAWFORD,

Agent for Labatt's London Ale and Stout.
