Memory Bells.

O sweet memory bells!
Bring the past like a dream!
Your tones echo through the years,
Like the tread of fairy feet.
Ring, sweet golden bells!
Ring of the time ago,
Bring me the happy days,
My childhood loved to know!

O sweet memory bells!
Oft in the darkness I hear,
Sometimes the deep, soulful peals,
Sometimes the peals of glad cheer.
Ring, sweet golden bells!
Ring of the times gone by,
Bring me the days all dark,
Though with them comes a sigh.

O sweet memory bells!
Come to the heart that I love,
And as your tones steal in
Be like the son of the dove!
Ring, sweet golden bells!
Ring down the years of pain,
Bring them what I long most,
Some gentle thought of me.

Sharbot Lake Reflections.

We have another very profitable industry here which is very busy at the present time—doing nothing—No Name.

Business, of course, is brisk and will, in all probability, continue so for a long while yet, that is as far as I wish to Tomorrow.

The C. P. R. and K. & P. R. here run side by side very peaceably, and never dreaming that the master of the one is opening wide his mouth in frantic endeavours to gobble up the other.

The finest building of the place is the Hotel de Sharbot, a very commodious building owned by Mr. Jesse Shibley, and at present managed by Mr. J. Percy, a man suited in every respect to his business. Guests here are rejoiced to find city accommodations and city fare.

Here may be seen at most any time the great mogul of the C.P.R., a cattle buyer from the States, a man stricken with the palsy from Virginia, a dude from Kingston, a commercial man from Toronto or Montreal, and a masher from Perth, all smoking cigars from the same box and feeling perfectly at home.

All down the ages, since the time when some over-charged volcano vented its spleen against creation by promiscuously heaping up rock and sand in a variety of motions which unbalanced one of the loveliest lakes that ever reflected the smile of Phoebus, this place has been without a regular incognito correspondent.

Perhaps some bald-headed moundbuilder, seated on the sharp corner of a lofty rock, may have sung the praises to the aborigines chromatic, or it may have disturbed brave yelped in his last war dance the glorious qualities of the place for a first class Sioux summer resort. But never mind antiquity; but let us reveal its present state. Situated on the narrows of the Lake the village look out on as beautiful a landscape as water, rocks and trees can make.

Sydenham Notes.

Those who talk about a Red Ribbon Army speak from imagination as there no such society here.—Wonders.

There is a good demand for silex, in the American market, and many are employed in this section in getting the mineral out.

Our lake is now frozen, and many of the young people spend the greater part of their time on skates and no one has taken a bath yet.

There promises to be a lively contest for municipal honors in the township at the coming election. Several gentlemen have already announced themselves as candidates.

Captain Bristol made a mistake when he stated that Charlie Coulter spoke in the hall here since the Saved Army attacked Sydenham; it was our Freddie who has spoken frequently since the Army's arrival.

The residents are annoyed by a band of gipsies, who are lingering in this vicinity. Some of them deal in horses and others in tinware and have all kinds of curious names, such as Thundercloud, Kettledrum, Nosy Taker, Happy Sally and Lonely Bill. Keep your fat turkey and yelle w-legged chickens in a place of safety.

Westport Items

H. Lockwood has been quite ill but is now convalescent.

Miss Hattie Ryder, who has been ill for a long time, is now showing signs of recovery.

A few days ago Mrs. E. S. Hastings fell from the top of the stairs and broke her arm, and is said to be in a dangerous condition.

W. C. Fredenburg has also confined to the house for several weeks by a spraised knee, and is very much missed by the band and in the circle of his friends.

Quite a number of new buildings have been erected this fall, which is a proof that the village is thriving, which is brought about through the prospect of a branch of the K. & P. RR.

E. G. Adams has been improving his place by adding a number of new buildings. Mr. A. has the agency for the Brantford Agricultural Works, and is said to be the most successful agent in the country.

A Great Bargain Sheet.

In watch crystals, only 10 cents, at William Daniel's Jewelry Store, the cheapest place in the City. PUBLIC MATTERS.

