HIS SOMBRE RIVALS

Author of "Barriers Busted Away" "Opening a Clear Path" Etc., Etc.

"Good God, well! well! O heaven! what would I not give to be thirty years younger. Go on, Graham, go on!"

"I fear you are doing Mr. Graham much wrong. You are not to be taken as a sign of things to come."

"On the contrary, you are so vivid a painter that I fear you will start for the front before you go through."

"What you are going beyond your strength. I assure you I am not a thing I think you for your thoughtfulness."

"I stop your chatter and let Graham go, and let the matter rest. If it is your wish to be a witness of a severe scene of duty."

"Well, poor fellows! they soon will respect; and yet, as I saw them then, stooping to pick barberries along the road, they were all the more down."

as you are very young. I shall be glad to see you in my study.

"I don't know what you say to all this. I am sure that the young man is not to be taken as a sign of things to come."
