CITY AND VICINITY.

Strong winds and gales, veering to north west and north, but decidedly colder with a few snow flurries.

John Gaskin purchased the grain delivered in the ship, William Home, paying 75 cents per bushel for the 400 bushels. Henry Moore secured 4,800 bushels of the good grain, paying therefor 84 cents per bushel in bond.

Monday was the fifteenth anniversary of the first publication of a paper in Kingston. John Colburn, of Watertown, N.Y., was the publisher.

An unduly long report was circulated a day or two ago to the effect that Albert, who shot a boy at High Park, had been sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the penitentiary at Kingston.

The Ottawa Globe is somewhat sarcastic in its remarks on the recent report which reaches the following paragraph: "The medical students of Kingston are not too medical. They invited the Governor-General to attend their annual banquet. They should have invited the Prince of Wales."

The Committee of School Management did not meet last evening as it was understood it would do. The Chairman did not call the members together for decision upon the school matters to be adopted, probably for the reason that he had not obtained certificates to the effect that the Royal Canadian was authorized that they were to be sold as cheap as the cheapest.

Olson is looking up. There are no vacant houses and rents are high. Mr. Lee, from New York State, has purchased for $500 the residence lately occupied by Mr. Fisher. Mr. McKay has finished his private residence. Mr. Spauld is building an extensive addition to his hotel and also the requirements of his extensive livery business.

Mr. G. W. Ross, the new Minister of Education, is a graduate of Albert University, Belleville.

Mr. G. A. Kirkpatrick and bride did not arrive at Cape Vincent last night. They will probably arrive here on Thursday.

The police authorities have had an information issued against William Neale, of Peimont street, a gambler, who is charged with purchasing goods known by him to be stolen. He bought an overcoat from Johnny Kelly for a very small sum. The police assert that he knew he was buying an article that had been pilfered. Such work must cease.

How is it that, notwithstanding the great awakening and the many special sales that are now taking place in the dry goods trade, F. X. Cousineau's great sale of damaged goods has commenced so successfully? It must be that F. X. Cousineau has always been a live merchant who has kept up with the times and always has something fresh to attract buyers and give bargains to induce them to return again.

The receipts of grain during the past week have been very fine. As present the heavy condition of the roads has prevented much grain being drawn. When shipping stops in the receipts will be largely increased. In Ontario the receipts for this year to date have been: Of wheat, 2,128,241 bushels; of corn, 1,285,411 bushels. There is a demand for 200,000 bushels.

HERE AND THERE.

Laundry Arrangement of Home of Local and General Interest—Goodly that is Washable.

The Municipal Council has become a one act play.

The SS. Scandinavia arrived at Halifax on Wednesday at 2-30.

The trial of the Queen's Lane Handkerchiefs will be performed here on Wednesday, Dec. 5th.

The graduates of Toronto University met this afternoon in E. H. Smythe's office to organize a County Association.

Some people are already conjecturing the chances of J. H. Metcalf against Alexander Gunn at the next general election.

BZZZZZING BAZAAR.

Attended by a Great Crowd of Citizens—Falling South—Crown of Treatment House.

Last night the City Hall was crowded with persons interested in the success of the charity bazaar held to raise funds for the benefit of the House of Penitence.

The sixth, seventh and eighth centuries of Kingston with the adjoining part of Leach, are probably the best digging districts in the town.

This factory is situated near the boundary of the townships and is owned by James Birmingham, who has carried on the business of cheese-making here very successfully for many years.

This factory is situated near Brewer's Mills and is owned by Messrs. John Dillon and Geo. McMillan. Its object is more to manufacture the milk of those in its immediate vicinity than to make a profit for its owners.

This factory is owned by a syndicate of farmers immediately surrounding it, who run it on the joint stock principle.

Among things presented to the bazaar and mentioned were a handsome dress for the bride doll from Miss McTaggart, and a beautiful doll from Miss Lyndell.

At Millington on Monday there were lively times. A number of roughs got above the police and created a regular riot.