Why Did the City Council Not Grant the School Board the Money it Greatly Needed?

The Editor, British Whig.

Dear Sir,—Now that the municipal elections are coming on and the members of next year's Council are to be chosen I would desire to draw the attention of the electors to a matter which directly affects them all, namely, the educational interests of the city.

In this matter, I know, it is generally admitted that there is not sufficient accommodation in the city schools for the number of pupils at present in attendance, and complaints directed at the School Board, have been heard from many persons who naturally supposed that the Board was responsible for this state of affairs. Now, let us see if the Board is responsible for this, and if not on whom the responsibility rests. Has the Board taken all the steps possible? We know that last year an application was made to the City Council for money necessary to provide the increased accommodation required. The demand was repeated by this year's Board and no definite answer, either granting the amount asked for or refusing it, has been given. The Board, in the present shape of affairs, can go no further on account of the troubling conduct of the Council, which makes the members afraid of some big bear, the creature of their own imagination, and prevents them giving a direct yes or no, as honest men would, to the Board's request.

How about the Council then? The facts remain that, asked as it was, to furnish funds for the necessary accommodation, and this request repeated by this year's Board, one of two things became its duty: If it deemed the money necessary, to vote it; if not, to refuse it. And then recently join issue with the Board and throw on its members the responsibility of asking the people by their votes to decide for or against the grant. What, however, did the Council do? I need not go into the question of delay in 1882. I have only to deal with this present year, as it is the acts of the Aldermen for this year, on which the electors are called to express an opinion. Well, this year the Board received word concerning a resolution (not a by-law by which alone the money can be granted) granting the money for building purposes. Next the matter is brought up in the Council, and a motion for consideration of the matter, moved by Ald. Irving, seconded by Ald. Redden, receives the votes of the mover and seconder only, the rest of the Aldermen present being indeed as very well developed educationally, that I suppose they thought the city safe on account of their vast stores (?) of learning, no matter how the rising generation might be neglected. The members of the Council apparently never thought of what shifts the Board was put to. Forced to pack 146 pupils (the number on the roll) into break down premises, abandoned as unfit for human occupancy until force, which gives no choice, compelled the Board to use such a place for educational purposes, the miserable parsimony of the members of the Council, preventing the proposed addition to Louise School. The use of the structure above referred to (adjoining Louise School) and the force which compelled such use, also shows the total disregard of duty which has marked the Council of this year. A mere fire trap, from the upstairs part of which, in case of fire not ten could possibly come out alive.

I would ask the electors to consider these things, to see the means which the Board has been forced to adopt to provide all accommodation, consider the crowding of 146 pupils into the structure above referred to, to go and look at the means of exit from the upstairs part of it and then say if it is not time to mark their reprobation of the Council's course by a complete change in its membership.—Yours truly,

ROBERT SHAW.

Dec. 18th, 1883.

Important Press Opinions.

The Evangelical Churchman says: We have read of Dr. Wilson's dismissal with great regret. Dr. Wilson has our heartfelt sympathies. He may have erred in judgment in some points, but this action is one of undisguised persecution of a clergyman who has been nobly faithful to his convictions, and whom recent career has provoked the hostility of worldly-minded men.

The Philanthropist Press says: The dismissal of Rev. Dr. Wilson from the pastorate of St. George's Cathedral, at Kingston, Ontario, becomes of his participation in the meetings of the Salvation Army, will injure him less than his intolerant churchmen. The Salvation Army is not a commendable institution. As a means of carrying souls it is engaging and diametrical, but it is not less so than the harsh discipline which exacts from the Christian ministry a man who, by his personal presence, pays tribute to the neurosis of its motives.

Christmas Music.

