A PUGNACIOUS CLERGYMAN

Why He Was Requested to Leave Town

-Abusing His Character Then Whipping Him.

Rev. W. W. De Hart, for two years rector of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church,

Walden, N.Y., thrashed John Best, his chorister, a day or two ago, and in doing so, he was requested to leave town by the vestry of the church.

The last of the week the reverend clergyman was whipped by a committee

ODONNELL'S LIFE

Commanded Man Said to Have Worked on the Erie Canal and to Have

During the conversation of three or four Irishmen on a train near Pittsburg the other day, a member of the Irish community, who was known to me as O'Donnell, was asked to give an account of his life, and he did so in a very interesting manner.
