SUBJECT OF THE TALK. Mr. Owers took for his text the last clause of John xIV., 1: "Believe also in Me." The word believe has so often been rung in our ears that we scarcely understand what it does mean. We believe all the word of God; we believe all the New Testament says about Christ; we believe we will be saved yet we are not saved. We would li to understand how it is that we are no saved and want an answer to that question. Ministers, fathers, mothers Sunday School teachers have told , yet we do not understand it in trut! We are saved by faith. We have salvation brought to our souls by faith. Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved," is the most philosophic truth. There is a belief