A recital of Christmas music will be given at St. George's Cathedral on Thursday, Dec. 20th, at 8 o'clock, when the following selections will be rendered: "Light from Heaven," Miss Hewson. "Nazarite," Mr. Sawyer. "It came upon the Midnight Clear," Mrs. Robert Deacon. Also four carols and "Nunc Dimittis" by the quartette, composed of Mrs. H. Bates, Mrs. W. H. Martin, Mr. Cochrane, R.M.C., and Mr. Rawnsley. Duet sung for four voices, "O, Brothers Up," Messrs. Sherlock, Cochrane, R. W. Shannon and Nelles. "Come all ye Faithful," solo, Mrs. R. Deacon; duets, trio and quartette, by Miss Davy and Messrs. Sherlock and Rawnsley, with full chorus; also four carols by full choir.

Tickets will be furnished free of charge on application to Mr. Bragg, Churchwarden. Tickets will be forwarded to pew holders. A collection will be taken up.

Proceed, at the New York Clothing Store, is having a great clearing sale of ready-made clothing, consisting of suits and travel overcoats. Cash buyers will do well by calling on him. He will also give a great reduction on clothing made to order. Remember he guarantees a first-class fit.

Put a 3-cent stamp Wilson Chemical Co., Kingston Ont., will send to any address 27 hand colored samples of Triangle Paste, with directions for use; have no worthless jobs; have to make cold colors; and other information valuable to every household.

SELLING HIS WIFE.

A Man who Disposes of His Spouse for a Quart of Beer—A Scene in Court.

Before Mr. Justice Denman, at the Liverpool Assizes, Betsy Wardle was charged with marrying George Chimal at Eccleston bigamously, her former husband being alive. The case was a peculiar one. It was stated by the first woman that as her first husband had sold her for a quart of beer she thought she was at liberty to marry again.

His Lordship—That is not what she stated before the Magistrate. She said then that he was alive and would not work. When she left him she took the child with her, and he said if she would let him have the child he would not trouble her any further. He added that he would sell her for a quart of beer.

Prisoner—Please Your Worship, he did so. (Laughter.)

His Lordship—Is there anybody here who knows this? Yes, my lord: Alice Rousby and Margaret Brown.

His Lordship—Call Margaret Brown.

A PLAIN UNVARNISHED TALE.

Margaret Brown thereupon stepped into the box and was cross-examined by his lordship. She said she was present at the second marriage. She knew the first husband, Wardle, was alive; she was told that he had sold her for a quart of beer.

His Lordship—You believed it would be binding? Yes, sir.

His Lordship—And you thought it right she should marry again? She wished me to give her away, and I did so. (Laughter.)

His Lordship—You helped her to commit bigamy. Take care you do not do it again or you will get yourself into trouble.

Alice Rousby was next called and she saw Wardle drink one glass of the quart.

His Lordship—Who was the bargain made with? With George Chimal.

His Lordship—I am not sure that you are not guilty of bigamy, or of being an accessory before the fact. You must not do this sort of thing again. People have no right to sell their wives for a quart of beer or anything else. (Laughter.)

AN INNOCENT MAN'S STATEMENT.

George Chimal, the second husband, apparently just out of his teens, was the next witness called.

His Lordship—How did you come to marry this woman? Witness (in the Lancashire vernacular)—Hoo did a what? (Laughter.) Question repeated—A bowt her. (Laughter.)

His Lordship—You are not fool enough to suppose you can buy another man's wife? Oi. (Laughter.)

His Lordship—How much did you give for her? Sixpence. (Great laughter.)

His Lordship—You are an crafty as the rest. You are an accessory before the fact to her committing bigamy. You have committed bigamy yourself. Every body has committed bigamy in the case. (Laughter.) Go down.

WILLING TO KEEP HER.

The witness left the box with alacrity, but was immediately recalled by His Lordship, who asked him how long he had lived with the prisoner.

Witness—Going on for three years.

His Lordship—Do you want to take her back again?

Witness—Awl keep her if you loike. (Laughter.)

His Lordship—You need not keep her if you do not want. She is Wardle's wife.

Mr. Swift, addressing His Lordship, said all he wished to say on behalf of this unfortunate woman was this, that she seemed to have met with a bad husband in the first place, and an ignorant man in the second. He could only venture to hope that His Lordship would not think it a case in which she ought to be punished—at least not severely.

His Lordship directed that Wardle should be called, and this was done without eliciting any answer.

PUNISHING HUSBAND NO. 2.

His Lordship—In framing the prisoner's—It is absolutely necessary that I should pass some punishment upon you in order that people may understand that men have no more right to sell their wives than they have to sell other people's wives, or to sell other people's horses or cows or anything of the kind. You cannot make that a legal transaction. So many of you seem to be ignorant of that that it is necessary I should give you some punishment in order that you should understand it. It is not necessary that it should be long, but you must be imprisoned and kept to hard labor for one week.

Testimony Not Needed.

So much has been said regarding the wonderful cures made through the aid of the application the inventions of Dr. M. Souvielle of Paris, as sole surgeon of the French army, that many eminent physicians have been induced to investigate the merits of the Electro-Magnetic Pulsating Instrument, and also the scientific standing of the International Throat and Lung Institutes. All who have so investigated express themselves satisfied that the physicians connected with the staff of the Institute are thoroughly qualified medical men, that patients receive the latest and most scientific treatment, and that the apparatus is really a valuable addition to medical science.

One very prominent physician said: "If there is anything in calculation it can be got out of the Spirometer. I am surprised at the powerful effects produced." Any one suffering from Asthma, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Catarrhal Deafness, Consumption in its first stages or Laryngitis should consult the physicians of the Institute personally and be examined, if not write for list of questions and copy of Testimonial News published monthly. Physicians and sufferers can try the Spirometer free. Consultation free. Address International Throat and Lung Institute, 179 Church st., Toronto, or 13 Philip square, Montreal, P.Q.

The Truth and Nothing Else.

Nowadays people want proof. Shoebops are more plentiful than dollars, and it is only by the greatest care that many are kept at convention point that they are not foiled. Proof is wanted, and that we can supply in connection with the claims of Parsons' Purgative Cure Extractor as a cure, safe, and painless remedy for worms. Ask any druggist what he thinks of it. Ask any person who has used it. This will give you all the proof you want. Then buy a bottle, test it, and become a missionary for Parsons' Purgative Cure Extractor.

Remember Your Friends.

This is eminently the case with Polson's Nervoline, the great pain cure. It is an honest remedy, for it contains the most powerful, the purest and most certainly pain relieving remedies known to medical science. It is honest, for it does all it claims to do. It is honest, because it is the best in the world. It only costs 10 or 25 cents to try it, and you can buy it boldly at Polson's and King's drug stores. Nervoline cures headache, neuralgia, pain in the back and side. All genuine are promptly relieved by Polson's Nervoline.

Important.

The Excelsior Rupture Treatment was introduced to the American people several years ago by furnishing the remedy to those afflicted with Hernia in any of its forms and collecting no pay until permanent cure was effected. In this way the treatment gained a world wide reputation, on its own merits, never failing to cure any reducible Hernia. The Company has placed the remedy on sale by all druggists in the United States, Canada and England, in this way bringing it within the reach of all classes at a trifling cost. Ask your druggist for a free book or send six cents for one to the Excelsior Rupture Cure Manufacturing Co., Quincy, N.Y.

Everybody Has Had

Some time in their life, and should be careful. If you or any friend are suffering from any kind of pain, internal, local or external, try Polson's Nervoline, the wonderful pain cure. Nervoline is one of the most elegant combinations ever offered to the public for the relief of pain. Pleasant to take, powerful in effect, sure in results, and cheap because the strongest, purest, and most certain pain remedy in the world. You can test the great remedy by going to Polson's and King's drug stores and buying a 10 cent sample bottle. Try it at once.

To increase the weight of the body, increase the appetite, revitalize the blood, oil and lengthen the life of the aged, it is necessary that the digestive organs must be in a healthy condition if we wish to secure the desirable result, and to reach out beyond this. The proof of no other medicine has been so conclusive in this respect as Parsons' Purgative Cure Extractor. It enables the Parsons' Cure Extractor. It enables the digestive organs to build up the nervous system and all the life producing properties of
